

CHAPTER 93.

An Act in addition to the Act for Incorporating the Margaretville Pier Company.

[Passed the 31st day of March, 1856.]

SECTION

1. Harbour master—appointment of.
2. Duties of, &c.

SECTION

3. Harbour regulations, &c.
4. Bye-laws to be approved by sessions

Be it enacted by the governor, council, and assembly, as follows:

Harbour master—appointment of.

Duties of, &c.

Harbour regulations, &c.

Bye-laws to be approved by sessions.

1. Power is given to the Margaretville pier company to appoint a harbor master as often as they deem it necessary.

2. Also, by bye-laws or resolutions to establish his duties or powers, amount and mode of remuneration, and term of service, and to define the limits of the harbor.

3. Also, to make bye-laws or resolutions as the same may be required for preserving the harbor and pier from damage; for ensuring that the berths occupied by vessels should be left unoccupied, and holes and injuries made in the beach be filled up and repaired for preventing an unnecessarily prolonged use or unfair obstruction of the dock or pier, and securing to all a just participation in their use and advantage; and for enforcing the observance of such regulations or bye-laws upon the owners and masters of vessels, and the owners of goods, and all others resorting to or using the harbor or pier.

4. A copy of every such bye-law or resolution shall be affixed on door of the court house on the first day of some general meeting of the court of sessions for the county of Annapolis, and no bye-law or resolution touching any of the objects mentioned in the second or third sections preceding, shall be of force or effect until read in and approved by a majority of the said court at such sittings.
