

An act for appropriating and disposing of the public monies.

After which his Excellency was pleased to make the following speech to both Houses—

“ Gentlemen of the Council,
“ And Gentlemen of the Assembly,

“ THE business of this Session being finished, I have the “ satisfaction to dismiss you, with those sentiments of His Excellency's speech.
“ esteem and regard, which are due to your zeal and perseverance “ in pursuing measures calculated to promote and secure the pub“ lic welfare; and I with pleasure anticipate that complete suc“ cess, which will be a lasting proof of the wisdom and rectitude “ of your conduct.”

And then the Clerk of the Crown, by his Excellency's com- The General
