"THE MAN IN THE IRON MASK'

PECULATIONS were long rife amon French historians, all tending to elucida e the mystery connected with the celebrated prisoner, the Man in the Iron Mask. By some, it was hinted that he was the twin-brother of Louis XIV., thus frighcfully sacrificed to make his senior safe on his horne; others affirmed him to be the English Duke of Monmouth; others, a son of Oliver Cromwell; many, with more reason, inclining to think him a state-prisoner of France, such as the Duke de Beaufort, or the Count de Vermandois. It was reserved for M. Delort, at a comparatively recent period, to pene trace the mystery, and enable the late Lord Dover to compile and publish, in 1825, his True History of this unfortunate man; the facts being gathered from the state archives of France, and documentary of Shoes The economical housewife is out-fitting her family now with rubber footwear for the fall rains and the winter snows. She is doing this because she knows that rubber is the only staple article that has decreased in price since the war-began, and that rubper shoes and overshoes cost no more now than they did before, while leather has reached a price that is almost pro-hibitive.

"Save your Shoes by Wearing Rubbers" is the thrifty woman's advice to her family. Rubbers cost no more than they did two years ago, leather has advanced over 50 per cent. The British Government has made cheap rubber possible. Show your patriotism by buying rubbers and overshoes to save your leather shoes.
