Jasper A. Winslow Dined By Friends at Queen Hotel.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Dec. 2.—The cold weather of the past twenty-four hours has completely sealed up the St. John River.

Jasper A. Winslow, who leaves tomorrow evening for Havana to take up his residence, was banqueted by his friends at the Queen Hotel this evening. Some fifty gentlemen were present and the function was a very enjoyable one. E. H. Allen was chairman and J. Howe Dickson, vice-chairman, and the former proposed the toast of the evening, to which Mr. Winslow made a happy reply. Hanlon's Orchestra furnished music.

ATLANTIC CITY, Dec. 2.—The young woman, for love of whom Eugene Leonhardt committed suicide yesterday, will receive $500 as a wedding present on her marriage to the man for whom she deserted Leonhardt, if the will of the dead man is carried out.

Leonhardt, who has a wife and child, living in Baltimore, killed himself immediately after receiving a letter from the girl telling him that their former relations must cease.

Leonhardt left a note asking that the $500 be paid over to the girl out of his insurance money. The police got the girl the money, or whether she will accept it.

ELECTION ECHOES.

One Conservative Organ Admits Hazen Got a Black Eye.

CHATHAM, Dec. 2.—No returns from South Esk have yet been sent in and Burchill's majority stands at 192. South Esk polling-district is removed from telephone connections, and it is not known when the figures will come in from there. Conservatives take their defeat philosophically, but the World displays considerable bitterness over the result. It calls Burchill the government's opposition candidate and thinks Swinn did well against Liberal federal forces, government forces and local opposition forces. It admits that the Hazen government has sustained a black eye by the return of the opposition's candidate.

CATTLE EMBARGO WILL DIVERT MANY HEAD FROM PORTLAND TO THIS PORT

At Least 5,000 Cattle Which Would Otherwise Go via Grand Trunk to Maine Port Will Come to St. John

As a direct result of the recent embargo placed upon American cattle west of the St. Lawrence river, many of the regular shipments scheduled, will no doubt go far towards bringing the number up to between six and seven thousand. The question that is mainly agitating the critics of the steamship companies, is said, is chiefly that of accommodation, it being most apparent that the increased business will require all the necessary more frequent sailings than have been arranged for. Whether the companies will find it necessary to charter additional steamers is of course, this is a matter of conjecture. Mr. Downie of the C. P. R. does not know of any such arrangements having been made as yet.
