In Memory of Peter Baker.

COMPOSED BY HIS FRIEND MAGGIE HAMMOND.

Written for THE BEE.

A brother dear, a play-mate true,
He ever was to all;
But he from friends and playmates dear
Jesus saw fit to call.

He has called him to a better world,
A happy home above,
To meet with dear ones gone before
And those whom Jesus loved.

Although his playmates miss his smile
When'er they meet for play,
The lips that once so sweetly smiled
Now moulders in the grave.

Though in the grave his body lies,
His spirit there is not;
But now to sing the angels' song,
His child like lips are taught.

May all his friends and playmates dear
Who read these words of mine,
Be ready and prepared to go
At any place or time.

Elma, Sept. 17, 1890.

The Price of Wheat.

There appears to be sufficient reason for the present advance in the price of wheat and cause to believe that it will be sustained. At a recent Millers' Conference at Edinburgh, James Rusk read a paper on the crop of wheat of the world, by which it appears that this year is not in excess of the consumption and that the existing stocks will probably be reduced in the course of the year. The following are his conclusions:—

1st. That the great decline in wheat values in the past fifteen years has been due to lessened cost of transportation from the exporting countries, to over production in the first part of the period in question, and to the very favorable state of the Indian and Russian exchanges.

2nd. That population has for some time been steadily gaining on wheat production, and that the theory of over-production no longer holds good.

3rd. That America is approaching the time when she must considerably increase her wheat acreage, or fall out of the ranks of wheat-exporting countries.

4th. That the competition of American flour in England next season must perforce be much less acute than in the past season, because of the deficient crop there.

5th. That the material recovery in the Indian and Russian exchanges may be expected to assist in raising the platform of wheat values.

6th. That Russia and Roumania have taken the first position in the scale of wheat exporters; which is, perhaps, matter for a certain amount of congratulation amongst us, since those countries are not in the habit of forming "rings" and syndicates for fictitious raising prices.

And, lastly, that the ensuing season is not going to be one of undue abundance, nor of any serious scarcity, so far as wheat is concerned.

Perth County Notes.

The Stratford hospital will be completed next month.

The Mitchell Sporting Association were just $32 out on their late races.

On Friday evening, Sept. 5th, the Baptists of Fullarton held an ice-cream social and bazaar on the town hall grounds, which was well attended, the proceeds amounting to over $40.

Wm. Johnstone, ex-clerk of the township of Blanshard, was thrown from his buggy at the G. T. R. crossing west of St. Marys, one day recently, and narrowly escaped serious injury. His horse shied at a passing train and ran into the ditch.

A painful accident of peculiar nature happened recently on the farm of Henry McNaught, of Carleton Place. A young lad named Detwiler was working a binder when a swarm of bees came along and settled on one of the horse's heads. The boy was stung nearly thirty times, but the horse fared much worse. It was stung so badly that at one time its life was despaired of, but it now seems to be recovering.

Tuesday of last week at a threshing Hugh Lennon, of the 4th con. of Ellice, was injured so that he underwent a very narrow escape from death. A stone or some other hard substance got in the threshing cylinder, knocking out a tooth, which flew with terrible force striking him in the temple, and wounding the artery. There was danger of his bleeding to death, but those with him, with commendable promptitude and presence of mind put him in a rig and drove him to Stratford as fast as possible, and took him to Mr. Goetz's hotel. Drs. Deakin and Ellis were sent for and their efforts and skill were enlisted none too soon to save Mr. Lennon's life. He is fortunately past all danger now, at which his many friends and acquaintances, saying nothing of his family, will gratefully rejoice.
