Eye Troubles

Have an awkward fashion of becoming aggravated. Much the best way for you to do, if you have experienced even the faintest signs of coming eye defects, is to consult an optician.

We will examine your eyes, give advice, select the proper lenses or order them for you if we do not have them in stock.

We will give you a choice from a big pile of different sorts of frames and charge you for nothing but the glasses.

DELIGHTED PATRONAGE

Peace's Great Shoe Sale Thronged With Customers.

A Rapidly Developing Business—Practical Appreciation of the Public.

One of Chatham's most prosperous and up-to-date shoe merchants is G. J. Peace, whose store is situated four doors west of the market. At present he is having one of his most successful summer sales.

A Peace representative took a walk through his thoroughly equipped store this morning and found it thronged with customers. The citizens of Chatham evidently know where to get good shoe bargains and are taking good advantage of his big August sale. During this sale Mr. Peace is giving 10 per cent. off everything in his store and is fast clearing out his stock to make room for the new lines of goods that are continually coming in.

Mr. Peace came to Chatham about eight years ago and since that time he has, by strong perseverance and wonderful business ability, worked up a most enviable trade. He first started in the store known as the White Shoe Store, adjoining Vooftun's jewelry store. Here he worked successfully for a number of years. Last March he found that in order to keep enough stock to satisfy the demands of the public he would have to find a larger store.

He then moved into his present quarters, and since then his business has rapidly increased until now he has one of the finest and best shoe trades in the city. He also keeps a full line of trunks and valises.

Mr. Peace is certainly deserving of the trade he receives. He has now been engaged in this line of business for 18 years, part of which time was spent in the factory. So that he understands every department of the business and knows just what will meet the demand of his purchasers.

He keeps a gentlemanly lot of clerks and everything around the store presents a most up-to-date and very business-like appearance. Mr. Peace will leave next week for eastern points to complete the purchasing of his fall goods.

PRETTY WEDDING

Marriage of two Maple City Young People This Afternoon.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vanstone, Lansdowne avenue this afternoon, when their youngest daughter Maude was united in marriage to Charles Brush, an employee of Thompson's confectionery.

The ceremony, which was performed at half past three o'clock by the Rev. Robert Sims, rector of Holy Trinity church, was witnessed only by the immediate friends and relatives of the parties concerned.

Miss Etta Camp, of Ridgeway, made a very pretty bridesmaid and Chas. Vanstone, brother of the bride, acted as groom.

The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion and everything passed off in grand style. The bride looked very handsome as she entered the room leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was becomingly robed in blue organdy and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. Her maid was also very tastefully dressed in pink organdy and carried pink roses.

After the ceremony the happy young couple left for Ridgeway, where a reception will be held at the groom's home. They will then visit the Pan-American and returning home will take up their residence on Lansdowne avenue.

The newly married couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, the gifts of their many friends and relatives who join in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life together.
