WILD MUSTARD.—Up to a few years ago, says the Harriston Tribune, there was not a wild mustard plant to be found in Minto, but such is not the case now and as mustard is about one of the hardest veeds to get clear of, our farmers should use every effort in exterminating it before it gets too strong a hold. We are informed that it was brought here in clover seed. If such is the case farmers should examine all seed carefully before buying. DEATH OF REV. THOS. COSFORD.—Rev. Thomas Cosford, a well known Methodist minister stationed in London South, died Thursday at the age of 79. Deceased was born in Hardington, Northampton, Eng. 1813. In 1818 his parents emigrated to New York, and in the following year removed to Toranto. The remainder of the late gentleman's life was spent in the western part of Ontario. In 1839 he entered the ministry and four years later was married. His widow survives him. He was a brother of Mr. Wm. Cosford, Guelph, and father of Mrs. (Rev.) W. W. Sparling, Elora. A peculiarly sad circumstance in connection with the demise of the rev. gentlemanis the fact that Thursdays sister, Mrs. Garbutt, of Harristen, was buried, she having died two days since aged 77 years.

Annual Event.—The St. George's Church Sunday School pionic was held in Mitchell's grove on Thursday afternoon, and was as usual a great success. The grove is prettily situated near the bank of the river Speed, and is just the place for an outing of this kind. Shortly after one o'clock the pionickers began to arrive and by three o'clock the grounds were well taken up by the children and their parents, and the ringing laughter of the children at their various games mingled with the murmur of merry conversation were undoutted evidence that all was enjoyment. The games provided for the boys were baseball, football, etc. In the baseball match the sides were captained by Dr. Lett and Ed. Taylor, and the result was 10 to 5 in favor of the latter. At five o'clock tea was provided, when full justice was done to the ample spread of provisions. After the repast was over the races, etc., for the little ones took place. Mr. J. Davison, Superintendent of the school, acted as starter, while Messrs. J. M. Bond, Dr. Lett, H. Lockwood and Charles Dunbar officiated as referees. The proceedings came to a close shortly after eight o'clock.

The Hospital Trust.—On Tuesday evening the first concert of the season under the auspices of the Young Men's Hospital Association will be held in the Exhibition Park. The Berlin Musical Society's Band has been engaged for the occasion. A programme of rare excellence will be given. The young men hope the ottizens will give them good support, as the season's amusement depends greatly on the success of the first entertainment. It is the intention of the committeeto have some first class attractions during the season. The price of admission has been put at the low price of 10 cents, so that all can enjoy themselves. As the concerts are for a benevolent purpose it is to be hoped the patronage will be large. Look out for small bills. The tickets will be on sale tomorrow from the committee.

KNOX CHURGH PICKIC.—The annual Sabbath School picnic in connection with Knox church was held yesterday afternoon in the beautiful grove of Mr. James Miller, adjoining his residence. The day was very favorable and there could not have been less than 600 present. Carryalls ran between the grounds and the church every 40 minutes, from one to ten o'clock. The day was a very pleasant one to both scholars, teachers and parents. A large tent was erected in the grove for serving refreshments. The teachers acted as waiters and effectually succeeded in satisfying all present from the youngest to the oldest. Mr. D. McLaren's string band furnished music during the afternoon and furnished music during the afternoon schoolars, introducing the following programme, which was well rendered: Three selections by the choir; solo by Mr. Sykes; solo by Miss Mackenzie, Corwhin—this young lady sang with great taste "O, Sing to Met he Auld Scottish Songs. The quarteste by Misses Lamont, M. Hadden, Messrs Norris and Bedford; choruses by the branch school, were all well rendered. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. R. J. Beattie, pastor, and Mr. G. W. Field, B. A. The latter gave a very pleasing and interesting address, in his unual happy and bright style. After the address a tag of war was pulled between a team of the and bright style. After the address a tug of war was pulled between a team of the congregation and one from the choir. It was naturally to be expected that the choir, which is composed of young and able bodied men, would come out a head. But those who knew the stamina of the But those who knew the stamina of the old veterans who assisted in olearing the forests in the early days had a different opinion. They were not mistaken. The nine from the congregation pulled the choir in short order, and could have drawn them all over the field. The picnic was a great success and was one of the largest and best attended ever held under the auspices of the congregation. The congregation are indebted to Mr. Millar for the use of his grounds, and it would be hard to find a better place for a picatio. The whole premises were thrown open to the picnickers.

Christian Endeavor Convention. New York. July 7.—From early morn-

New York, July 7.—From early morning delegates to the convention of the Christian Endeavor Society have been pouring into the city by thousands. Railroads were blocked and regular traffic delayed by the special trains. Madison Square Garden presented a magnificent spectacle when Edwin F. See, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, called the convention to order at 2.30 p.m. Upon a large platform 700 singers, with George C. Stebbins as leader and Ira D. Sankey as soloist were located. President Francis E. Clark and the officers of the United Society of Christian Endeavor cocupied seats in front of the singers. The 5,000 delegates from New York state occupied the boxes in the rear of the platform.

The address of welcome on behalf of the New York pasters was delivered by Rev. Charles F. Deems, D. D., of the ohurch of the Strangers, of this city. The welcome of the Brooklyn pastors was delivered by Rev. A. C. Dixon, of that oily. Singing by the mammoth choir followed. M. E. Gates, president of Amherst College, then responded to the address of welcome.

and Progress Lodges, in their reception of the Grand Masster last evening, shewed no exception to this rule, and he will no doubt carry away many pleasure recollections of his visit.

The lodge room was well filled, not only with the members belonging to the city, but visitors from Bowmanville, Hamilton, Galt, Preston, Elora and Fergus, were present, to do honor to the head of the Order in Ontario.

The routine business of Progress Lodge was done in a short time, after which Grand Master Fitzpatrick was introduced by P. G.'s Hewer, Anderson, Haugh and Grand Marshal Law. The grand honorship given, he took his seast and the lodge was opened in the initiatory degree and one candidate was introduced into the mysteries of the Order. At the completion of the initiatory work, Reliance Lodge degree team performed the floer work of the third degree, the secret work of both degrees being beautifully and solemnly given. This was followed by the installation of Progress Lodge officers by the Grand Marshal Law. P. G.'s Springer, Elora; L. Craig, Fergus; and W. McCullough, Bowmanville. The organ accompaniments throughout the session were played by Bro. Taylor, of Raliance Lodge. The following are the officers:

At the completion of the installation ceremony the Grand Master highly complimented the brethren of both lodges for the clear and concise manner in which the said without exception the work was done mearer to the unwritten than any of the lodges he has visited since attaining the position of Grand Master.

After a few words from some of the visiting brethren the lodge adjourned from labor to refreshments at the Wellington total, where an excellent supper of all the delicacies of the season had been provided. Between 75 and 80 sat down. In the absence of Bro. Mayor Sleeman, P. G. Ald. Hewer took the chair, having on high Grand Master Fitzpatrick and N. G. McLeod, Reliance Lodge, and P.
