snrance Co'y of Hartford, Conn.

DARN SIR.—I have much pleasure in acknowledging through your hands the receipt of a cheque for $155.71 from the Traveller's Life and Accident Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., in full and most satisfactory payment of my chim to indemnity for loss of time occa-loned by a very severe accident.

To those wishing Insurance I most cordially recommend the Travellers', for I am certain all claims will be as promptly paid as was mine.

Yours very truly, (Signed,) PHILIP B. PERLEY. AN AMUSING INCIDENT .- An incident which occurred during the Governor-General's visit to Hamilton is thus described in the Mail: "An amusing incident in connection with his Exc llency's drive to Dundurn was the conduct of the driver of a wagon upon which were pasted gigantic invi tations to the public to invest their surplus funds in Vegetine. Just as the Governor-General came out of the railway station yard the Vegetine wagon took up a place behind his carriage, and kept that position, to the annoyance of drivers of carriages which formed part of the cortege, for some distance. After repeated efforts the second carriage succeeded in passing the Vegetine wagon, and from that moment the Vegetine man's tactics seemed to fail him. After his Excellency had viewed the firemen the carriage in which he rode took up a place at the rear of the procession, but not without a struggle with the Vegetine without a struggle with the Vegetine to the trecedence. The Vegetine ache, Sore Lips, &c. at the rear of the procession, but not without a struggle with the Vegetine man for the precedence. The Vegetine wagon, it seems, followed the procession closely during the entire march through the city, and when the viceregal carriage joined in with the fire brigades the Vegetine man was not disposed to surrender his place. One of the police, however, interfered, and torced the man of medicine out of the
