Rennes, France, July 4.—Maitre Labori paid anothe, visit to Captain Dreyfus at 10 °Colo, this morning, remaining with him u, ill noon. The lawyer found the prisoner to be in much better spirits than even yesterday, and in the resistance Dreyfus has shown to the frightful blow he suffered in the judgment of the court martial and his berrible existence on Devil's Island, combined with his marvelous recuperation of physical and mental strength since he left Cayenne, Maitre Labori saw the strongest proofs of his ianocence Counsel was almost joyful in appearance on leaving the military prison to-day and beyond doubt his interviews with Dreyfus have given him the most favorable impression respecting the outcome of the court martial.
Dreyfus spent yesterday evening and this morning in studying the documents relating to the Esterhazy and Zola trials. Maitre Labori, during this morning's conference, explained to him the obscure points. Dreyfus was naturally astonished at many incidents and at the attitude of various persons since his deportation. Madame and Mattheleu Dreyfus are to see the prisoner this afternoon, when Maitre Labori will again visit him.

GUARDED BY ARMED MEN.

Campbellton, N. B., July 4.—Detective Greer, from Toronto, arrived here this morning, and on seeing the two men arrested here recently on suspicion of being Pare and Holden, the escaped bank robbers, identified them as the men wanted. The men will leave for Toronto by to-morrow morning's express. They have been very reticent all the time of their incarceration here. They have been guarded by five or six men well armed, but to-day the guard has been increased to insure the safe-keeping of the prisoners until they are ready to leave at 2.40 o'clock.

Cottawa, July 4.—(Special.)—Mr. Sifton has received Commissioner Oglivie's report on the cases of F. C. Wade, and all the officials were honorably, acquitted of any wrongdoing.

The Klondike Nugget, which came by acquired of any wrongdoing.

The Klondike Nugget, which came by the same mail, gives a summary of the cases. It is head-d, "Not Guilty," "Convincing Statements of Defendants," "No Connection Shown." When Clark & Wilson, appeared for defendants, on the consensuate of the charges, and Mr. Oglivie replied that there were no definite charges, but that Dr. Burke in a rambling way brought in everything.

Alexander Morrison, who, with Alex. McDonald, had leased the water front, swore that he had no knowledge of from the lease obtained wade was retained by the firm, and got a fee in proportion to the services required of lim. Wade would not accept anything for drawing up the lease. Witness swore that the retaining of Wade as solicitor and the leasing of the water front had no connection. After the lease was obtained Wade was retained by the firm, and got a fee in proportion to the services required of lim. Wade would not accept anything for drawing up the lease. Witness swore that the retaining of Wade as solicitor and the leasing of the water front had no connection. He went personally to Wade and secured his service, and never mentionell anything shout the water front. Witness knew nothing of any payment to Mr. McGregor.

The Nonde of the charges with the water front and the lease in the car was broken and the motorman Felix Plekard, was painfully injured. about the water front. Witness knew nothing of any payment to Mr. Mc-Gregor.

Alex. McDonald swore that he had no conversation with Wade before leasing the water front, and he was positive that none of his money ever went to Wade for that purpose. No money was paid to any officials in this connection.

Mr. Wade went on the stand and was sworn. The Nugget says that his statements were "Clear, concise and convincing, and in justice to that gentleman, it is to be regretted that our space forbids its reproduction." He swore that he had not received anything for the water front lease, McGregor also swore that he had no connection with it, either directly or indirectly.

D. W. Davis, Collector of Customs, and ex.M. P., Alberta, gave evidence in regard to Sir Hibbert Tupper's charge that saloen-keepers and gamblers were blackmailed. Mr. Davis said that he and Mr. Wade were appointed to get up subscriptions for Father Judge's Hospital, which was in a bad way. They collected $4,000 from saloon-keepers and gamblers who were escaping taxation, and turned the money collected $4,000, from saloon-keepers and gamblers who were escaping taxation, and turned the money over to Father Judge.

Mr. Wade gave similar testimony, and some other cases were gone into. Mr. Norwood cleared himself completely of any wrong.

Commissioner Oglivle regretted to have wasted a whole day on such flimsy charges, and congratulated the officials on making so good a showing, at the same time honor

Ida Van Cortland's Reply.

Mrs. Emily B. Tavaernier (Ida Van Cortland), the well-known actress, in reply to the divorce proceedings of her husband, Albert Tavaernier, states that her conduct has been above reproach; that she has had to make her living on the stage since her marriage; that she has even had to consent to having her young daughter do the same thing; that she has never been guilty of cruelty, and that she has had at times to dispose of personal belongings to provide necessities for herself and daughter, but has remained a faithful and loving wife.

Among the Missing.

Mr. James Cull, auctioneer, Market Square, is missing. He was last seen on Friday evening, when he left his boarding house on Bay street. He told the boarding house keeper, Mrs. Attwood, that he was going away to meet his daughter, who was coming from England. His absence has caused some of his creditors anxiety, as they were apparently not advised of his intended departure, and a number of attachments were issued by the judge. Bailiff Wm. Hunter seized the stock on behalf of John F. Wood and other creditors, and Bailiff R. Hunter jumped in with a landlord's warbar for nearly $300. Mr. Geo. E. Tuckett is the landlord.

There is likely to be serious legal complications unless Cull returns, as a large amount of furniture and other goods in the place were lefti there for sale by the owners, it is said.
