The death of the pacing mare Flora Coffee, 2.051-2, is reported from Hor-nell, N. Y., where she was in the train-ing stable of W. L. Snow. She was the third fastest harness mare ever bred in Canada, her time being surpassed only by Darkey Hal, 2.021-4, and Maud Kes-wick, 2.033-4. There was much thor-oughbred blood in Flora Coffee's pedi-gree. Her sire, Sir John, bred and own-ed by the late John Carr, and his son, Dr. Carr, of Hamilton, was a Clear Grit horse, and Clear Grit, who did so much for the breed of harness horses in Can-ada, was almost thoroughbred, being by imported Lapidist, dam by Cock of the Rock. Flora Coffee's dam was a daugh-ter of Marauder, the Rayon d'Or horse, owned by President Scagram, of the On-tario Jockey Club. Marauder was a Brookiyn Cup winner at a mile and a half, and in this race he defeated the great Hanover, as well as Elkwood and Eurus, Marauder was also the sire of 1898. THE ICE RACING SEASON.

THE ICE RACING SEASON. Canadian Sportsman: In this country the owners of trotters and pacers have for many years raced their horses on the ice with no bad effects arising there-from, and many horses that afterwards became famous on turf made their ini-tial bows to the racing game on the ice. In certain sections there is a strong pre-judice against winter racing for harness horses, but in this it is more a case of "sour grapes" than legitimate objection, for the opponents of ice racing are most-ly located at points where there is no ice, and they are, therefore, unfamiliar with the merits of the winter sport that is fast becoming extremely popular in this country. The senior Rugby season will close in Toronto this afternoon at Rosedale, when Varsity and Parkdale, the winners when Varsity and Parkdale, the winners of the senior O. R. F. A number of highly bred yearlings were also purchased, and for the benefit of these youngsters eleven tons of mo-lasses were laid in store for feeding pur-poses. Molasses is something that bdöy race horses thrive on, and is a discovery of John E. Madden, the veteran breeder. So far the experiment has been a decid-ed success at Barrie, and the Dyment yearlings were never of such size or sub-stance.
