belonging to neither, this mable river is ne-glected by both. The improvement of the improvement of the St. Lawrence, both above and below this an easy victory. City, to correspond with the undertakings of Upper Canada, need not be at present dwelt Mr. VAA BUREN, was fifty-four years age on the 5th instant.

PYLADES has allowed his brains to get confused amond a multiplicity of grants of The leasing by auction of the valuable the public money for roads and other local property belonging to the Grey Nuns, which improvements all over the country. Should was to have taken place yesterday, has been the difficulties he prognosticates arise in the postponed till the 28th instant .- See adver-United Legislature on this subject, they isement. would, it is to be expected, lead to the rigour. bus adoption of the principle of local taxation for local purposes. Many of the road

285

The MONTREAL HUNT will meet this day, and local improvement bills that annually at two o'clock, in the Place d'Armes, to drive. are disgraceful. Whenever a Township has been surveyed, and there is a probability of its being speedily settled, it is the duty and interest of Government to cause proper and School Room, corner of Main and Amherst durable roads to be made through it ; but let them afterwards be kept in repair, by funds raised from those they henefit. It were most desirable that the care of the roads, bridges, &c. were entrusted to the proprietors in the Township or County, who should be armed with competent jurisdiction. The revenue raised by the sale of wild lands, belonging to the Province, should, in a great measure, not wholly, be expended in the improvement of the same, in the construction of bridges. the making of roads, &c. A provision of MOVES. White King @ Red Queen's Rooks 3d square.

White Rook from Red Queen's Knights 2d

White Rook @ Red Queen's Knights square, Giving check mate.

White Bis top @ Red Queen's 4th square, giving

I am, dzc.

AN AMATEUR BUT NOT & MEMBER.

t William Walker,

Henry Griffin, Thomas Cringan, J. T. Barrett,

C D. Day, William Badgley,

William Stephens, P. E Leclere,

James Holmes, John M. Tobin.

J. GUTHRIE SCOTT, Secretar

1825 | 1836

1837

113

Dissection of the second of th

183 1808

Total currency

Commercial.

ining, and that sales had been made as los for whom

Robert Armour, Jun

reported the names upwarde of @ Red Queen's Knights 3d square.

Red Knight @ White Queen's 4th square

Red Rook @ Red Queen's 4th square.

check to Red King.

this nature would prevent new settlements from being neglected. We should not indeed Red Rook from Red King's Rooks square @ Red be afraid to trust the United Legislature with King's Rooks 3d square, giving check to White the devising and adopting of some general White Rook from Red Queen's Knights 4th square principles that would regulate impartially @ Red Queen's Knights 3d square. Red Rook from Red King's Rooks 3d square @ the distribution of the public funds among all internal improvements that could claim to be Red Queen's Knights 3d square, giving check to regarded as of general and public advantage. White King.

There are several consideration that will have a powerful influence on the united Legislature, as to the manner in which it would treat internal improvements, and every other subject that would occupy its attention, but which considerations, as they have a more special bearing upon PYLADES' third objection respecting the municipal law of each Province, we reserve, as well as an examination of the objection itself, till another opportunity.

The General Committee of the Constitutiona

Association of Montreal, assembled pursuant to notice, on the 19th instant, for the parpose of elebting by hallot the Executive Committee for The Clergy Reserve question underwent some discussion in the Upper-Canada Asseme ensuing year. Messes. Gibb, Weir, and Bart, were appointe bly on the 13th iustant, Mr. Nonron's bill, providing for the sale of the Reserves for the support of general education, was considered in Committee of the whole House, but no decision was come to before the House ad-reported the following gentlemen duly elected to form the Executive Committee for the eajourned. The subject would be resume next day. The Solicitor General, we learn from the ing year, with the 小猫的 化烧化 Cheveton Ghandian ment his neural length in The Hon. G. Modatt, "and inalianable right of the Church of Br. Robertson, "England to the whole of the Reserves," John Moleon, Henry Dyer, and branded those who opposed the prepos-James Gibb. teroug claim, as " avowed or secret enemies " to all true religion." Where are the cring. Adam Thom, ing wretches that will quail under the thunder J. Guthrin Scott, Thomas Phillips, of Mr. HAGERMAN's anathemas ? Where the traiton to patriotiam, that will sacrifice the T. B. Anderson, peace of their country and the interests of The Scrutineers also their religion, by submitting to the imposition of an established Church? Are they to be P. M.GILL, Chairman. found in Upper Canada 1. Let the decison of Montreal, December, 20, 1836. the House of Assembly and the voice of the country answer.

Mr. Nonron's proposal is-that the Re serves should be applied to the purposes of general education. So immediately after the Private advices from New York, 15th instant,

THE MORNING COURIER FOR THE COUNTRY, DECEMBER 22: 1836.

Again, in considering the question union, much greater weight is generally al-ground, and the Union is talked of as be-Tinited States Markets THE NEW YORK MARKETS DAYS PRECEDING.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 14. Ashrza-A steady tai domana for Fors has continued at $6,75, although a few not very de-sirable parcels have been sold at $6,50 : Pearle have remained steady at $7, but there is very little domand existing for them at that rate. FLAISEED.-The quantity in market conti-nues unusually small for the period of the year, and sales of rough are said to have been made It $14 @ Lierce. FLOUR AND MEAL.-Prices of all description then be willing to give effect to those reforms, of Wheat Flour remain without change, but the market continues to exhibit very little anima-tion : sales of common brands Canal at $10; fancy, $10.25; Ohio, via Erie canal, $20.874 @ if carried out, they would go far to shorten Sile; and Georgetown new, $11. Gassm.—The supplies of foreign have been quite trifling for some time past, and the quar-tity at present in market is insufficient to stract Agric in considering the question of a

A public Examination will be held of the Quebec Suburb Free School, on Friday next, lowed to the Galle-Canadian population of the 23d instant, at two o'clock, p. s., in the School Rhom, corner of Main and Amherat rive, sold at $1.25, cash ; 2000 bushels North-Barley sold for the south at $1,03. Street, Quebec Suburb; and of the St. Ann Market Free School, in the Free Chapel, on Provisions.—The supplies of new Berf and Pork for the season are mostly now in market, Mackes Free School, in the Free Chapel, on Friday, the 30th instant, at the same hour, to which the attendance of the friends of education is requested. TO THE EDITOR OF THE MORAL SCHOOL SCHO

First, as to territory, the non-seigniorial rival at 11 cents, cash. Exchange.-There has been nothing of imlands in Lower Canada that are partially ocportance yet done for the next packets. Foreign descriptions, however, have a downward inclinacupied, and that are in progress of being he dray load $10 47 barrel. WHEAT .--- We find our last reported prices for MONTREAL, THURSDAY, DEC. 92, 1836.

The Morning Courier is published, daily th the year, Sundays, Christmus and New Year's days, es-copted, for the small sum of siz dollars delivered in second state of the second state of th sals -of divine right and passive obedience. that if these hoary landmarks of barbarous systems were removed, the country would be overrun with modern improvements.

bly, and if a union be effected, very probably, party whippers-in ; and we venture to assert ty of thorough education, where power is in the take place without violence or injustice. Les that our high-tory contemporaries would not hands of the people, and the Lecturer showed in the Honse discussion and redia. the impossibility of a nation Canadienne, being grumble at the House discussing and re-dis-the impossibility of a nation Canadienne, being grumble at the House discussing and re-dis-maintained is a strip of country, in British cussing questions, if its decision upon them any people, whose intellectual, moral North America, a British Colony, and hemmed were not so often against the grain of their gious education was neglected. Indiff tence North America, a pertish Colony, and nommed were not so often against the grant of their so better contended. Indifference, in on every side by a rapidly increasing British opinions. Should there be evidence of any the Lecturer contended, to the education of the in on every side by a rapidly increasing British opinious. Subtly tarts of or induct of any best faculties of our nature, was a sure sign of the population and their descendants, be made more manustry of the part of the volotio contracted wind, and unfi palpable to the most ignorant by the union, press, we shall note it. We would, in the a selfish and contracted wind, and unfi meantime, confidently express the hope that man for a popular leader. This education enlarged principles of action would be adopt- the House will hold on an independent insisted, was the radical remedy for popular and ed by the Gallo-Canadian leaders ; they would course. Education was " the fountain from -

Below are the Resolutions which Mr. current runs or else dries up, where it mu DRAPER has submitted on the Clergy Re- ther live or bear no life." serves question. his position by a quotation from Lord Ba and instruction throughout the community is a matter of the deepest importance to the best in-terests of the Province. 2. That in the opinion of this House it is tunt details and interesting anecdotes where here is a state of the state of th illustrated their success in Switzerland religion without any provision for its dissemina-tion throughout the Province, or for the support by which their importance was shown and Lower Canada, than either their numbers or the territory they accupy entitles them to.— The townships of this Province and their inhabi-portions of this Province and their inhabiby which their importance was shown in . tion to the Canadas. They embrace at vantages of the juvenile and infant schools. gether with instruction of a thorough kin agriculture. Should the lecturer make tants are kept almost entirely in the back cation of them to this exclusively religious parpart of his views on education, hereat, pose, will be consistent with the object for which the Imperial Parliament most wisely designed public, Canada would, undoubtedly. Germa tween Gallo-Canadians and the descendants the m to be set apart. 4. That it is not expedient to confine the althe utmost advantage from these

Dr. BARBER concluded a long locture, of state of Britons, between feudal rights and the law of primogeniture, &c. The inevitable chan-ges a few years will bring about as to the re-lative numbers of the population of even this gius instruction of the inhabitants, to apportion this is a very imperfect sketch, by a ferre close, calculated to excite his audience to a tion on this important subject.

I am, Sir, yours, &c.

A correspondent at Huntingdon furnishes Early on the morning of the 15th card was impossible to recognise them. From the position in which the remains were found, and position in which the remains were found, and the appearine of parts at least of four scula, it is impossible to doubt that the whole of the immates perished. Their names are Mrs Su-phones, a native of Cohstauguay, N. Y. her as George, aged six years, Hannah Stone, and

George, aged six years, Hannah Stone, and 25, a native of Bulton, Vermont, and Ohn

Green, aged 13, daughter of Mr. Wallis Grea, of Godmauchester. Mr. Stephens, the husbul of Godmanchester. Mr. Stephens, the husas of the unfortunate lady above mentioned, w building was at on fire was discovered in a large, we story building, occupied as a lative numbers of the population of even the among the second distribution and specific appropri-Province, are not thought of. Now, how, in 5. That the distribution and specific appropri-5. That the distribution and specific appropri-tion and specific approprib. I nat the distribution and speeding appropri-ation of the funds to be derived from such allat-ments should be left to such hedy or bodies, per-son or persons, as by the Cauon's Constitution, Ordinances, and Discipline of each of the sold burght are as a such as the the sold burght are sold burght. TO THE EDITOR OF THE MORNING COURTER SIR .- Your Correspondent " AN AMATEUR BUT No Memore," having mistaken the position of he in the solution published by you in this morning spiper, I must request you to do me the fivor o hurches, are entrusted with the governmen and control of such churches subject to no limi-tation or restriction other than that they be dehim to last Saturday's Gazette ; he will there pero that one of the white Rooks ought to have been voted strictly to religious purposes, and that an account of their expenditure be annually render. do the Legislature. That the continued changes taking place in this Province by immifruitful territories that are fast being peopled gration, render any mode of principle of distri-bution founded on the present state of the differ-Dec. 21, 1836.

ent churches or religious bodies unsatisfactory. and that it will be more expect United Provinces; again, as to population, the Mother Country, from which our popula. one-fourth or rather nearly one-third of the tion by emigration is derived, for data upon which to base such distribution. following account of a calamitou tended with loss of life, in that y joing oursing, occupied as a carding mill, a joing's shop, and part of the top flit as a dwr ling house. The firs spread with great rapid; and before many minutes had claped, the way building was enveloped in one sheet of flam any shows the spread of the A melancholy accident occurred yesterday the opposition of the three-fourths or morning on the river apposite the city. It two-thirds is on no such grounds as was blowing very hard, when three lads and will be found remaining any length of time their mother attempted to cross in a cance. Any attempt to save the When near the middle of the stream the cance seen to be hopeless, and the unwilling spec tors could only stand by, and with again we would ask, is the absurd nationalits nearly filled with water, and the unfortunate woman making a sudden effort to rise, fell relate, the top flat was tenanted by four ind of a portion of the inhabitants of one Pro-vince to be of greater weight that the wishes, overhead ... One of the sons, who kept their duals, three females and a boy, who all fell we of the other portion in that Province, com-of the other portion in that Province, combined with those of the majority in Upper bold of her clothes and kept her from sinking fore ; they occupied one room at the east end fore; they occupied one room at the east end; the fire began at the west end, and it is suppos-ed, that as the wind was blowing strong from the west at the time, and almost in an instant, anveloped the house first with a cloud of black smoke, and then with a sheet of bright flame,— they were unfocuted in their bed, and rendered unable for any effort at eacenpe. As soon as the fire subsided, their bodies were anxiously search ed fore, but were reduced to such a state, that it was impossible to recognise them. From the until relief was obtained from, the shore.

where the accident had been observed." Life Prime nave been taken to impress the putwas not extinct when she was brought on shore, but she very soon aspired afterwards. larity in the circumstances of the two Pro-we shall advert to a few points of resem-Dr. BARBER's eleventh Louture blance. The criminal law of England prevails in both. In what we said is the larger mportant subject of the Enstcarton or Naportion of Lower Canada, the English tenure TIONS. He commenced by shewing that men of free and common soccage is recognised, submitted to laws and leaders, for one object and so it is in all Upper Canada. Between a and one alone, viz : the greatest good of the fourth and a third of the population of this Pro- whole ; that government rightly flows from benevolence and justice ; that the vince, is in origin, language and feelings idenformer, in its natural operation, seeks the great. tical with the inhabitants of Upper Canada. Are these not resemblances ? Besider, the est good of the greatest number, and that justice is impartial to all. He showed love of power, absent on business at Fort Covington, at the civil laws of both Provinces have much the is impartial to all. He showed love of power, and love of distinction, when traced in their effects, were disturbing forces; that they were not Christian motives, and when acting alone worked for evil, quoting that saying of Christ, "Whosever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whenever will be chief, same origin; and a change in the forms and technicalities, and some slight modifications in the French doctrine of meum and tuum, would not ruin us. If feudal rights were fairly compounded for and abolished, and a be your minister : and whosever will be chief. better system introduced, Lower Canada let him be your servant." In abridging exclusive would suffer no injustice thereby, but a mighty and wife. The whole building was, in an inconceivably privileges, the only point to be considered was hort space of time, burned to the ground. Every the danger of civil commotion and to the rights of property—the latter ought in all cases to be inviolably maintained. In themselves, and using the best, in the building and machine

意

cates,

most of the cities of Et of Lavater, and th

tions full of tr

tained that the h hfe left their deep

ance, that faithf

the wear and tear

sions always aff

and uniform mann

and that those trac servations, were experiment, or whether mo traveller did not fee he the responses which he might have provoked I sceptic was left among had taken no part in the who had not attracted th others. He refused all asso belief. "I affirm." said he.

describable glance round that all this science thoughts of men cannot vealed by the shape of his sc added he, with a bitter si more aguated than mine, fe tenance, that his inclin table, excepting one.

ology. black,

of his doct conversation to

To go unto my native place ; Where many were most dear to see, To see and to embrace ; The kind old mother, she who long

Would anxiously my coming wait, With patience and affection strong. Beside the garden gate ; My father with that aspect bland, and brothers, sisters, not a few,

Who hailed me half-way us The elder with a tender view, The youngsters with a merry And then through those old field Where in our childhood we Flowers gathering in the sum. Or sporting in the shade.

Oh, then it was a joy to me To go unto my native plas Where many were most deat to are, To see and to embrace.

Now, after many years, I go, A grave and thoughtful man. Many to meet, and few so know, Slow pacing where we ran.

Little I find to love or praise. In haunts that were most dear ; But wander in a thoughtful maze. And nothing see nor hear.

The present is not,-in the past Labours the mind, as in a dream And dimness from the heart is case On field, and cot, and stream.

My native home, when it is foun The stranger in it dwells : and there is sorrow in the sound Of those old village bells.

A Tale of Phren ated from the French Journal.

remembers th ry body tmorenci. A young newly marked pair second a not unamble, a ngers who had been received into their should be one of the greatest mitted with cold blooded strocity, are raved upon every mind. The murderere two men who had recently escaped voice, a stiffed murmer ran the hefort The history followed by a profound silence men was one tissue of crime .- rose from the table in terrible hese men was one discussion of crime.— ind together by a participation in the deeds, the community of their misera-lices, and, perhaps, size, the borrid re-blance of their souls, had given birth to intimate sympathy between them. At blance of their souls, had given birth to minimite sympathy between them. At prison they had obtained the chivalrous of "brothers is arms" ne of these stratuge friends was named mac-Dupin. After the murder, has a loss to but was finally discovers returned to France for trial, present at the trial will me but his looks were horrise see his thin lips, his poin of mostrile, his sharp, gree inally, that bead, narrow in which is name to stratuge to which the same, covered will be the same covered to had be arm, covered to his an adjoining village, and the match of the same was in the see his thin lips, his point was inally, that bead, narrow in which is name and analyzing to which is a covered as the same was and to his a starp, gree the same and analyzing to which is a same to be and any see and to his a same bir his point the same and analyzing to which is a same to be and any see and to his a same bir his bolk and the same and any see the same and analyzing to which is a same bir his point to his analyzing to when the same accession to the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same bir his bolk and the same accession to the same videning and enlarging tow bair, thick, stiff and the mane of the lion overshadow. of the trial have not furnishe he front of the tiger. The fear which I am told, however, he front of the tiger. The feat which spired was so great, say the minutes of ridence which T have before me, that if the most miserable wretches who walk treets of Paris, making a shameful traf-themselves to the first and highest bid-refused the gold of Daumas-Dupin, and id his entreaties, alleging as her only striking resemblance between those of a distinguished physi well known for his phrenologi ECONOMY OF WIT - " Why a ted his entreaties, alleging as her only n, that the sight of him frightened her ade her tremble. Daumas-Dupin was imned to death asd executed. a name of this accomplice was Robert Clair. This man, a giant and dare surpassed his companying in baldware man of great celebrity, "a great of a portion of the inhabitants of one Pro-Canada ! vinces. This is not true ; and to prove it so, > dal Tenures and rights as PYLADES, and inbenefit. But we must terminate our lucustead of guarding against their overthrow, brations for the present. we would, by all means in our power, hasten it.

> settled, are of much larger extent, and are as capable, if not much more so, of supporting ALEXANDRIA MARKET, DEC. 13. FLOUR .-- Last week the wagon price of Flour r LOUR.-List were the wagon price of risor opened at $9,80, and advanced to $9,84; but the receipts being rather heavier than usual, vessels scarce, and money not plenty (though we do not hear of more than legal interest been paid), the price declined and closed on Saurday at $9,50, which was the current rate of yests Last sales from stores $9,75. Price by this article were two high-good red sold on Friday and Saturday at $1,80 @ $1,85. The market is dull, and we quote red $1,70 @ $1,86; white $1,80 @ $1,90, as in quality.

But we have no such sympathy with Fan a denser population, than the Seigniories. If so, if the domains of feudalism and nationalité be of less extent in this Province than the nificant a portion they would form of the inhabitants of Lower Canada, have no aversion whatever to a union with their fellowcolonists in Upper Canada on the score of national antipathies or prejudices, and after the union has been consummated. Here

The last, if not the most important, of PYLADES' reasons against a union, respects the difficulties with which changes in the laws, that are peculiar to each Province. sould be effected in the united Legislature ; where, probably at first, before the idea of separate interests had died away among the members, might would often constitute right. PVLADES mentions, as examples, the Feudal Tenures in Lower Canada, and the Law of Primogeniture in Upper Canada. Both, we believe, are nearly equally valuable in his eves, and it would grieve him sore to see either annihilated by the Union. Both smack so of the good old times .--- of freenien and vasject, we need say nothing, as far as a great many of our fellow-citizens are concerned, as 73 @ 72 prem. on its national importance, or of the honour that will accrue to both Mr. Nonron and the Assembly, if they become the instruments of conferring the inestimable benefit of a judicious system of universal education upon their country. Their fame will live in its was selling at 14s. New York currency, per eloquent lectures of Dr. BARBER on this sub- state that Exchange on England was dull and

The first volume of A_Ron Bugs's Mebushel. moirs is out, and highly spoken of. It brings the narrative down to the contest between future glory.

Comparative Statement of the Transport, 4-c on the Laching Canal in 1835 and 1836. BURR and JEFFERSON for the Presidency, the turning point of B's, life. The second vo lume will unfold the mysteries that have hung about his career for nearly forty years subsequent to that period.

The Emigrant and Old Countryman of New York says, it has been asserted that ten thouinter ire wood cords Alerchandize and Liquors tons 15754 Ashes bbb --Piour do --Pork and Beef bbb Butter and Lard so Grain bash 607 Passengers Na 58 36, Huga, sheep, &c do Blores & hurned catla do Bhirigies M York savs. it has been asserted that ten thousand emigrants from Ireland and England, have sailed from that city within the last two months, to return to their native land.

The eavigation of the Hudson River, was open on the 13th, between New York and Horse & hurned oattle du 5 1 Shirtgles M - 111 Stotte & Brick, toises 72 -Staves att M - 377i Salt tone 1192 -Lime & Sand, Jahds - 183 Albany.

CURLING .- The Quebec Carling Club has challenged that of this city, which has been scoepted, and the match will come off at Three Rivers, on the 10th of January. The conditions are, two rinks of forty-two yards, (or seconding to the state of the ice ;) four On bosts On bosts, &c. navigating the 1836 clemen aside, to each rink-two stones each-the winners of the greatest number of shots on both sinks to be the victors. This match creates considerable interest amongs our " keen curlers," and as the crack player On bosts and scows built and repaired only of both Clubs will be selected, good sport is anticipated. The Quebeckers from being in more regular practice, are at present

If, in fact, their blasting influence continu much longer, the ruin of this Province will be complete. It will become one large Poor The Humilton (U.C.) Express, gives the fol. House, with only one or two cities, such as Toronto, have given way to expressions of lowing quotations of country produce there :- Montreal and Quebec, as shipping ports for surprise and regret that so little business "Wheat, 9s.; Oats, 3s.; Butter, 1s. 6d., York currency; Puck. 66 @ 87 ; Buef, 84 @ ble argument in favor of a union, and not "Much valuable time," says the Standard, At Rochester, N. Y., on the 1st inst., Wheat that did not lead to this may well be looked " have amused themselves in repeating the

Montreal and Quebec, as shipping ports for the upper country. It is the greatest possi-has been gone through by the Assembly. be argument in favor of a union, and not against it, that it would certainly lead to a sweeping reform in the laws. Any scheme that did not lead to this may well be looked upper Province, will very soor be reject. The law of primogeniture that prevails in the Upper Province, will very soor be reject. The law of primogeniture that prevails in the Upper Province, will very soor be reject. The law of primogeniture that prevails in the Upper Province, will very soor be reject. The law of primogeniture that prevails in the Upper Province, will very soor be reject. The balance-sheet will then be before us loyalty ; and their great regard for their titig and father land, has led them to swallow the absurdity. They will doubles, however, dis gorge it by and bye. Several of the neigh-bouring States retained the law of primogen-iture for many years, but at length sculude it from their Statute books, as being ther with has been of the setting to the the soor and the grant presenting to the source of the band of the means tor for their grant regard for their titig and father land, has led them to swallow the absurdity. They will doubles, however, dis it from their Statute books, as being terr it has meets the eye, in these two journ it we for many years, but at length sculude it from their Statute books, as being terr it man due dout the the due to the source of assembly to bein it from their Statute books, as being terr it he faint it from the extended to the the due to the source of assembly to bein it from the statute books, as being terr it the faint it from the easing on the the state well and the state of a the due to the state of a the due the due there of a the mast the means and has the source of assembly to bein it from the statute books, as being the will the due the faint if from their Statute books, as being the faint and the thead due the faint it from the statute books, as being th

There are several general considerations. from which the project of a union derives, it.

£6377 0 1 Differenties as favour of 1836. 2879 1 1. Both the Courier and the Standard, of not correspond to that, by whatever party held, was to be rejected. The low was bound to pro-gorge it by and bye. Several of the neighbouring States retained the law of primogen-iture for many years, but at length excluded it from their Statute books, as being very ill adapted to new countries. Our neighbour Colonists will soon do likewise. was contended that drunkenness ought to be about the little the House has done; in other words, making an attempt to spur it on to pass the measures before it. "The events intemperance. The isjustice of the Poor Laws Tow."-Mentreal Gasette.

There are several general considerations, from which the project of a union derives, in our opinion, the greatest support. These we shall now proceed, as briefly as possible, to unfold. The first is, that a union would speedly dissipate all the foolish notions about a markin are all present intoxicated a and which lies it the bottom of their supposition to reform is the laws, as well as to the influx of Bartian omigratis. It is a certainty which no sensi-ble, Canadian can be billed to, our restored as a funding there with the prospect of carrying the agency and entry which is the suppose that certain plots the laws. All the will very post-distant days to dispose the to your any to would be heither led nor driven by distants the new Assembly contained and a funding there more man distant days to dispose the to your and built to be taken as a great you. Like as a statisticated the mark that all the pacultarities of his tan-genge, haw, and erigin, are destined upon. We have all along the maintered in the laws. All this will very possi-that the new Assembly contained and along the pace will be intered to an driven by distant a state will be beaches. A areas your was the orgent to choose of the base of the base of the base of the base of the state of the main of the state the mark will be beaches, real participation of the state the mark as a drive the prospect to free the order the laws. All this will very possi-that the new Assembly contained more than or at the state is the days of the state of the base. A areas your was the order was and existing of the state interest the base of a British baguage and laws. All this will very possiprivileges were not founded in justice. The ker, £50, in cabinet work, tools, and timber good of the whole was the great principle to govern in National Education. Whatever did imber: and is is supposed, that about £00 is in the two worth of wool, yarn, and cloth, was in the card ing mill. In the absence of the Coroner for the distrid, E350: Mosés O'Keefe, cabinel.

In the tragedy. After the shield they had obtained, obliged him and disappeared. Active parault was int to be purpose. It was accertain-be passed through Piedment, Switzer, of Germany, to the frontiers of Turkey, rejoined a regiment of soldiers, des-r guest the boundaries of the empires. Une, it was anounced by positive till reports, that be had been killed of through the heart, after having ex-prodigies of valor.

d. talkis yenjo ideas en, w hoy h and possible of the Hotel de 2 table, round which chance multitude of people of all ke, and of all ages. It is to see what an intime rity is summiliately cossilies a who had never seen cos the hour, and who, in an average the first set blief the separated, never to see each to be a set of the second one is out present its whom fails the asions Mot a syllable. My words, is opt present my styles, my genius, are merchan able to be disposed of thus gratis. I make a chapter—with a thought and these chapters and volumes the is ont present to whom fails the of conversation. If was so at the which I appear. The genulerum who which I appear. The genulerum who and these chapter—with a though the I carry everything—to the friends, to my family, not a sous. I defend but little to distinguish him in the schoopt, perhaps, that notwith ag the heat of the feeson, he was

GHT OF PHOTOGRAPH FOR PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE, APPLY TO PUBLIC ARCHIVES, OTTAWA.

