Extract from a Letter dated 17th September, 1851.
On the 1st of September a fleet of 93 American and 79 British mackerel fishing vessels anchored in South Roads, and on the 12th were sailed by a fleet of 210 fishermen. They report that there are at present about 400 sail, (British and American,) fishing mackerel on the coasts of this Island, the Magdalen, Mouth of Bay Chaleur, and Cape Breton, North shore.
I regret to add, that some of the vessels of both nations made a considerable riot here, maltreated some of the Inhabitants, and destroyed some property. It is a pity one of Her Majesty's ships could not be spared to cruise specially on the above Coasts during the months of August and September, as it effectually prevents any riots by the fishermen.
