SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Appendicitis Cured By "Fruit-a-tives"

NEWBURGH, Ont., Feb. 12th, 1910.
Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella, (fourteen years), was taken with terrible pains in the right side. The pain was so severe that we had to carry her to bed. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation.

We took her to a hospital in Kingston where she was again examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once if we wanted to save her life. As we had taken her to Kingston to have this done, we were ready, but our daughter was afraid and cried and begged so pitifully, that we postponed it for that day. Luckily for us and for her an uncle came in with some 'Fruit-a-tives' and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent, almost from the first dose, and the continuous treatment cured her.

The Trade of Royalty.
No advertisement is more valuable to a British tradesman than the royal warrant which allows him to place the royal arms over his place of business and describe himself as "purveyor by appointment to His Majesty the King."

Each tradesman who has the royal custom must send in his bill at the end of the month. It is compared with his ledger account kept at Marlborough House and if correct is paid in the first week of the month. No discount is asked on any of the royal accounts, a tradesman who receives the royal custom is informed that he must supply goods at the lowest reasonable prices and there is never any attempt at bargaining by the officials of the royal household. If a tradesman is thought to be making extortionate charges he simply loses the royal custom.

Coal is supplied to Marlborough House by contract, the contracts being made for three years and the contractors paid in equal half yearly payments. Window cleaning, carpet cleaning and chimney sweeping are all done by contract and the glass frames of large pictures are also kept clean by contract.

Servants' wages are paid monthly, the upper servants being paid by check sent to each from the Treasurer's Department. The King's accounts for clothes, cigars, theatres, newspapers, books and other personal articles are sent to his secretary, not the Treasurer, and are also paid monthly. King George always like to see these accounts before they are paid and it was once a rule that they should be intialled by him before they were discharged.

A Wet Harvest Relief.
A curious token has just been found at Barton, inscribed "Tunstead and Happing, 1812. One Halfpenny. Payable at the Corporation House." This was the year of the wet harvest, the worst ever known. It rained incessantly all September, October and during most of November, and on November 29 farmers were carting barley, a sharp wind frost prevailing. Wheat was 68 shillings a comb, and so bad was it in quality that dough made from the flour resembled slime. Every Monday morning the overseers and church wardens met at the parish churches to devise means to provide employment and relieve the starving poor.—London Standard.
