Sons of Temperance Meet at Douglstown

44th Quarterly Meeting a Successful One--Re-
Indorses N. B. Prohibition Act--Want
a Dominion Law

The 44th quarterly session of Kent-Northernland District Division, Sons of Temperance, met in the Temperance Hall, Douglstown, on Friday afternoon, November 17th, the District Worthy Patriarch in the chair. The delegates present were: Harcourt Division—Rev R H Stuart, D W P. Newcastle—Ald H H Stuart, District Scribe; Misses Ella O'Donnell and Annie Russell. Douglstown—Harold C. Stothart, D W A. R. H. Jessamin, Misses Lillian Atkinson and Barbara Hutchison also the following visiting members—Kendall Wood, Chas. and Frank Johnston, David Sikes, Clarence McKen, Wm. Jessamin, Mrs. Wm. Wood, Mrs. H T Atkinson and the Misses Flora MacKenzie, Bertha Atkinson, Mary Grey, Gladys Clark, Mary Hutchison and Zella Johnston.

Following officers were appointed: pro tem: C MacKenzie, Conductor; K Wood, Sentinel; Miss O'Donnell, Chaplain. The Chairman spoke of his attendance at the Temperance Council in Toronto, October 17th, when the Toronto Citizens Committee of 100 met with representatives of other Temperance bodies to discuss Dominion Prohibition. The Committee of 100 had previously determined to have Prohibition for Ontario and having gained it, they were now going after a law to stop interprovincial traffic in intoxicants. With this end in view, a conference in favor of Dominion wide Prohibition would meet in Ottawa on Dec. 12th proximo. Ontario prohibition was so far a great success. The only flaw was the allowance of importation of liquor from other provinces. This must be stopped. Good Temperance work was being done among the Divisions in this District.

The D W P's report was received and adopted. The District Scribe submitted the following report:

Net gain during quarter 26. Several active Divisions—Bay du Vin, Black River, Bridge Redbank, Harcourt, Newcastle and Maple Glen—which are in good running order, had failed to report. Newcastle Division had lately resumed its regular meetings. Temperance work once entirely in the hands of the secret Temperance organizations such as the Sons of Temperance and the Good Templars, was now being also done by the Do-

Public Meeting
A very successful public meeting was held at 8 o'clock. A large choir with Miss Ruby Haviland accompanist, furnished excellent music. The program was as follows:

Recitation—Papa's Letter—Miss Gladys Clarke
Address—Rev Alex Firth
Reading—College Oil Cans—Miss Ella O'Donnell
Chorus—Life is Like a Railroad
Address—H H Stuart
Recitation—A Drunkard's Wife—Miss Bertha Atkinson
Solo—Will There be any Stars?—Harry Shaw
Dialect—Recitation—Robert Cowie
Recitation—The Meadow Brook Fair—Miss Mary Gray
Address—Rev R H Stuart
Chorus—All the Way
God Save the King.
The collection was $3.45.
At the public meeting the speeches were of a very high order.
R. H. Jessamin

R. H. Jessamin gave an address of welcome. He was glad to have the District Division meet in Douglstown because of its stimulating effect upon the Temperance people of the place. The visitors were welcome. Douglstown had many historic associations. It was once a leading place of this County. It had sent out some of the best ships and some of the best men of the world—men that have been looked up to. The work of the Temperance people had not been in vain. They aim to uplift and reclaim—not pull down and demoralize. He trusted that the present meeting would have a good moral effect.
Rev. R. H. Stuart very cordially replied.

Rev. Alex. Firth
Rev. Mr. Firth, pastor of St. Mark's church, Douglstown said, in part, as follows:
There was no more important question at the present time than that of Temperance. What a wave of Temperance was sweeping over Canada! What was the cause of such a change coming over the nation the last two years?

The change was due to the faithful work of those who have worked so long and faithfully in the past and laid deep and broad foundations of Temperance. He remembered his father walking a long distance to attend a blue ribbon meeting. There had been no other recent movement so free from interested motives as that of Temperance. The Temperance people had worked along absolutely righteous lines. They had had no political pull—political influence had, if anything, been against them. Political grafters may now seek to get control of the movement. But he prayed that the Temperance people might maintain the high standard they had so far held. At the close of this war the British Empire would be the greatest of nations and it becomes us to be worthy of that high place. Canada will no longer be a mere porcupine to Britain's Empire building but an integral part of it. We are to bind together the scattered parts of the Empire into one compact whole. India must learn to trust us or we can't hold her. Australians and Canadians must be brothers. And the British Empire must be sober. A drunken nation cannot stand. We are looking toward victory and then Peace. We are willing to pay the price—more men, more money—$5.00 a barrel more for flour. If the Peace is to be lasting there must be suppression of the liquor traffic, for the latter contains the germs of disorganization, demoralization and ruin.

In N. B. the government has done what it never did before—given us a Prohibition Law. It is for us to follow in the steps of the faithful workers gone before, to ensure not only victory but the right kind of Peace.

EXCUSE ME!

cane the artery from the conductor's very midst, and remembering Manila, smiled:
"You may fire when ready, conductor."
The conductor's rage had cooled, and he stepped on to the platform back with one hand, as he pulled the cord with the other. The train began to creep and tug and shift. The ding-dong of the bell floated merrily back as from a lofty steepie, and the clickety-click, clickety-click quickened and softened into a pleasant gossip, as the speed grew, and the way was so smooth for the wheels that they seemed to be spinning on rails of velvet.
