The first white child that was born in N. America, was Virginia, daughter of Annasias and Elanor Dare, and grand-daughter of Gov. John White. She was born on the 18th of Angust, 1597, in Rosnoake, in North Carolina Her parents were of the expedition sent out by Sir Walter Raleigh in that year. There is no record of her history save that of her birth.

The first minister who preached the gospel in North America, was Robert Hunt, of the Church of England, an exemplary man, who came out in the same company with abouts, in April, 1613. Pocahoutas was also the first of the Virginian Ladians who embraced Christianity and was baptised. The first legislative as-emby in Virginia,

The first legislative as-embly in Virginia, met in July, 1619, at the summons of G v. Goo. Yeardley. One month later, negroes were first brought into the colony, by a Dutch man of war.

The first periodical in N. America, was the Boston News Letter, which made its appearance in August, 1705. The first in the Old Dominion was the Virginian trazette, published at Williamsburg, by William Parks, weekly, at seven shillin s. It appeared in 1736, and was long the only paper published in the colony. Slavery preceded the remained arress 117 years.

The Blue Rulgs was first crossed by the The Blue Ringe was first crossed by the whites in the year 1714.

The first non-furnice erected in North America, was by G vernor Spottswood, in 1730, in Spotter handa county, Va.

ANECDOTE OF THE LATE DR. PARKMAN. The Boston correspondent of the Washington Republic, relates the following reminiscences of the deceased:

"Dr. Parkman was one of our weal hiest

ON THE NIGHT OF WEDSEDAY, THE 14th inst.

ON THE NIGHT OF honor of some party victory. 'Just step with me round the corner,' said the Doctor. Taking him up a durty alley, through a dark doorway, and up three flights of rickety stairs, the Doctor tapped at a door, which was opened by a wretched, pale-faced child.

A poor woman, apparently in the last stage A poor woman, apparently in the last stage of consumption, was sewing upon a shirt. There was no fire in the stove, although it was a cold March day. 'Now,' said the Doctor, turning to the politician, there is ten dollars; you may either fire it away in powder or give it to this poor woman. I won't attempt to bias you.' The Doctor darted out of the room and down stairs, leaving the non-plussed politician standing by the bedside of the invalid. He did not hesitate long as to his disposition of the money—but handed it to the sufferer, and departed a wiser man."

Are you poor ? you will probably forever remain so if you habitually waste the precious hours of the morning in bed. Who will seek the labor or services of him who will seek the labor or services of him who sleeps and dozes in the morning till seven or eight o'clock? It such a person is poor he must forever remain poor. 'He that would thrive, must rise at five.' The poor can ill Afford to lose daily two or three hours of the best portion of the day—Economy of time and diligence in business, are virtues peculiarly appropriate to those who depend upon their earnings for the means of subsistence. Allowing twelve working hours to a day, he who by rising at eight instead of five o'clock in the morning, thereby looses three hours labor daily, parts with one-fourth his means of support-ing himself and family: ten year's labor

A country merchant having procured a new clerk, waked him up the morning after he was hired, at a most unreasonably early hour by calling out that the family were sitting down to the table.'

"Thank you,' said the boy as he turned over in bed to adjust himself for a new nap—"thank you, but I never allow myself to eat anything during the night."

ENGLAND, notwithstanding her deplorable pauperism, is not so bad in this respect as France, taking the great cities as a test.—According to the report of the Board of Health, 1,000,000 of persons are crowded in Paris into little more than 40,000 houses. being at the rate of 25 to a house, while in London 2,000,000 people have 280,000 hou-ses, or about 7 to a house. While Great Gritain has increased her population in a given time 195 per cent, France has increased hers only 68 per cent, Austria 85; Prus sia 184; Saxony 145; Wartemberg 10; and Holland 90. The rate of increase, both in Austria and France, is rapidly diminishing. N. V. San ing .- N. Y. Syn.
