Do you know what a woman of the world is?

The woman of the world is one who considers that you like, and attempts, for her comfort, as well as yours, to give it to you.

She is one whose manners are always perfect and who does not offend you by being gushing or freighting.

She is one whose looks attract no notice unless by their absolute suitability.

She is the one who can be friendly without being familiar, and who can be respectful without snubbing.

She is the one who refrains saying malicious things, not only because it will ruin the shape of her mouth, but because they are in as bad taste as swearing.

She is the one who knows how to be most dignified at a dinner table and yet who can enjoy a lark at supper time.

She is the one who always makes you feel at ease with yourself and the rest of the world.

She is the one who, if stewed puppy was served at dinner, could praise its favor and talk ably at the civilization of the Chinese.

She is the one who can make order out of chaos and put everything and everybody just where it or they should be.

She is the one who is never unpleasantly candid. She is the one with whom it is a delight to associate, and who, after all, may be governed not only by her own desire to make life smoother, but by greater and higher beliefs than are credited to her.

She is the one whom it is well for your daughter to imitate.

Is a perfect cure for croup and colds, and I can recommend Hagar's Yellow Oil—one bottle of which cured me of a very bad cold. I would say to all sufferers, make no delay in using it as it gives quick relief.

Advertisements to get Letters.

"I wonder more and more all the time," said a letter carrier to a writer in Parlor and Kitchen, "what makes people so anxious to get a letter. If a person is expecting to receive a challenge to fight a duel, or the reply of his lady love to a proposition of marriage, or even a check for $25, I can understand how he can be eager and excited about it. Why, there are some people upon my route who, I really believe, don't do anything else but sit down and wait for me to come, or else stand at the door or window to watch for me. They don't get a letter more than once a month, but they watch for it every day. If I say 'nothing today,' they groan and sink away. If I hand them a letter they fly with it into the house as if they had found a pocket-book."

A Chicago dispatch says the weight of guilt upon the soul of Patrick O'Sullivan is more than he can bear. Consumption has laid his fatal hand upon him and he realizes his days are numbered.

He may not live to pass under the portals of the Hollet Penitentiary. His sleep is broken nightly by visions of his victim and the scenes surrounding the murder and there is a general impression that he will soon lift the load from his mind by telling all he knows about the great conspiracy. The State Attorney is anxious now only for confessions which will fasten the crime of murder upon those who walk the streets today as free men. Liberty awaits O'Sullivan if he reveals the hidden hand and furnishes evidence. There is a doubt if O'Sullivan is in the confidence of the arch-conspirators or knows as much as Coughlin.

As one of the turnkeys on night watch in the murderer's row at the County Jail was passing by O'Sullivan's cell Wednesday night he heard these words, uttered in piteous tones: "I cannot face my God with this load on my mind."

Rose Island Reports.

I can state that we have used Hagar's Yellow Oil with great benefit for colds, sore throat, cuts, burns, chapped hands, etc. We can recommend it to be very useful and good in many different ways.

Mrs. ADEL HELPS, Rose Island, Ont.

Preliminary to his demand in Parliament, when that body shall assemble, that the Government be required to discontinue the West End Club scandal, Mr. Labouchere publishes in Truth a scorching review of the infamy, which, though treating of the details, of necessity, by innuendo, is the most thorough exhibit of the rottenness of a certain class of English aristocracy that any journal has yet dared to place before its readers. While mentioning no names in connection with the affair, the most casual reader of the distinguished Radical's strictures cannot fail to recognize the persons likely to be called to account despite the manifest desire of the Government to shield them. One peer implicated in the scandal, Mr. Labouchere asserts, has already tacitly admitted his guilt by leaving the country, but by seeking special associations in the services of the Sultan of Turkey, whose entourage will doubtless be able to perfect through his in the refinements of vice through his experience and example.

Hugh J. McCormack, Canada's champion skater, has left his home at St. John, N. B., for St. Paul, Minn., where he will skate Axel Paulsen, the Norwegian, for $300 a side and the championship of the world, on New Year's day.

The Minister of Justice has pardoned the father of little Gertrude Heintzman, who was burned to death at Hamilton the other day. He was in the Central Prison for wife-beating.

Walter Scott and wife were presented with a beautiful silver tea service on the eve of their departure for Toronto. They have been residents of Wingham for the past fourteen years.

Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an effective and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form after a severe cold that I was unable to eat. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"Having been troubled with constipation, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief from the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—James Quinn, 90 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.
