

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey. Acts xvii:16-34.

Golden Text: God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. John iv:24.

Verse 16—Can any true man, at this time, see the folly and sin which thousands so eagerly follow, without his spirit being stirred?

Verse 17—Notwithstanding that we all, necessarily, have traditions and customs to pursue, should, or should not, our chief concern be the tremendous issues involved in spiritual truth, and ways?

Verse 18—The Epicureans and the Stoics had a contrary philosophy of life, state briefly what they each taught.

Which brings the more lasting happiness, and develops the nobler character, a life devoted to the pleasures of sense, or a life devoted to service for others, and to self-denial?

What is a father of fact is the substance of what Paul taught?

Should we lend a respectful ear to all new theories of life, and eternity, or reject them without examination?

Verse 22—Which is the better man, an active skeptic, or an indifferent and thoughtless Christian?

Which is preferable to be ever speculating about God, or to have no thought concerning him?

Is belief in and a longing for God, peculiar to Christianity?

May a heathen who has never come into touch with Christianity, find out, and know, the true God?

What then is the advantage for true heathen heathen, coming into contact with Christianity?

Verse 28—Can one man who knows God, be the medium of imparting that knowledge to another who desires to know him?

Verse 29—How do we know that God made all things?

God does fill heaven and earth with his presence; but does he not also dwell in temples that are made in which "we worship him?"

Verse 30—While God does not need the support of man's hands, does he not desire the worship and love of man's hearts?

How does God give to all "life and breath, and all things?"

Will we in heaven be able to see God, in any different way from the way in which it is our privilege to see him now?

Verse 31—What is the evidence that all races of men spring from the same original stock?

How God had anything to do with the national and geographical divisions of the globe, as they exist today?

Has God anything to do with our present individual conditions?

Verse 27-28—What is both the chief joy and object of life?

Is it possible for every man to find God if he will but seek him, and what is the only condition for seeking him?

How do you conceive of the thought that "the nations are under the power of our being," can you illustrate the thought with air, that is both in us, and around us?

Verse 29—Can any work of art represent God, or to have no thought concerning him?

Is belief in and a longing for God, peculiar to Christianity?

May a heathen who has never come into touch with Christianity, find out, and know, the true God?

What then is the advantage for true heathen heathen, coming into contact with Christianity?

Verse 28—Can one man who knows God, be the medium of imparting that knowledge to another who desires to know him?

Verse 29—How do we know that God made all things?

SMALL DEFICIT FROM THE FAIR

Despite the Unfavorable Weather Conditions the Exhibition Nearly Broke Even.

At the regular meeting of the Exhibition Association Wednesday, the official A. G. Harrison submitted the statement as to the record made by the Edmonton Association this year. The directors on hearing the report expressed their satisfaction with the success of the fair in view of the fact that the weather was not all that could be desired.

Edmonton, July 14th, 1938. The President and Directors Edmonton Exhibition Association.

Organization—On the 15th March, 1938, I was requested by the mayor and city council together with yourselves to form an Exhibition Association.

Limited. This work, as some of you know, I undertook with some hesitations, knowing that it was a difficult undertaking at any time and more especially at the time between April 15 and July 23 (68 days) when entries for the fair were being received.

When it is considered that the fair was held for 68 days, and that the total receipts for the year were $50,000 and have been assisted by the provincial government, Dominion government and the city of Edmonton.

1938 Accounts—On examination of the books it was found that there were some $2,000 outstanding accounts including unpaid cheques, etc. The total of $2,000, making a total of $50,000 for 1938, to the best of my knowledge and belief, was not paid.

Loss of Interest—It was apparent that the old directors, exhibitors and others were discouraged and losing interest in the fair and did not feel that they could assume the financial responsibility in connection therewith any longer.

Matter Taken up with Mayor and City Council—Thanks to the activity of Mayor Lee, the city commissioners and council, the fair was revived and an energetic effort made to recover lost ground under adverse conditions and I venture to state, successfully made, as the figures given in this report will prove.

Statement of Last Year's Accounts in Proper Form Submitted to the Government—The first step taken was to have City Auditor Richardson, who has taken a keen interest in the exhibition, go over the accounts and make a statement of the year's work.

THE CHIEF ALLEGES A POLITICAL PLOT

New Man Will Be Put on the Job Tomorrow Whether He Hands Over the Badge or Not.

Calgary, July 15.—J. E. Ball, secretary and agent of the Calgary Children's Aid Society, has laid charges against Chief English to the effect that the Chief refuses to co-operate with him in his work with children.

He claims that he never can get the police to assist him and that he is in fact ignored by the Chief. This has to a great extent interfered with his work.

With regard to the demands of the city commissioners that he resign, the Chief of Police claims it is a political plot. It has been learned that Mayor Jameson said to at least one visitor that if he were elected he would get rid of the Chief of Police before the year had passed.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the 48 hours allowed the Chief will have expired and then the commissioners will put a man in his place pending the action of the city council on Monday next.

Calgary Trouble.

Chief of Police Lancelotti Wanted Calgary Officials to Hold Man for Sumner, but He Was Let Go.

(Thursday's Daily.)

In connection with the action taken by the Calgary city commissioners in asking Chief of Police English of that city to resign, an interesting sidelight appears from the Edmonton end of the situation. The climax of the trouble in the Calgary police force is largely due to their handling of several gambling cases during last week in which three men, Hill, Holmberg and Edwards were accused of fleecing the public.

Hill was given hours in which to leave the city.

Edwards, first charged under the Gaming Act, was charged with changing to one under the city by laws and was let off on a $100 fine and Holmberg was also released without any trial. For the lax way in which these cases were handled the Calgary press strongly denounced the police, the Chief suffering most severely at the hands of the papers.

Now comes the Edmonton side of the case. Edwards, who is known locally as "Klondyke Ed," was also wanted in Edmonton by Chief of Police Lancelotti for practicing a fish pond game at the Edmonton fair, in which it was alleged that one man alone had been unaccounted for $500 during the time the fair was in session. The Edmonton police ascertained that Edwards had come to Calgary and at once wired Chief of Police English on July 2, asking him to make an arrest as a warrant was issued in Edmonton. No reply was received to the Edmonton police until last night, when they learned that Chief Lancelotti had been arrested in the southern part of the city.

The Edmonton police, pointing out how the Calgary police had ignored his telegram. The result was that the department instructed Superintendent Dean of the R. N. W. M. P. to take the matter up with Edwards returned to this city.

By the time the leads reached the set out in the following account of part of the case from the Calgary Alberta.

A mounted police officer arrived at the station, says the Alberta "with a warrant for Edwards, who was wanted in Edmonton on a similar charge. He consulted with the police officials, who understood his errand, and he expected and counted on their co-operation. He remained all morning."

"It was 5.40 in the afternoon when the hearing began on the amended information. The result was the finding of Edwards the $100 and costs referred to above."

"It was record quick work," continues the Alberta "and Edwards was apparently a reason. The mounted policeman who had waited all morning, was not on hand for his man at that time, and the result was the finding of Edwards the $100 and costs referred to above."

"The men who laid the information were very hot. After the trial yesterday, they were each handed $1.50 for day's witness fees at 75 cents per day. This in spite of the fact that they stayed in town five days, and Chief English told them that they would get the most money refunded. They asked the magistrate about it, and he informed them, on the contrary, that if they came around this morning they were liable to be arrested and fined $20 each for looking on gambling."

Suing for Damages.

Montreal, Que., July 13.—An action for $5,000 is the sequel to a singular accident which occurred in the New York Steam Laundry on the 19th of April. Max Broder, an employee there was at work when a piece of material which is believed to be a coat, was hurled through the air and struck him in the right eye. In consequence it is alleged, the man lost his eye and also partly the use of the left one. Today he is propped up in the superior court against the New York Steam Laundry for the amount mentioned.

Submarine Sunk.

London, July 15.—The British submarine, C II, is reported sunk in collision with a U. S. ship off Lowestoft, on the east coast today. The Lieutenant and fifteen members of the crew were drowned. Lieut. Brodie is the officer missing.

Submarine C II, was badly damaged.

France En Fete.

Paris, July 13.—Gen. Picquart, French minister of war, was thrown off his horse today during the military review of 60,000 troops before 80,000 spectators, on account of the annual fête of the taking of the Bastille. He remounted at once and the review continued. During the manoeuvres, two dirigible balloons, the République and the Ville De Nancy, sailed over the field.

Financial Returns.

Personally I expected a deficit of about $5,000 based on the following figures, as per the sums placed at the disposal of each department and the revenue in sight. According to the resolutions passed by the board of directors from time to time, the following amounts were placed at the disposal of the various departments:

Department	Amount
Racing	$6,000
Stock	$5,000
Permit	$4,000
Dogs	$3,000
Domestic Manufactures	$2,000
