Shebeening in the Bay.

A WIFE'S TIMELY THOUGHTS AND SUGGESTIONS.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir— I feel driven to give your readers, the public of Harbor Grace and the atmosphere of Justice a few hints as to shebeening in this town and the way they are allowed to go on with their ruinous work. Did it ever occur to the people who were instrumental in passing the Local Option law in this town what a chance they were giving shebeens to poison our young men? I say poison, for it is nothing else. I heard of a case some time ago where a man after visiting one of those dens and drinking a quantity of the supposed liquor, on going home was suddenly seized with a serious attack of illness, and fearing he was going to die, ordered some of his household to his side, requesting them to go for the sergeant, so as he could make a statement. Just at this point he was seized with an attack of vomiting which he claims until this day saved his life. Recently our citizens have to get over the effects of a couple of glasses of the vile stuff sold for rum. Even a few days ago, on the occasion of our races, one man, who is living in St. John's, told me he drank a glass of rum in one of these places and about 10 o'clock at night he was taken sick in his lodging house, and so sick did he feel that he thought he would not live to see the daylight again.

What are the policemen doing to stamp out this curse from our midst? I myself am heartbroken. Mr. Editor, and I am convinced that one shebeen is worse than ten public saloons. While I am opposed to spirits of all sorts, I am convinced that good liquor, such as public dealers are compelled to sell, is not nearly so injurious as that sold by shebeens. I say again, what are the authorities doing to stamp out these ruinous dens? The police know where it is sold, but presumably fearing a non-conviction they refrain from summoning parties; and so the illicit selling goes on. Let them summon very likely party soon coming from the States, and give them class or standing; let our citizens fall in line with the police, and give them tips as to where the body and soul-destroying stuff is dispensed, and if necessary let the law itself step in and give a reward out of the public treasury to the citizen who gives evidence that will lead to the conviction of one of these man-destroying shebeens. Then to my mind we will see the end of this cursed traffic. Let me get a step further: let the liquor that is sold for medical purposes be analyzed and let me be surprised to find some of it at least condemned as wholly unfit for human medicine. Our sons and our husbands are not safe where such stuff is procurable. I would like to go even further and mention other sorrowful incidents, but I must refrain for our present at least. I cannot close without calling on mother, sisters and wives to make a determined effort to wipe out shebeens and to send or give to the police the names of the places where they know their brothers, fathers or sons resort and get liquor. Something will have to be done, or we will wake up one of these mornings and hear of some person being poisoned.

WANTED—An Assistant Cook, for City Club. Apply to the Head Steward.

The famous Autopiano. This splendid Player Piano is one of the wonders of our age. It is St. Michael's Orphanage at Belvidere. The collection towards the maintenance of this orphanage will be taken up on next Sunday at the Cathedral, St. Patrick's, Logy Bay, Killybegs and Mount Cashel. The collection has in the past been most generously subscribed to, but a great deal more could certainly be donated if the parents of children would all provide them with 10, 20 and 50 cents, according to their means. Thus the rich giving their dollars and the less lucky ones their smaller sums will one and all help to make the coming collection surpass all former ones. Then, too, will they be performing a great deed, contributing to the support of over 100 orphans for one year. These poor fatherless ones receive a good religious and English education, being taught domestic economy, etc., in addition. The kind sisters who devote their lives to this noble work are unceasing in their efforts in looking after in every way the children. All our citizens are urged to give according to their means, and give with a good heart; for it is said, "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."—Com.

TORBAY GARDEN PARTY.—Wednesday next, the 6th of September, will be a gala day in Torbay, the ladies of the Parish are preparing to hold a GRAND PARISH PICNIC in the Presbytery Grounds, and are expecting that all their friends and well-wishers in the Metropolis will honor them by their company on the festive occasion and partake of the good cheer provided. A dance will be held in the T. A. Hall after the picnic.—aug21.51

A Very Sad Case.
It will be remembered that last spring Mr. Dunn, of the Topsoil Rd., contracted diphtheria and that three of his children died of the disease. The family were then in very destitute circumstances, and all that was possible was done for them by kindly disposed people. Now to intensify the sorrow and distress of this unhappy family Mr. Dunn is again ill of a most dangerous disease, cancer of the throat. Mrs. Dunn, brave woman that she is, does washing, etc., for families to sustain her unfortunate husband and the children still left them. Mrs. Dunn has considerable crops growing but is unable to pay for their harvesting and she fears they must rot in the ground. Surely under the sad circumstances in which she finds herself the farmers and people about will come to her aid, save the little crops she has and render other assistance which she now so sadly needs.

Marconi's Experiments.

Mr. Marconi will erect a temporary station at the south Battery and today all his apparatus, etc., was transferred there. There are constant interruptions to messages from Glace Bay, Newfoundland territory. It is thought standing in the way, and these experiments will be conducted with a view to determining how the messages will go when crossing the Atlantic from here.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured.
It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache. I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself, and at times I care for nothing, I often have a pain in the pit of the stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden. Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

Help the Fatherless. Settlement Probable. Special to Evening Telegram.

One of the grandest results of our Christian civilization is the organization of institutions for the relief of the destitute and the protection of those deprived by death of their natural guardians. The church, from its earliest days, has shown charity to all poor, especially the young, who, just entering the battlefield of life, particularly need such a care to arm them for the conflict. Such benevolent institutions have been set up in every part of Christendom, and everywhere receive the support of the community wherein they are. Of those in our midst, one is St. Michael's Orphanage at Belvidere. The collection towards the maintenance of this orphanage will be taken up on next Sunday at the Cathedral, St. Patrick's, Logy Bay, Killybegs and Mount Cashel. The collection has in the past been most generously subscribed to, but a great deal more could certainly be donated if the parents of children would all provide them with 10, 20 and 50 cents, according to their means.
