REUTERS SERVICE.

London, July 31. (Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency.)—The Canadian journalists in an interview given upon their return to London, said that they were most impressed by the wonderful spirit of the men along the whole front amongst all ranks from General to Private. There is absolute confidence in victory, said Mr. A. G. Penney, of the Quebec Chronicle, and there is no sign of faltering, no depression, no doubt whatever as to the result. Another member of the party said the organization behind the lines is almost miraculous; everywhere there are signs of coming victory and the optimism of the men is wonderfully stimulating. Whilst they are yearning for home, they show everywhere determination to see it through, whatever the time or cost.
Mr. W. R. Givan, of the Kingston Daily Standard, describing an interview with Premier Clemenceau, said that he paid high tribute to the Canadians. He said they have proved themselves amongst the finest fighters in the world. The outstanding impression of the party in the war-devastated area was the cheerfulness and hope of the French communities.
tawa Agency.)—Reuters is informed that the object of Allied action in Russia is to assist the Czech-Slovak armies to prevent any danger therefrom Germany, and also to prevent at all costs the Germanization of that portion of Russia. The Allies have not the slightest intention of doing anything tending to their territorial aggrandisement. Their main purpose is the maintenance of the Russian sovereignty. Not a single Allied soldier will remain in Russia when these objects have been attained.

tawa Agency.)—At a luncheon just before the Canadian editors left Paris, Hon. Philippe Ray, agent-general for Canada, concluded a stirring speech by saying: "Canada entered the war from the first day and intends to remain in it until the end." Mr. W. A.
Buchanan, M.P., of Lethbridge, Alta., thanked Lord Beaverbrook, a Canadian, whom all Canadians honor and admire, for his happy thought in inviting friends from overseas to come and see the war close at hand, so as to be able to go back and tell their fellow-countrymen what this great struggle really means. "The sight of Vimy Ridge," said Mr. Buchanan, "showed us what Canadians had done.
Verdun taught us what France had suffered and from that hell she had come out triumphant. Since I had the opportunity of seeing the sacrifices to which France has willingly consented, I have vowed to her all my respect and all my homage." M. An-drieux, French High Commissioner to the United States, speaking first in English and then in French, dwelt upon the Anglo-French cooperation at the front in munition factories and in connection with the question of transport and provisioning. He spoke of the loyal entry of Canada into the war at the first day of the war, the heroic fighting of the Canadians at Vimy Ridge, and at other points of the front. Lord cheerfully greeted the concluding sentence of M. Tardieu's address when he stated it is because we are united that we shall be victorious. M. R. Remy, of Le Canada, Montreal, said he found it difficult to restrain his emotions when he thought of the work accomplished by the women of France in the cause of the war, especially in the regions the Canadian Journalists had visited. After a further tribute of respect to the work done by the French soldiers, agricultural laborers and factory hands, M. Remy, concluded by referring to the pleasure caused in Canada by the Allied new advance to the Marne River. All will hold on until France and her wounds are healed of the atrocities which the Germans have committed in France and also committed in Canada. We shall return to Canada and say we must make a peace which may not be a peace for France and Europe but for the whole world.

Cape Town, South Africa, July 31.
(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency.)—Capt.
Carmichael, ex-Minister of education for New South Wales, has arrived from Pretoria and Durban where it is understood he submitted a proposal addressed to the South African and Australian Governments, for a permanent system of exchange of ideas between representatives of political, commercial farming and journalistic interests.

tawa Agency.)—Speaking at a luncheon given in his honor by Sir Robert J.
Perks, to-day, Sir Robert Borden, Canadian Premier, in referring to the deliberations of the Imperial War Conference, divided the results into three classes. One class of resolutions, he said, dealt definitely with matters of great moment; another class commended to the attention of the various governments, questions requiring fuller consideration as well as the executive and parliamentary action of each. The third class comprised resolutions which set up standing committees representing the United Kingdom and the Dominions for the purpose of investigating and reporting to the governments concerned. This last class included demographic, regulation of ocean freight rates, and control of the raw materials of the Empire. On the whole, said Sir Robert, the deliberation of the conference have been attended with important results. Moreover a more perfect understanding has been attained by discussion between representatives from all parts of the Empire. It would be of inestimable value if the Imperial War Cabinet took up that urgent and that vital work. These deliberations were necessarily secret, as vast and complicated problems arising from the world war, had to be considered and determined. When the Ministers from the Dominions arrived in London, continued the Canadian Premier, they were confronted by an enormous mass of documents partly covering the deliberations of the War Cabinet and its conclusions since May, 1917. Many developments had taken place since, and fresh problems had arisen; further determination regarding future action was required on very grave questions, some of which he intimated concerned the Dominions' interest in the disposition of the troops and the future conduct of the war are still demanding and receiving consideration and attention. The part played by the Ministers of the Dominions in the deliberations, has been very real and by no means nominal. Being jealous of their autonomy they necessarily refrained from participation in Britain's Domestic Affairs. The Imperial Cabinet has been constituted to deal with matters of common Imperial concern and its deliberations were confined to that purpose. The British War Cabinet continued to exercise its functions with respect to matters of domestic concern within the United Kingdom. Thus the line of demarcation was established with sufficient clearness to prevent any unfortunate misunderstanding. "In this connection," said Premier Borden, "it should be clearly stated that neither the Imperial War Cabinet nor the Imperial War Conference are had under consideration this year the question of preference. The recent announcement on that subject was made on behalf of the British Government as a statement of domestic policy of the United Kingdom."

tawa Agency.)—A despatch from Cape Town says that the forthcoming mission of five cabinet ministers in the Orange Free State is regarded as one of the Union's greatest political events for many years. "The campaign is to be carried on in the Allied interests and will be above more party manoeuvres. The Cape Town Times, referring editorially to the Nationalists' false associations respecting the responsibility of the war and the ultimate result, says the circulations of the Lichnowsky memorandum has brought enlightenment as regards the origins of the war. The defeat of the German offensive and America's important part in it, was an answer to the question who will win, consequentially the paper looks forward hopefully to the result of the Ministerial mission."

London, Aug. 1.—The German guns were active last night in the Somme region in the vicinity of Villers-Bretonneux. To-day's war office announcement shows activity was also displayed by the enemy artillery further north near Bucquoy and in Flanders in the Maris-Meteren sector.

With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Franco-American forces on the Marne-battlefront continued yesterday the process of straightening out the line. They scored advances in this effort, the Americans pushing beyond Serzy to within two kilometres of Chameux. The Allied forces effected their progress against stubborn German resistance.

In an interview with M. J. G. Stone, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, this morning the Telegram represents that, reading comment on the Government's apathy in not sending some one there, Mr. Stone should keep silent, knowing all the time that he was going. Yesterday we again advised the Government to send a representative from here, and it is remarkable that it should be today that Mr. Stone makes known his intention of attending.

A young man for damaging plants at Bowring Park was fined $1 and costs, while his mother had to furnish bonds for $50.
Three others were also up, one a man, who had been drunk in the Bungalo and insulted people there, and two young lads for loose and disorderly conduct. They were each sentenced to $5 or 10 days.

In passing sentence His Honor Judge Morris was strong in his denunciation of such vandalism and spoke of the irritation of damaging the property of the gift to the city given by Sir Edgar Bowring.

Capt. Amosen, Manager of the Shipbuilding Co. of Hr. Grace, was married on Saturday last, at North River, to Miss Mary Genevieve Hanrahan, by Rev. Dr. Whelan. After the ceremony the couple drove to Holyrood, where they remained until last evening, when they came to the city.
The Telegram extends congratulations and wishes them many years of happiness and wedded life.

Dublin, (By Correspondence).— Lieutenant Percy, Director of Naval Recruiting, in Ireland, declares that recruiting for the British Navy was never more brisk in Ireland than it is at present. There are Irishmen in every department from the Admirals down, and the recruiters in the towns and villages throughout Ireland are always warmly received.
Dublin has just given a cordial send off to a number of recruits of the trawler section of the Royal Naval Reserve. This branch appeals particularly to Irish fisher boys who have experienced in the past few months around the Irish coasts the struggle with which the German submarine campaign is conducted.

The recruits paraded the streets of Dublin accompanied by bluejackets and marines and the band of the Berkshire Regiment. Among the inscriptions on the banners in the procession were:
"The Germans are sinking Irish ships and murdering Irishmen. Join us and avenge these crimes."
"We are Beatty's boys, brother Irishmen, come along." had his hand caught between two couplings while shunting at Brigus Junction yesterday morning and badly injured. The accident happened a few minutes after the East bound express passed through. First aid was rendered by mailman Coady, and on arrival at Placentia the injured man was attended by a doctor. It is likely that Power will lose the use of two fingers.

YESTERDAY'S FIRE ALARMS.—
The Central and Eastern Fire Companies were called to Hayward Avenue yesterday afternoon to extinguish a fire on the roof of a house occupied by Robert Fisher, caused by a spark from a chimney. The blaze was extinguished before much damage was done. At 1.15 p.m. the firemen again responded to an alarm from George St. where a slight fire had broken out in the roof of a house occupied by Mrs. S. Western. A few pails of water was all that was necessary to quench the flame.
