Seen From the Lobby.

—House of Assembly, April 30.

The session yesterday afternoon, although not as good as that of the evening, was most interesting to one who, like myself, loves a wordy scrap. Opening with light machine-gun fire between Mr. J. R. MacDonnell and Mr. Archibald on the matter of sectarianism, begun the previous day by Mr. Archibald, Mr. MacDonnell demanded that the House go into the charge, and exonerate him. The Speaker looked doubtfully at the Minister of Justice, who got up and said something—what, nobody but himself knew. Evidently the Speaker did, however, and Mr. MacDonnell was ruled out of order.

The member for St. George's, in stating that he had not yet touched on sectarianism, said that when he did, as he intended, "no one would need to put on his riddle cap to guess what his words meant."

Mr. Samson (Twillingate) now got up and in one breathless rush exhausted the points raised by the Opposition in connection with the Speech from the Throne, and sat down.

Mr. Samson is a young man, and spent some 15 or 16 years in the teaching profession.

Mr. Jones (Twillingate) read out a reprinted article from the Telegram. This was an article first published in a Toronto paper and re-printed from it by this paper. It dealt with the General Election and the part sectarianism had played therein. He held that the paper which would publish such an article should be boycotted and the editor thereof be compelled to go fishing.

He is probably right; but why not write to Toronto and tell the editor so? What is his idea of talking about it down here in Newfoundland? As far as I know the Toronto paper which published it has no circulation in this country and a boycott would not make much difference with it. As for the editor of a Toronto paper being made go fishing—that is genuinely funny.

I wonder if, in the back of his head, Mr. Jones thought that the paper which re-printed the article should also be boycotted, and the editor thereof be made go fishing? I wouldn't be surprised.

Evidently Mr. Jones knows more about fish than he knows about newspaperdom!

Mr. Target (Trinity) got up and occupied the valuable time of the House with a very interesting speech. "Newfoundland's fish is her staple industry" was the most original statement he made.

Remarkable, what a lot you learn when you sit patiently in the Lobby as the gems of thought fall from the lips of honorable members, hit the floor and scatter to the ears of all and sundry!

Mr. Abbott (Bonaville) started in to review the war, (touching at length on sea and land fighting) explained in detail the nebular theory, exhausted Darwin's theory of Evolution, and a few other light subjects, and then ended up by being funny.

And he was funny! The House simply leaned back and roared. Some of his jokes were delicious.

He mentioned the words "camel on a cat's back." I thought that this was a little too rough on the Premier and the Minister of Agriculture and Mines.

Mr. Abbott should really be more careful and discriminating.

Captain Goose (Hr. Grace) got up and spoke on every possible subject, with a few others thrown in. It is rumored that the Government intends introducing a law which will have for its effect that "Captain Goose shall not be allowed to speak for more than 5 minutes at a time." If the words "or at intervals more frequent than quadrannially are included," I feel sure that the Opposition will lend the act the best support that lies within them.

Mr. Cave (Bay de Verde) now stood to his feet, struck an attitude, and started in. Mr. Cave is a harmless kind of man, and is not taken seriously.

It was stated by a member of the Government that the City Charter be brought in this season.

Sir John Simon, the Attorney General of Great Britain, and one of England's most eminent legal men, will carry the case of Newfoundland re the Labrador Boundary, to the Privy Council, said Mr. Warren.

"We should pull together as men and not hate each other for the love of God" was one of the striking sentences spoken by the Minister of Justice.

I detected several grammatical errors in Mr. Squires' speech. Two of them are: he said that something was "illy" arranged; and that neither "are."

"Personal attack is a thing that every man despises!" exclaimed Mr. Squires. I almost got put out by the Sergeant at Arms for the noise I caused in trying not to laugh.

I spent my time, while one honorable member, who knew more about "cutting a cod's throat" than about speaking in Parliament was orating, in compiling a list of the professions of the honorable members of the Assembly, and I find that, in addition to one resigned and one gentleman of leisure, there are: 5 lawyers, 4 merchants, 4 fishermen, 2 manufacturers, 2 newspapermen, 1 farmer, 1 fur dealer, 1 shop-keeper, 1 tinsmith, 1 sea-captain, 1 agent, 1 book-keeper, 1 statesman, 1 plumber, 1 medical doctor, 1 insurance agent, 1 commission agent, 1 law student, 1 grocer and 1 traveller. A motley conglomeration indeed.

The best plea I have ever heard for a clean press was delivered by Sir John Crosbie, and I do not believe that there was a man in the Lobby who was left unmoved by his eloquent appeal. Certain dirty, mean, sneaking, yellow references to himself had been made in the Star—references which, if read by his young children, would certainly not tend to make him respected. Sir John said that he would horse-whip the snake that wrote them if they were repeated—and looked so hard at a star scribe, who was present, that everybody wondered if he was going to do the horse-whipping there and then.

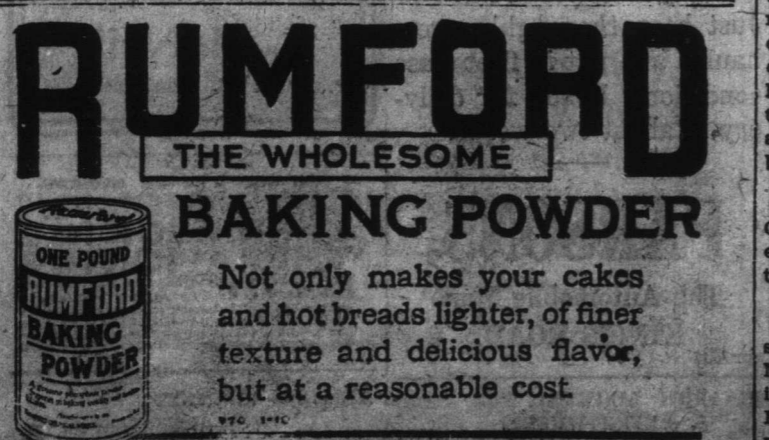

Go to it, Mr. Crosbie! Every decent-minded man is with you in your effort to cleanse the filthy press. The Telegram, I take it, will add you in the good work.

STRIKERS CARRIED PRINCE.

AUCKLAND, N.Z., May 1.

The Prince of Wales and his entire party, with the Governor General and his staff were brought into Auckland yards in four special trains, run by striking railway men. The strikers gave the Prince an ovation. It is still hoped here that the strike will be settled in time to permit the Prince to carry out his proposed visit to the northern part of New Zealand.

FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES.

LONDON, May 1.

At the Irish Conference, attended by Premier Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law, Field Marshal Viscount French, Lord Leut. of Ireland, Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Denis Henry, Attorney General for Ireland, they discussed the situation on the basis of three fundamental changes in the Government's policy. The first change, it is understood, will provide for more severe treatment for the perpetrators of actual crimes; the second would grant the Irish almost the same freedom of speech as in England, and the third would provide official publicity of all happenings in Ireland. While it is not announced whether these provisions have been definitely decided upon, it may be stated that the intention now is that the new Irish officials will attempt to govern along these lines.

HAS TO INTERFERE.

BERLIN, May 1.

The German Government probably will have to revoke its previous intention not to intervene in the territory south of the Ruhr, because of the chief Burgomaster of Hagen has declared that we cannot longer assume responsibility for the maintenance of order there. This announcement was made in the Prussian Diet, yesterday, by Minister of Interior, Severing.

SERIOUS INDIAN SITUATION.

LONDON, April 30.

Agitation by Khalifa extremists is increasing in violence, says a despatch to the London Times from Simla, dated last Wednesday. Delhi is the focus of the movement and during the past few days speeches of marked disloyalty have been delivered. Notes From Brigus.

A very quiet wedding took place at the Cabot Hotel on Thursday, the 29th inst., the contracting parties being Miss Lillian L. Kennedy, of Bay de Verde and Mr. Patrick F. Ryan, of Catalina. The bride was attended by her sisters, Misses Winifred and Ella, while Messrs. Stanley Kennedy, (brother of the bride) and Mr. W. Cantwell ably supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Murphy, P.P., after which a sumptuous repast was partaken of by those present. The bride party then motored around town. On Friday they were enroute for Arundale, where a few days were spent, from whence the happy couple proceeded to their future home in Catalina. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Ryan many years of wedded bliss.

During the past week Messrs. J. Gushue and B. Haseltine have been engaged in making minor repairs to the Methodist Parsonage premises.

Magistrate and Mrs. J. P. Thompson arrived home by noon train, on Monday. The former had been attending to magisterial duties in Trinity Bay. The latter attended at Government House to receive the decoration of M. B. E. which was conferred in recognition of valuable services in connection with the W. F. A. of which she was president.

Rev. Canon Bolt arrived in town on Tuesday, on a business visit.

J. W. Hiccock's schooner the "Vendetta," G. Gushue master, left yesterday to dock at Harbor Grace, where she will be cleaned and painted.

Rev. Dr. Murphy, P.P., left by Monday's train on a short visit to Carbonear. He returned again on Tuesday.

The schooner "Clarence B." owned by C. A. Jerrett, left this evening to dock at Hr. Grace. There she will be hawed and caulked preparatory to proceeding to Sydney for a cargo of coal.

Owing to canker and the poor potato crop of last season, there is a great scarcity of that staple commodity here at present. As a food with many they are a thing of the past. We hear that those fortunate ones who have sufficient for their needs, and some for sale, are seeking the "modest" sum of anywhere from six to eight dollars.

Miss Gertie Clarke left for St. John's this morning's train.

First Doctors Then a Skin Specialist—Then a bottle of D.D.D.

I will consider it a favor if you will allow me to add my testimonial to the many hundreds who no doubt have in praise of the great results effected by the D.D.D. Prescription. I : as a sufferer for two years with eczema on the legs and ankles. I tried three or four different doctors and none of them did me any good. I got tired of trying their remedies. I then went to a skin specialist but he was no better than they. I was reading the Sunday paper and happened to see your ad. I am very glad that I did.

I secured a trial bottle of D.D.D. and it did me so much good that I sent for a dollar bottle, also a cake of soap. That is all I used, and I am perfectly well. I have advised several others to use it and the results have been the same. You are at liberty to use my name for I consider D.D.D. the best remedy in use.

Weather Forecast.

Moderate winds, cool and unsettled with occasional showers.

Why Go Out Into the Rain Expecting Protection From a Sponge?

Rather a foolish supposition, you say; but nevertheless you do when you wear a raincoat in which the rain protection is embodied in the proofing of the outer cloth only, which absorbs the rain much as a sponge does, making a heavy, uncomfortable, dragging load for you to carry 'round.

These are the disadvantages that come with every coat that has not an oiled silk lining between the outer cloth and the cotton lining; the greatest feature in raincoat making and guaranteed rain protection that the manufacturers of have yet devised.

Why experiment with the sponge idea?

It costs no more for BLIZZARDEEN protection.
