ments. The Spanish Ulcer, as Napoleon calls it, was nothing but guerilla into his Portuguese Regiment and, contrary to the expectations of every-

a hill, while one of the Highland Regiments made a sweeping bayonet charge on the French Army. The cold steel was as deadly as it is now, and this dash started a route. Henry Pynn brought his Portuguese Legion into the fray at the supreme moment, and

House ,and for his distinguished bravery, he was then and there made a Knight Commander of the Bath. He was also given the position of Colonel in the British Army. He died in London, April 25, 1855, over eighty years of age. He visited Newfoundland once, and bestowed an annuity on his forced these Straits. He used to show his visitors at Government House mementoes of that fight. Possibly some of the marble cannon balls that the Turks fired at the fleet, from their big guns, may still be seen at the Government House. The big cannon, still to be seen at Harbor Rock Hill,

Carbonear, was given to Mr. Watts

Governor Duckworth was as brave a hero as ever water wet, but he was a poor speaker, as he occasionally pop guns," that were to be seen on so

Now I am going to tell you a story

The crisis of the Crimean War came

French and English soldiers had some remendous fighting. The French up-

I hear you all asking where does our

It will be news to many of you, but can vouch for the fact, and any loubter only needs to enquire for lay, who was the first man to scale

the walls of Sebastapol in that eventful seige. When Robins reached the top of the wall, the first thing he did was to shout, "Three cheers for Newoundland," and the British officer who

by the Governor.

many batteries.

about Sebastanol.

batteries built on Carbonear Island, attention, teaching and training to fit sister, Elizabeth.

To obtain the full, rich flavour of

Red Label

make it with freshly boiling water and then let it stand for 6 or 7 minutes before pouring. This will give great strength—but sweet strength.

There are 300 cups in a pound of RED LABEL Ask your grocer for it.

foundland Highlanders visited the

PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION

SNOWMOBILE

CONQUERING SNOWDRIFTS

WILL BE SHOWN AT THE NICKEL THEATRE

Thursday, Friday & Saturday

Heroes and Historic Landmarks are not needed. Are we not able and of the Oldest Colony.

Address Delivered by Mr. H. F. Shortis going to the front will make names in 1915.

A world renowned hero, who first | mous in song and story. Although distinguished himself in Newfound- we have very little information of land, took part in this campaign. He the men composing the Regiments of had a minor position on the H.M.S. Newfoundlanders fighting in these Northumberland, one of Lord Col- wars, still there was one hero, who ville's squadron. I refer to Capt. stood head and shoulders over all the James Cook, who was stationed at rest. Henry Pynn was the great-Newfoundland for several years chart- grandson of the famous old Admiral ing the coast. It was on a small Is- John Pynn of Carbonear Island. I land off Burgeo that he recorded ob- am sorry that I cannot give the rest servations of an Eclipse of the Sun, of that old song, but you can depend which he happily forwarded to the upon it that every Newfoundlander Geographical Society, and drew their was proud to relate the achievements attention to him, when they were of this hero, who was bone and sinew looking for a commander and skilled with us all. Six years ago the Newscientist for an expedition to the Anti-Another circum-navigator, birthplace of Henry Pynn, at Briswho made an heroic name for himself tol's Hope, and did honor to themseltwo hundred and fifty years ago was ves in saluting the spot where tradi-William Dampier, who in his bio- tion tells us this worthy old hero first raphy tells us that previous to his saw the light. When England began "Voyage round the Terrestial Globe," the great campaign with Napoleon, that he spent a year in Newfoundland. she looked everywhere for soldiers to I would mention here that tradition man her armies, and there was great is out, we will boast of some hero, now still points to the site of the McCarthy excitement in Newfoundland just as

Hotel, in Carbonear, as the exact spot | there is to-day, and we know the Regiwhere Dampier had his fishing stage. ried by these American Privateers, men where we stand in this momen Major Cartwright, at Labrador, gives perishable names, which will last as a heartfelt account of how they attack- long as the world exists. ed him at Labrador and carried off We are meeting another great cris-

the command of Colonel Skinner.

was formed, 1,000 strong. The former ers are leaving here as soldiers or

and other places of the Island.

Now to commence I must begin All this was done by Henry Pynn.

of a Newfoundland hero, who was fa- our Empire without fighting for it? in song and story.

others are enduring hardships and risking their lives for us. Depend upon it that some of our boys who are for themselves, and future generations enlisted and left with the first, second or third contingents. He rose from the rank of Private to be an Officer, and eventually led his men to victory and got the thanks of his character, I have no hesitation in prohear of more than one of our lads medal for courage and valour. There own personality in the thought of savments were formed, and I would like a proud day it will be when we read In 1776 we had two enemies. The to give you more particulars about on the Telegraph Bulletin that -United States declared its indepen- this, as it is an interesting subject to of the Newfoundland Regiment, was dence, and during the next six years those patriotic men, who are doing presented with the Victoria Cross for our Newfoundland coasts were har- their best to show our fellow country- unquestioned bravery that delighted They weren't strong enough to make tous crisis of our history. We all But I must get back to my story of attacks on fortified places, but they know what dangers England passed our past history, and show how that created an immense amount of trouble through one hundred years ago, when Harbor Grace boy, Henry Pynn, dis-

Henry Pynn was a young man in Danson's office at Harbon Grace. Judge everything to the value of $70,000.00, is to-day with the German Empire, Prowse tells us that Pynn was a memand brought ruin to him, which he and we have to listen to our leaders, | ber of one of our volunteer Regiments, just as our forefathers did to those and that Governor Holloway, when In 1794 France again declared war, never-to-he-forgotten heroes, Robert visiting that town, was greatly taken and before a year was out our New- Carter, Charles Garland, John Pynn with Pynn's soldierly attainments, and foundlanders started a Regiment, call- and Wm. Davis, as well as Christop- assisted him to get a commission in ed the Royal Newfoundlanders, under her Martin and Wm. Holman, who so the British Army. The Judge has distinguished themselves on similar made very careful enquiries about the In 1803 the Nfid. Light Infantry occasions. When your sons or broth- Pynn family, and brought a lot of valuable information to light, but the Regiment, Nfid. Fencibles, was dis- sailors, you must not think that they tradition that has been handed down are going away to be killed; that to us in Harbor Grace is that Henry In 1806 Volunteer Corps, Nfid. Ran-should be the very last thought in Pynn gave up his place in Danson's your minds, and you must banish that office for a position in the British In 1808 further formations of Vol- idea from you. They are leaving here Navy, or as we would say to-day, he unteer Corps for defence of St. John's to fight for their country, to fight for became a Naval Reserve. For what, the principles of British liberty that reason I don't know, but possibly as are so dear to us all. When we sing, a wish of his own, he was drafted into "Britons never shall be slaves," do the British Army, and it was there we really mean it , and think that we he made a name for himself. He was can accomplish victories and hold up famous amongst all Newfoundlanders carried off the honors of the day. The Portuguese were so accustomed to being defeated by the French on all occasions that they went wild with deortugal could not do enough for young Pynn, and he was knighted on front, and why shillst ie and take it easy, whilst the battlefield with that most honorable order of the "Tower and Sword." Henry Pynn fought all through the Peninsular War. He attained the highest honors of Brigadier General and Major General, and at the end of the War, in December, 1815, he was appointed to the lucrative office of Governor General of the important Spanish city of Valencia. We find an account of this in the British Records of Jan. 15, 1815. He was presented to George IV. at Carleton

From what I know of Newfoundland being presented with the Victoria Cross. What a jubilee we will have here in Newfoundland, we will make a whelkin ring with our cheers when we hear of our first sailor or soldier being presented with this coveted ing your comrade or your Regiment. There is no higher deed of humanity than the man who risks his life for his friend, and we hear of this so often in Newfoundland, that I am con fident and certain that before a year toria Cross for Newfoundland. What every person in the British Empire. amongst our fishing operations. Old Nelson and Wellington made their im- jinguished himself in Wellington's Army of the Peninsular War.

warfare. These commanders and Regi- him. ments ran for hiding as soon as a French Regiment appeared. Wellings in this audience that may have any ton determined to stamp out this guer- of the German Castles to scale during illa fighting, and in 1809 Henry Pynn the next few months, take my advice was appointed Colonel of the 18th and look out for a Bay de Verde or Portuguese Regiment. At Fuentis Lower Island Cove man, and he will Donora, Col. Pynn, by his determina- show you the way to get to the top tion and manly courage, put backbone of walls in double quick time.

one, he held them firm on the side of Training Children to People the British Dominions

Dr. Barnado's Homes have nearly completed their 60th year of work, and in that period they have admitted no fewer than 100,000 boys and girls. Everyone of that great number was baby should have a chance in life, a ditions; that they should not be pentute of friends and relations. He fused admission in those 60 years. The boys and girls have been cared for and trained to take their places in the world as useful citizens, and 98 perial Charity and asks for support from the Empire to continue the work The fulfilment of Dr. Barnardo's Charter means that a great family has constantly to be supported-a family which equals a town in size-7,300 During the American wars of 1780 boys and girls and babies; and on an and 1812, our coast was harried by average 5 children are added every United States privateers. Several at- day. The bills for this enormous famempts were made on Harbor Grace ily are naturally heavy. The chiland Carbonear. Not alone were strong dren need feeding, clothing, medical aside. No destitute child has been reand considerable forces kept there, them for the battle of life. but harbor batteries were also erected. These batteries have long been annual appeal for help at the Christ-dismantled, but many traditions of mas season towards the Food Bill and gallant fights have been handed down the maintenance of their great family, to us. When they were erecting the and they have every confidence that old battery of Harbor Rock Hill, at friends Overseas, as well as in the Carbonear, early in 1812, Mr. Henry Homeland, will rally to their assist-Watts, the managing partner of the ance, and enable them to continue to famous old firm of G. & J. Kemp, took train the destitute boys and girls and a leading part, and was one of the babies who come under their care. heroes of that day. He had an able To give help to this work is to make coadjutor in Governor Duckworth, a valuable contribution to the Emwho was the hero of a celebrated bem- pire's good. bardment of the Dardanelles, when he Headquarters of

Dr. Barnado's Homes, 18-26 Stepney Causeway, E. 1.

Duke of York Keeps Engagements

at the siege of this great fortress. The SOMETIMES IS INCONVENIENTLY EARLY.

London, Eng.-(C.P.)-The Duke

held the honor of their National flag and Duchess of York have taken Curin the celebrated capture of the Mala- zon House, Mayfair, as a town resikoff Tower, an the British, after a dence. They will be near neighbours terrible, hard attack, captured the of Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles. Since their marriage the Many of us can remember when the Duke and Duchess have resided at news of this great success reached White Lodge, Richmond, where the our country, and there were great jollifications, and I know of one man's married life and where the Prince of King and Queen entered upon their house that was nearly burnt down Wales was born. As their social and for British arms and it is a poor heart the Duke and Duchess have found public engagements have increased.

that doesn't rejoice sometimes, but White Lodge inconveniently far from Newfoundland hero come in at this Like all members of the Royal Family of the past couple of generhis knowledge of traffic delays encountered between Richmond and once to arrive at some function, so early that those whose pleasurable duty it has been to receive him have > their tenancy of White Lodge. Cur zon House belongs to Earl Howe, whose family name is Curson, but he has used it very little for the past

With EVEREADY UNIT CELLS - they last longer

> Fit and Improve all Flashlight Cases.

Complete Change at Popular STAR To-Day

A dramatic sensation with a master's touch. story of marriage without love.

"I Want My Man"

A First National Attraction in eight parts, with Milton Sills and Doris Kenyon.

BILLY SULLIVAN, in

basy Vi.LZ

"Fast Steppers"

COMING:-DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, in "DON Q."—the first of United Artists Mammoth Productions.

FRIDAY:—Our local strong boys: Wally Curran, Walter Batston and Charley Winsor—pupils of Professor Seeley—accompanied with the Professor, in acrobatic feats. Those boys will show what Newfoundlanders can do when properly trained.

McMurdo's Daily Bulletin

and men who want the full concert pitch of personal charm. They give a double dose of brushing. A specialized handcraftsmanship places these brushes as a blessing in the private sanctum of every man and woman who wants to look radiant and to feel refreshed. A printed guarantee is given with every Meritor Brush

MERITOR

Brushes of Merit.

Hair Brushes .. 2.50 up Military Brushes, 7.00 up

Tooth Brushes-Tom Thumbs ... 35c. Child's 45c.

Dental Plate Brushes 70c.

Nail Brushes 90c. Shaving Brushes-Badger 2.50 up Mixture 1.75 up

White Hog Hair, 1.25 up Bath Brushes

Our Candy Counter

We have some really delicious Candies, all fresh and wholesome.

Butter Almonds, 70c. lb. Butter Ginger .. 70c. 1. Butter Walnuts, 70c. fb. Ganong's Hand Made Creams 60c. 10. French Raisins, 1.10 b. French Nougatines,

Fruit Liquors .. 1.20 b Moirs' X X X . . 85c. 16. Moirs' Cherries . . 90c. fb. Moirs' Fruit Cake,

Ganong's B.G. asstd., Ganong's Fruit Creams,

OPEN DAILY TILL

T. McMurdo & Company, Ltd

Paper, Say "Evening Telegran

VI made for women Ladies' 60c. Gents' 60c. Long Handle 60c.

All Brushes of Merit.

8.30 P.M.

3: ITI 59

mixtures:

Of the her

Black, Brov

OB LOT ..

WHIT

MHI

and close

in shad