TRUSSES

Four Clippings

"One man in every seven is ruptured but only four of every seven ruptured men wear a truss."

"Every man who is ruptured should wear a thoroughly reliable truss. One which can be depended on."

"The man who wears a truss which does not 'hold' his rupture is taking mighty big chances, to say nothing of the pain and inconvenience he suffers."

"Farmers and farm laborers who are ruptured are strongly urged to provide themselves with reliable trusses before commencing the heavy harvesting."

For only one dollar and fifty cents we can supply a most comfortable truss and guarantee it to 'hold' your rupture. This truss has an elastic web body strap (similar to the web in suspenders) and a soft pliable pad filled with distilled water to make it 'fit' the spot. 'It is as comfortable on your body as your suspender on your shoulder.'

Special Trusses with large pads for large ruptures $2.50.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.—We allow you to try them for a few days and if they are not satisfactory we will refund you your money.

Cricket.

The scores below, give a record of games played on the home grounds during the past week. Tilsonburg visited Aylmer on Thursday last, and the game was a very pleasant and enjoyable one, resulting however in another victory for Aylmer. On Monday last, the strong touring team of Gordon McKay & Co., of Toronto, defeated our team in a well played game. The weather was terribly hot, and only one innings each was played. The features of the game were the batting of Dr. Dean, and the batting and bowling of Will Orton. The former made 22 runs and the latter 15 not out. He also bowled well, and gives promise of becoming one of the best cricketers of the country, as he is only a boy yet. He played a beautiful, and almost faultless game. The scores were as follows:

Additional Locals.

Mrs. Nix and daughter of Oregon, Ill., have been spending the past few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McKenney. Mrs. Nix left here in 1839, when only about 5 years old, with her father Mr. Richard McKenney and has not been back here since then. Her father at one time owned the farm of Mrs. Richard Locker near Luton, and Mrs. Nix spent a pleasant hour or so among the scenes of her childhood, on the old farm.

Church of Christ.—Service, morning, 11 o'clock, subject "Christian Development." The evening sermon will be dispensed with and the hour devoted to a service of song. Mrs. Brazier, of St. Thomas, will sing a beautiful solo "In the secret of His presence," by Stebbins. Mrs. Brazier has a full rich mezzo-soprano, characterized by its sweetness and is truly master of the art of interpretation of song. She will also take part in other selections. Mr. Stafford will sing "A Song of Trust," by Whyte. Special music is being prepared by an enlarged choir.
