HAVE YOU A VOTE?

To be entitled to vote in Dominion elections a voter must be:

(1) British subject twelve months in Canada.

(2) Twenty-one years of age, and

(3) Have one of the following qualifications:

(a) Have been a resident in Canada for twelve months.

(b) Have owned for twelve months real estate value—

$500 in cities,
$200 in towns, $150 elsewhere.

(c) Earn $300 a year.

(d) Be a farmer's or owner's son.

There are some other qualifications for uncommon cases.

No time limit of residence is required for an "income voter."

An occupant or owner for less than twelve months can, if so entitled, claim under the income qualification.

All applications to have names placed on the list must be made before Oct. 15, or the applicant will have to attend court and give evidence.

An income voter who has applied to have his name placed on the Ontario voters' list must again apply to have it inserted on the Dominion lists, or he will not have a vote.

The simplest way for an income voter, or for a person who has taken up his residence in the city within the last eighteen months, is to go to the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' block, any weekday afternoon from 12 to 6 and evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.
There the necessary paper may be signed without trouble and without cost to the voter.

Let there be no delay. Next election will be won or lost on the voters' list now being compiled.

Caverhill, but it is alleged he admitted his employer's $40 silver watch so much, that he carried it off on the 19th inst. Caverhill had James arrested, and, when the two met before Squire Lacey, a plea of guilty was entered, the difference was settled and James was allowed his liberty. As the offense was of a criminal nature the crown took the case in hand and had another warrant issued. The case comes up today.

Herrmann on Saturday Night.

Herrmann, the most wonderful magician, and one of the cleverest public entertainers of modern times, aided by Mme. Herrmann, will appear at the Grand Opera House on Saturday night only. Herrmann is a great master of the "Black Art," a veritable Prince of Darkness, if he will allow the libel; but he works his spells with such finish, and ease, and grace, that one sits quite content to be so deliciously humbugged. He announces this season a most remarkable entertainment, comprising among his chief features his latest and greatest illusions, "The Escape from Sing Sing," "After the Ball," "The Mysterious Swing, or Here! There! Nowhere!" and his marvelous spirit scenes. A feature of Mme. Herrmann's performance will be the "Serpentine," "Butterfly" and "La Blanche" dances by Mme. Herrmann.

They are arranged with changing light effects and form a most interesting and mystifying tricks and illusions. Mme.
Herrmann is a pretty and pleasing woman who manipulates her varying draperies cleverly, adapting her movements skillfully to the musical effects. The system of fourteen calcium lights are all supervised by Prof. Herrmann, who is a great master of the art of light effects, and the result is charming.

LOCAL ARCHITECTS KICK

Against the Free Library Board's Action

In Accepting Herbert Matthews' Plan for the Building—The Decision Stands.

The Free Library Board was met last night in the City Hall by Mr. Herbert Matthews, the New York architect who submitted plans for London's new library building, which were recently accepted.
Mr. Matthews came here on hearing of his success, and in three weeks will return to London again and personally superintend the work on the building. The members present were Chairman Macklin, Messrs.
Robert Reid, James Egan, E. R. Cameron, Joseph Marks, George Burrell, R. H. Dignan and Secretary Keene. Preliminaries were discussed to a great extent.
The perspective of the new building was such as made the board doubt whether it could be built for the estimated amount, but Mr. Matthews gave the assurance that it could be done. He expected to bring the cost greatly within the mark, which would give him an opportunity to have a more ornate building than was originally intended. Mr. Egan was in a hurry to have the enlarged plans for the contractors prepared within two weeks, which would allow operations to be begun before Nov. 1. This, it was stated, was impossible, but the promise was made to have them ready in three weeks, tenders called for and work under way by the above date.

Messrs. Moore & Henry objected to the action of the board in accepting Mr.
Matthews' plans, giving their reasons as follows:

"We were instructed to make the size of the building 59 by 80 feet, and the conditions were accompanied by a sketch drawn to a scale, and showing the building to be of those dimensions. All the designs submitted, with one exception, were made to comply with that condition, whereas the only one which ignored that condition of instructions was awarded first place, notwithstanding the fact that it has a frontage of 100 by 80 feet. There is a vast difference between 4,000 square feet of floor space within walls of given dimensions and the same space covering an unlimited area.
Therefore, if the conditions were allowed to be altered for one competitor, other should undoubtedly in common justice be given an equal opportunity. We therefore respectfully beg to submit that we have been led by your advertisement into the expenditure of considerable time and money, and that in justice to all the architects who submitted designs you should reconsider your decision at the earliest possible date, and that the award should be made to the best design conforming to the condition."

The plans had been accepted and the board did not feel inclined to reverse their decision. The general opinion was that the successful architect had not overstepped the specifications, and the letter will be answered by the secretary and the views of the board set forth.

An adjournment till Oct. 23 was made.

"The Favorite Spot for Shoppers."

Reasons why the clear, level-headed purchasers come here for their daily requirements:

1st.—Cash is the desire. You, we, everybody wants cash or its equivalent. It matters not whether you use it to buy with or have it to sell you, we look for the best investments.

2nd.—MARA is noted for Values. It is a recognized fact that the purchasing public consider this house as the chief center for First-Class Goods at the Lowest Prices.

3rd.—Uprightness and Civility. The up-to-date purchasers know that all our prices are marked in plain figures and the confidence in that alone is worth to us far more than if we marked our goods in private marks (to delude if necessary), and the large staff we employ have no occasion to bluff or barter to convince you of this point so necessary.

4th.—Quickness and Dispatch. It is not necessary to wait here all day for your parcels or change. Our large staff are instructed from the time they enter our employ to move rapidly, carefully and honestly. This is also a recognition that you and we are proud to hear of.

5th.—MARAS carry out every agreement they enter into, be it with man, woman or child. Children, we must say, delight to trade here because they are carefully served and properly treated. Instruct the children how to shop; they soon become men and women.
