Butchers—The butcher trade was not very active, the offerings being very limited, and many butcher buyers either absent or content to await larger receipts of the later markets. There were some good loads of butcher cattle, choice quality, offering, and prices made show no falling off for this class of cattle. A load of very nice butchers, averaging 1,050 lbs, 22 cattle in the bunch, sold at $5 25 the straight load. A few extra choice lbs, 22 cattle in the bunch, sold at $5.25 the straight load. A few extra choice cattle picked out of other loads sold about 10c higher. Medium butchers are steady around $4.25 to $4.50; good butcher cows steady at $3.50 to $4.25.

The stocker trade is quiet, with very little demand. Reports from several of the cattle raising districts say there is poor grass feeding. The late rains, however, will probably remedy that, and a better demand is looked for a little later. Sheep were steady at last declines, but ambs are quoted about 25c lower.

Hogs are still steady at $3 f. o. b., but the market is reported weak, with prospects a little lower. The run was 103 loads, consisting of 2,850 head of cattle, 365 sheep and lambs. Sheep and Lambs—Market easier for lambs; sheep steady at last decline. Exporters—Extra choice heavy well-finished cattle, 35 90 to $5; medium, $5 25. Butchers—Steady demand for choice butcher cattle, and prices steady at last decline. Stockers—There is practically nothing doing in the stocker trade. Calves—Market steady for good butcher cattle, and prices steady for good butcher cattle, and prices steady for good butcher calves.

Milch Cows—Market quiet, but steady demand for good milkers. Feders—Steady around $5, and offerings still light.
