LONDON GIVES ANOTHER BALL GAME TO HAMILTON

Graham and Lacroix Uncork Enough Wild Pitches and Passed Balls To Give Hams Sufficient Runs To Win With.

I Special to The Advertiser.]

AMILTON, June 22.—Even the mud cannot stop the Hams from winning. They played today on a slippery diamond, but they won just the same, although their victory was partly due to Graham's wildness and Lacroix's inability to hold him at critical stages. In fact, the London battery had an off-day and Hamilton's second run, the one that tied the score battery had an off-day and Hamilton's second run, the one that tied the score in the sixth, was nothing more than a presentation. Cristall had his weather eye open for such opportunities when he was allowed to walk and took advantage of two wild heaves and a passed ball and completed the circuit without even going through the usual routine of running at top speed when travelling from one sack to another.

Hamilton may have got the breaks, and they have had them before, but never when Schroeder was on the mound.

"Dutch" has been recognized as the hard luck pitcher of the staff and it was the first time this season that the season tory, although it must be said that he received excellent support, MeGroarty being especially prominent on the field and making many spectacular stops.

Reisling Panned.
Reisling sent his marathon heaver,
Graham, in to try and take the second of the series, but he failed to do so and has no person but himself to blame. He was given erroriess support, but lacked control at critical times and he was taken out in the eighth to make way for Dillinger, who managed to close that frame by allowing the Hams a run and another hit. Reisling came in for a great deal of criticism from the for a great deal of criticism from the crowd in the sixth inning when Tiffany injured his ankle sliding at first and asked that a man be allowed to run for him. "Not with the score a tie," said Reisling, and the crowd immediately started to "pan" the London manager, but "Doc," remained firm and Tiffany had to do his own hopping, but he did not have far to go as he was put out while on his way to second. on his way to second.

Schroeder Was Strong. Schroeder showed the best performance in the box that he has yet shown before a Hamilton crowd. On other oc-casions that he has pitched he was altrol from the start and did not allow a man to travel over the free route. A little peppery fielding in the first inning might have cut off one of the hits that the visitors made, but after that they failed to do anything in the way of bunching bingles, and the other hits that the chirps got were scattered over as many innings and two of them were e scratch variety.

visitors started off with a rush runs before the Hams got settled down.
Lamy started the proceedings with a law over Zeimer's head and advanced on eidy's single. Eckstein sent one to chroeder which the latter held a little too long and which caught Tiffany off the bag, allowing Eckstein a life. Sac-rifice hits by Schaffer and Lusk brought in the runs. Myers started the second frame with a hit over second and advanced on Lacroix's sacrifice, but died on the second sack. After that the Cockneys failed to get a man farther than first, and the four of the remaining innings but three men faced Schroeder each time.

Passed Balls Costly.

Hamilton failed to show any danger.

Hamilton failed to show any danger gnals on the paths until the fifth, then Gus Zeimer started the frame with a hit to right centre and advanced on infield outs by Woods and Pembroke. He scored on a passed ball. Schroeder got a two-base wallop, but Kelly Harris failed to advance him. The London battery showed a fine brand of charity in the sixth and presented Cristall with a run on a silver platter. Graham allowed the Hamilton manager to walk and to make sure that he would not die on first he made a wild heave of which Cristall took advantage and reached second. A passed ball allowed with a hit to right centre and advanced by heaving another bad one and Cristall walked home without even having to work up a trot. But that little piece of charity work did not end the scoring. Tiffany followed with a walk, but was out at second when McGroarty grounded to Schaffer. McGroarty showed a fine burst of speed on a hit-and-run play when he completed the circuit on Zeimer's single to right field. Woods also walked, but was nailed at second when Pembroke grounded to Schroeder started the seventh with his second two-base hit of the day, a long drive to right field fence, and Ke'ly Harris sacrificed him to third. Linneborn, however, popped out on a foul fly and Cristall flied out to Myers, leaving the Hamilton pitcher stranded on the far corner. When Tiffany sept a fly over third in the eighth, Graham was asked to vacate the hilltop and Dil-hard luck pitcher of the staff and it was the first time this season that the breaks were not against him. He pitched winning ball and deserved a vic-

HERE'S A YOUNGSTER WHO'S MAKING GOOD--HE'S TAKEN HOME RUN BAKER'S JOB AND IS DOING WELL WITH IT.

This is Frank Baker's successor, the youngster who is tackling toughest job in baseball—W. L. Kopf. To attempt to replace the great Baker is a job in itself. Kopf is playing the bag well and covering more ground than Baker ever did. He cannot be expected to hit as good, but he is meeting the ball well. Mack thinks the youngster will improve steadily and be almost as valuable a member of the team as was the home run king.
