Proceedings Can Be

Expected.

CAN OBTAIN REDRESS

Father and Mother Fear Girl

Will Take Veil.

"If they do not keep the promises

they made at Hamilton within thirty days, then they can expect something. They will find me just as determined as they are."

So declared William Link, 89

Mamalon street, Thursday evening,

commenting upon the report from

Hamilton that his daughter Grace

Jean had in an interview with the press stated that she had no intention of coming to live with him in

About to Take Veil.

Both Mr. Link and his wife,

Frace's step-mother, now fear that

"When I met Grace at St. Joseph' convent," explained Mr. Link late Thursday night, "I asked her if she would come home. She made a gesture of resignation, however exclaim ing, "Oh, I couldn't do that." Mr.

Link says that he did not pay par-

he and his wife have become pos-

to eventually take the veil.

to hear what I asked her.

stay here."

can obtain redress.

sessed of the belief that she intends

"I then asked her to promise me certain things," continued Mr. Link.

"As soon as I said anything about a promise the lawyer, Mr. O'Reilly, came into the room and remained

"I asked her if she would promise to send me a picture when she wrote and then come and see me. I asked

Mr. O'Reilly if that was not a.

straightforward proposition and he said it was and even said further to her, 'I don't see why you want to

Mrs. Link, however, is of the opinion that the last statement of the solicitor was made merely for her husband's benefit. These are the promises, nevertheless, that Mr. Link says must be kept.

The grieved father freely admits that he is contemplating court proceedings. He believes that on the strength of a court order of 1916 he

Thursday evening he appeared to be more bitter than upon any pre-vious occasion relative to the treatment he contends was accorded him in 1910 by local institutions when he was seeking Grace.

Mrs. Link also reiterates her orig inal claim that two months after the girl had disappeared she made in-anage, but without success, although the girl was there at the time, she says. This has been ad-mitted, she claims, also.

"This has been on my mind fo

the past fourteen years," concluded

Mr. Link, "and I should think that someone should be punished for it."

tion be taken up by the Orange Lodge, and is of the opinion further that M. J. O'Reilly, K.C., solicitor for St. Joseph's Convent, Hamilton, and did not reveal the nature of the charge on which

Mrs. Link suggests that the ques-

ticular attention to the statement

the girl is about to take the veil.

News of the Day in the Commercial Metropolis of Western Ontario.

CLOSE VICTORY

dence in London Motors President.

Taking Thursday's special meeting of the London Motors, Limited, as a basis for calculation it would be carry on unhampered.

The announcement at the meeting by William R. Stansell, president and general manager, that he had found a way to insure the success of the firm and was ready to submit his plan was the signal for a wild out-was deafening. From its inception the gathering was destined to be replete with ac-buildings despite a notice sent out by the directors of the company that no gathering was scheduled. not one of you shouldering the bur-

Buchner in the chair. In his open- den that I am, and some of those ing remarks he urged co-operation among the shareholders, and denied emphatically that he was "knocking" the corporation. He explained that as chairman of a special committee of four shareholders representing stock to the value of $100,000, he had as to the company's financial status.

"It is only fair that we should have this information," asserted Mr. Bucnner. "I cannot understand why anyone should oppose this meeting. suggest that a committee be formed to secure this information. Before we

that he felt that, although the sesbeen called by the directors, what he had to say should be heard at that

He declared that he had received March 14, 1922, the other August 11 1921, both communications expressing a desire for similar data. "I wrote Mr. Buchner," said Mr Stansell, "that the books were ready porations which will stand our investigations. Our investigation of your company has been so favorable heard nothing from him since. that I accepted the invitation to come "I thoroughly agree with Mr. here and see what could be done Unless you stop "scrapping" among ne to keep the company can be done."

cannot find from careful investigaion that Mr. Buchner has ever asked to see it. Our audit has been prepared by chartered accountants, recommended by our bank and absolute strangers to me.

Continental Motors Company lauding the London product.

can be well proud."

o read a similar letter from another president was interrupted the chairman, Mr. Buchner, the atter commenting "we want to hear what progress the company has been

Mr. Stansell.

ear what you are doing."

terested," continued Mr. Stansell, "I will not read the letter, but I would like to impress upon them the would tke to impress upon them that peo-ole who know this business thorough-"Just a minute," exclaimed the emanated from the audience directed the Y. M. C. A. building this even-ing for the purpose of organizing out of order, you have sold out";

"You have no right in the chair," and the chairman be unseated.

After considerable discussion of a similar nature the meeting stood adjourned to await a financial report Labor Temple, Friday night, with a to be ready by April 1.

An Economy Thought

Many an economy that is well worth while may be gained through the Want Ad Columns. se the Want Ads to— Rent that spare room of yours

Secure employment for your extra time.
Dispose of that used typevriter at a good price. Trade your motorcycle towards small car.

Such are but a few of the economies that are presented through the Want Ad Columns from day to day. Many people have reached success simply by being alive to such chances when they came along. TELEPHONE 3679.

PLACES ONUS ON Awarded Prize

MR. AND MRS. M. GOOTSON,

reason to be proud of their 16-months-old daughter, Rhea,

who was recently awarded a prize

for being the prettiest baby at a

That Rhea is possessed of a high degree of bodily perfection

is shown by the following measurements: Weight, 30 pounds;

height 35 inches: from fingertip to fingertip, 32 inches; about the head, 20 inches; chest, 24 inches, and about the abdomen, 23 inches.

"We have eighteen under construc tion," was the reply, "and two were sold in this city last night, but I clared: "I cannot see why honest efforts should be blocked. There is who are causing the most trouble

haven't a nickel invested in the project. I want to get down to bedrock and tell you how we can finance

While the vast majority of the shareholders appeared anxious that the visitor be heard, a section of the audience, headed by the chairman, opposed the move. The latter obshareholder, and his statement was dictory opinion from all quarters of

"I don't care about his own ex-periences," thundered the chairman above the din. "He must confine his Explaining that he would not at tempt to speak with a gag in his would confine his remarks to matters of interest to them. He explained that he represented a firm of licensed bankers, with offices in Buf-

"We have a branch which aids cor-

After another verbal tussle with

We have thought favorably of tak-

At this point the chairman insisted upon learning definitely whether the American bankers were willing to debit. Mr. Gebbie replied, "Not while

The latter then continued to ex

that the same would be noted here,

Quick Turnover.

"If anyone here wishes to sell his

"Now is your chance, chairman,"

"I'll take it," shot back the Ameri-

would sell at a profit.

him sell out."

stock and financing your company

falo and Elmira, New York.

remarks to our case.'

the signal for a volley of contra jected that Mr. Gebbie was not this project if you want to hear it

falo," explained the president.

local gathering.

6 Webb street, London, have

Board Estimates.

FIGURES ARE PREPARED

Declares Reductions Would Elimin-ate New Bandstand Construction and Proposed Roadway.

Buchanan explained Friday morning.

The figures, as already prepared, will be submitted to the civic com mission, he says. The commissioners believe that such estimates are ab solutely for the best interests of the city and feel that if any reduction is to be accomplished, the onus for the same should rest upon the city

"As an instance," pointed out the manager, "for years and years the estimates have provided for a new bandstand in Victoria Park, and a new roadway leading into Springbank Park, but each year they have

Should it be absolutely necessar, it is these two items which would have to be slashed this year again, the commissioners say, meaning a reduction of from $48,000 to $36.000. In the interim the old stand in Victoria Park is to be removed. Manager Buchanan has been instructed by the commission to this effect, for the Should the council refuse to grant the money for a new structure, the band will be compelled to play from the benches while the audiences will be compelled to stand or resort to Town Topics.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

There shall no evil happen to the just; but the wicked be filled with mischief .- Proverbs

the good of human life cannot lie in the possession of things which for one man to possess is for the rest to lose, but rather in things which all can possess alike, and where one man's wealth promotes his neighbor's .- Spi-

TOMORROW'S DOINGS. SATURDAY .-- Agricultural Section of Chamber of Commerce meets at Tecumseh House, 1:30 o'clock.

mouth, Mr. Gebbie promised that he for the past week.

Macpherson & Perrin, against W. pointed. for goods sold and delivered.

an executive meeting will take place as the company had a product that in the clubrooms over the Majestic Theatre on March 27.

the revision of commercial studies NOT A GREAT DEAL has been heard from the Lone Scouts of Amer-ica in this city up to the present President Stansell arose to make a time. The Y. M. C. A. is therefore further announcement, but was interrupted by the chairman. Various comments and suggestions then ing of all the leaders and scouts in ing of all the leaders and scouts in short time it is hoped that London

MEMBERS OF the London Labor Party meet in regular session at the lengthy agenda of business scheduled. The principal discussion, however, is expected to center upon the school annexation tax" problem, although some time will be devoted to consideration of the decision registered at the recent provincial convention at Stratford, when it was

was the speaker, and his subject. "Should the Bible Be Used as a Text Book in the Public Schools?" Miss Sibyl Higman gave a couple of much appreciated readings. Mrs. Nelson

Careless Auto Drivers Let Off Too Easily Here Says Magistrate

The London Advertiser

along Queen's avenue, past the intersection at Clarence street, at an excessive rate of speed, when Hodges Friday morning on a charge of reck-

LONDON, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1922.

ess and negligent driving. The defendant cross-questioned the officers closely, but was unable to shake their testimony. Hodges admitted that he had been driving on Queen's avenue the night in question. out not at the hour specified.

The court informed him that the time did not make any difference as far as the offence was concerned. "I hope that your honor will be will have to be done to stop this reckless driving. The fine will be $5 "In the United States prison terms motor laws in addition to that for "I see where young Dodge was sen tenced to jail in Detroit and fined. That is perfectly right. There is too

TWENTY THOUSAND PUT INDUSTRIAL SIGN PETITION

Officials of Local Orange Lodges Say More Names Available If Necessary.

CLERGY SUPPORTING

Hon. Dr. Edwards Says Harm Would Follow Separate School System Carried to Higher Forms.

Twenty thousand names have been forwarded to Toronto on the petitions which were circulated throughout the of concessions to separate schools in Ontario

Officials of the local Orange lodges state that but for Drury's statement that the matter would not be brought before the House, the number of manager advocated this change, names would have been even greater. These petitions have been circulated not only in a house-to-house canvass but through the medium of Protestant churches in the city.

A resolution was passed by the London Ministerial Alliance asking the support of all clergy in bringing the matter to the attention of the church-going public, and at the last session of the London Presbytery a resolution was passed indorsing the Dr Edward's Opinion. The circulating of the petitions came as a result of the stirring up of public opinion against the claims of the Roman Catholics for increased allotment of tax money for use in separate schools of that denomina-Dr. Edwards, who addressed a meeting in the Masonic Hall on the subject, stressed the harm which would result from carrying the separate school system into the higher forms of education and protested against the use of public funds for separate schools, whether Roman Catholics or otherwise.

MRS. PANKHURST MAY SPEAK HERE

It was announced that the annual It was announced that the annual $2 a year. Ornamental lights at the meeting of the provincial council for corner of Dundas and Richmond combatting infectious diseases will streets will also cost another $2, THE CONDITION of Mrs. A. E. be held in London on April 27, at a while the lamps on the Market Silverwood, who has been critically be held in London on April 27, at a square will be taxed an additional ill at her home for the past few Thursday afternoon in the Health that penn decided to illuminate Institute.

Issued a county court writ through the Social Service Council was ap-meeting of the provincial council, it AN EVENT THAT the junior boys was stated that an effort would be Among those present were: Dr. their benefit. He intends to hold Gordon Bates, general secretary of these hikes weekly and is looking for the national council; Miss Gertrude a large turnout in order to make it Tate, general secretary of the Toronto council; Major Gordon Ingram, president of the London council; Dr. G. W. V. A. says that the unemploy- R. D. Hutton, M. O. H. of Brantford,

MOLDERS GO ON STRIKE.

Boston, March 17.—Five hundred members of the iron and brass molders' unions went on strike today in fifteen foundries affiliated with the Foundrymen's Association of Boston as a protest against a wage cut of

Foster presided and at the close refreshments were served.

THE LADIES' AID of Talbot Street Baptist Church held their annual meeting Thursday afternoon "But excuse me," interrupted the "Well, mine's for sale, at 50 cents on the dollar," retorted the chairman a second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to on the dollar," retorted the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to only the chairman and the course of study in the technical second time, "we want to only the chairman and send a representative to assist in committees, showing a very success-the revision of commercial studies. ful year. The officers elected for the year are: Honorary president, Mrs. J. W. Jones; president, Mrs. J. R. Munroe; first vice-president, Mrs. R. Hyslop; second vice-president, Mrs J. B. Campbell; third vice-president. Mrs. O. Brady; treasurer, Mrs. L. R. Jones; secretary, Mrs. A. Greenslade; assistant secretary, Mrs. J. W. Norfolk; pianist, Mrs. Norman Glen; assistant. Mrs. W. May; envelope clerk, Mrs. Fred Smith; press correspond-

SHOWS CANADA'S NORTHERN LANDS

Rev. R. J. Bowen Gives Graphic Description While Displaying Pictures.

TELLS MANY STORIES

Encountered by Early Settlers-English Capital Helping.

The beauty and grandeur of the great orthland of Canada was shown through lantern slides by the Rev. R. J. Bowen at the Western University extension lecture given in the public library Thursday night. Pictures were shown by Mr. Bowen of the wonderful mountain systems in the little known regions of Alaska and the Yukon, with all the beautiful color affects that dispelled any thoughts that one might have of a country that is usually thought of as being all snow some of the best pictures shown were those of mountain ranges on the edge of the lakes, it being hard to tell at times which were the actual mountains and which the reflections in the water. This was explained by the lecurer as being due to the clear atmos-

The pictures of the gigantic glaciers with their dangerous crevices, were shown, the lecturer relating many in-teresting stories of the hardships and privations encountered by early pionprivations encountered by the country, or to explore it, and in so doing played their part in empire

Horses Died by Thousands. Dead Horse Gulch, which derived its lead there during the rush of the boom days, was shown with a railroad run-ning through it. During the time that the railroad was being surveyed no less than 3,000 skeletons of horses were found and burned.

Speaking of the game that inhabited the north country, Mr. Bowen stated it was estimated that nearly 1,000,000 head of caribou roamed in Alaska and

Some fine pictures of Dawson City were shown. They had been taken in the prosperous days of the city when t had nearly 25,000 population. Today the population of that city is only about

An interesting fact revealed in connection with the pictures shown of the railroad in that territory was that it was built by capital raised in London, England, as was also the hotel built on the mountain top for the use of the tourists.

Other pictures showed the miners at work with their sluice boxes, also the methods used to wash the gold from Street lighting charges were also the gravel.

At Dawson, in the middle of summer,
Mr. Bowen said that ice could be found about two and one-half feet below the increased Thursday, to the extent of $2,880 a year. The council will be surface of the ground.

Obituaries

DONALD URQUHART.

The death took place at Hensall, Thursday, of Donald Urquhart, 77 The funeral will be held Saturday Interment will be made at Hensall Union Cemetery. LEVI HAMMOND.

The funeral was held Friday afteron, from the residence of his sonin-law, Robert Annett, 21 St. Patrick street, of Levi Hammond, who died at Victoria Hospital, Tuesday. The services were conducted by Rev. George Sage. Interment was made

BUILDING BOOM ON WAY and was a highly-respected resident and not 200, as reported.

WILLIAM HODGE.

The funeral of William Henry Hodge, 78 years old, was held at Bothwell Friday afternoon. The body was shipped from John Ferguson's Sons' undertaking parlors Fri-

Mr. Hodge was a former Grand

MRS. E. ARMITAGE.

The death took place of Mrs. Eliza beth Armitage Friday morning at the home of her son, Rev. W. L. Armitage, 119 Wortley road. Mrs. Armitage, who had been ill only a week came from Toronto to London with her son four years ago, when he was called to the city to officiate at St. James' Church, South London. She was a native of Lucknow. Bruce the court, as Jones was led away by County.

MRS. E. M. HENDERSON. The funeral was held Friday afternoon of Mrs. Ethel Maude Henderson, who died at her residence, lot 8, concession 7. East Nissouri. Interment was made at St. John's Ceme tery. Thamesford.

PLEADS GUILTY TO BUYING CIGARETTES FOR YOUTH

Young Boy Claims Mitts, Dismissed Made Him Buy and Cough Up
As Well.

Morley Mitts pleaded guilty i police court. Friday morning, on clarge of supplying eigarettes to a minor. He said he purchased the "smokes" for the youngster in a drug The boy, however, did not agree with this story. He stated that he himself had bought the cigarettes, and that Morley, who is 17, had forced him to "cough up" when he left the store, and made him go in the store in the first place. "I'm inclined to believe the boy's story," declared Magistrate Graydon. "I'm afraid that you have imposed on this small boy.

"I'll never do it again," said Mitts with an anxious look at the bench. Questioned by the court, Mitts said "I'm going to dismiss you with a you buy any cigarettes for boys after this and don't let them buy any for

LINK PLANS TO Housing Commission Will Appoint Manager SEEK COURT AID Declares if Promise Not Kept

THE housing commission will meet Friday night to appoint a manager to take complete charge of its affairs.

It is believed that matters are in such a state that no one knows where the affairs of the commission are. Civic funds are being lost almost daily as a re-It is to overcome this condition that the decision to place the affairs in the hands of one responsible man has been ar

It is understood that Commissioner J. W. Cunliffe will be asked to take full control of all collections, payments and the sale of houses

BALLANTYNE NEW "Y." SECRETARY

According to information given by . M. Copeland of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A., at a meeting of the board of directors Thursday evening, Harry Ballantyne has beer appointed general secretary for the Y. M. C. A. in Canada in place of Charles A. Bishop, who has left for New York.

The following were appointed nominating committee to prepare a slate for the election which takes at the moment, but since then both place in May: R. F. McPherson, N. Wendell Holmes and F. McFarland. A budget committee was also appointed to prepare estimates: A. Langford, A. E. Silverwood, W.

Neville, James Gray and J. J. Foote. TRUSTEE FAVORS DAKIN STREET SCHOOL SITE

Beemer, Col. W. J. Brown, K. P. R.

Mrs. John I. A. Hunt Declares Talk Against Property Is "Tommy-Rot."

School Trustee Mrs John I. A. Hunt has come to the defence of the proposed Dakin street public school site, which has been condemned by numerous ctizens, including Mayor Wilson

"I have visited the location," said Mrs. Hunt at a meeting of the audit committee of the board of education Friday morning, "and I think it is an excellent site It's all 'tommyrot' this talk about that property."

Commenting upon the petition which is to come before the board at its next meeting from a number of East London residents, urging the purchase of Eleanor street property valued at $18,000, the trustee stated that the members of the various mothers' clubs of the district quiries at Mount St. Joseph's Orphin question were highly indignant regarding the story that their names were on the petition. "They do not want to be identified with it," said

Mrs. Hunt. Trustee William Clark also ex pressed disapproval of the $18,000 site and maintains that under the circumstances the board should purchase the neighboring property, which although an acre larger in area is for sale at half of the price of such a difference in price," he explained, "I would be inclined to agree with the petitioners."

St. Joseph's Convent, with the reported will shortly be appointed as the girl's guardian, should be prosecuted, though she with the petitioners."

The secretary of the board states Mr. Hammond was 78 years old, that the petition contains 73 names,

YOUTH IS GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE

George Jones, a youth of 16, who pleaded guilty last week to having stolen a bicycle, was released in the care of Ed Lance of the S. A. C. by Magistrate Graydon in police court Friday morning.

Mr. Lance stated that a former employer of the boy, a farmer, living near Dorchester, was willing to give the lad a job, and that Jones had promised to stay at the work. "I don't think it will be long until he is back in the city," stated the court. "However, we will try it." "I want to go out on the farm and behave myself," said Jones eagerly.

"If you come back to town, you

ton, N. B., has wired to Mr. McGill, clerk of Talbot Street Baptist Church, that his congregation has finally accepted his resignation, and he is now free to say definitely that he will accept the call to Talbot Street Baptist,

Several congregational meetings were called by the Moncton church in an effort to induce Dr. Green to reconsider his resignation. Talbot Street pulpit has been well supplied during the time the church was pastorless, and the interest in the work the court, as Jones was led away by Mr. Lance.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

SEVEN-ROOM COTTABEL LARGE District, fruit trees. Apply 240 Emery Street.

The DAVIS INSURANCE AGENCY, LIMITED.

208 Royal Bank Bldg. Phone 776W.

pany, of Montreal, enabled us to secure at Half Price the balance in Factory of their celebrated Boudoir Slippers. We pass the Bargain on to you. Made with best Chrome Leather

GIVE STANSELL

Stockholders Show Confi-

HAVE FINANCE IN SIGHT American Banker Intimates His Firm Will Back Auto Concern.

reasonably safe to assume that a great majority of the shareholders are confident that a bright future awaits the company providing its present management is allowed to burst of cheering from the assembled Rockholders.

When George Gebbie, of the firm of Gebbie & Co., bankers of Elmira and Buffalo. New York, declared that the institution of which he was a member stood ready to finance the Lon don Motors, Limited, the applause Buchner, stockholders, eager and alert, and probably a hundred in number, appeared at the county Continuing President States The meeting opened with Mr.

summoned them together in an effort to gain if possible further details Only Fair.

proceed further I must caution you that no personalities be indulged in."
W. R. Stansell, president, explained sion was of an irregular nature by eason of the fact that it had not wo letters from Mr. Buchner, one at any time for inspection, but have Buchner that everything should be but I do think that the methods taken have been unwise. We have a detailed report that can be seen by the chairman, Mr. Gebbie declared, my shareholder at any time, and I ing up the sale of your treasury

Traces Growth. After tracing the growth of the company since its inception the president read a communication from the ways.

"It is of good quality," said the Detroit eulogy, "of which Canada While explaining that he was about naking, not the opinion of Ameri-

"We are making automobiles," was quickly. he retort amid applause. can banker. "Bring it to the office,

y contend that our progress has been

DO YOU NEED A TRUSS?

EVERY TRUSS IS FITTED BY AN

EXPERT

216 DUNDAS ST. PHONE 88 Experts in Kedak Photography.

Cairncross

CITY COUNCILLORS

General Manager Buchanan Says Commission Will Not Cut Parks

No voluntary cut in the parks board estimates is contemplated at the moment by the public utilities commission. General Manager council.

been eliminated."

FOR myself I am certain that

THE CONDITION of Crown At torney J. B. McKillop, K. C., remained unchanged Friday afternoon. Mr. McKillop has been seriously ill at his home in the Hayman Court days, was reported to be slightly improved Wednesday afternoon. THE INTERNATIONAL Harves-ter Company of Canada, Ltd., has upon and a committee to confer with upon and a committee to confer with

Simpson of Wallaceburg for $508.87 of the Y. M. C. A are eagerly looking made to secure Mrs. Emmeline Pankforward to is the hike that Mr. hurst as a speaker. Spearman is having tomorrow for as great a success as possible. take over a company with a $75,000 SECRETARY PAULGOR of the there were factions pulling both ment situation is practically the same and Miss D. Moore, representing the as far as the veterans are affected. provincial board of health. plain that similar enterprises had For the entertainment of the boys a euchre drive will be held on March been financed before with excellent results, and expressed the opinion | 22. He wishes also to announce that

J. A. DICKENSON, head master of the commercial department of the stock and get out let him give me London Technical and Art School, his name, and we'll take it from him has been chosen to attend a meeting so we can wipe out those persons in Toronto Saturday next, when school representatives from various sections of the province will confer "Well, I have the floor," continued exclaimed several in the hall. "Let with the provincial department of education with a view toward revis> one stockholder rose and moved that will have one of the strongest city ent, Mrs. R. J. Wilson. organizations in Canada.

> > decided to extend membership of the party to individuals as well as organizations. "EVERYTHING in the grocery line as well as money and bread tickets," was the report received from the generous grocery shower, held Thursday evening at the March meeting by the Simcoe School Mothers' Club, for the relief of needy in the district. Rev. George Watts, pastor of Wellington Street Methodist Church,

Three constables stated that W. R. | lenient," observed Hodges, as the Hodges had driven his motor car court signified his intention of registering a conviction. "I'm not going to send you to jail," answered to his name in police court stated Mr. Graydon, "but something are meted out for infractions of the much leniency shown in this coun

Public Utilities Commission Reverts to 1919 Scale, or Increase of 10 Per Cent.

HYDRO OFFICIALS AGREE

Manager Buchanan Announces Street Lighting Charges Increased to Extent of $2,800. As anticipated for the past two weeks, members of the public utilities commission, in regular session city, pr-esting against any increase Thursday afternoon, approved of the suggestion to elevate industrial powrates in London to the 1919 scale, or approximately a 10 per cent increase. At a former meeting the general pointing out that while a surplus had been shown generally the industrial department had not been paying its The proposal was deferred until Thursday, when Manager Buchanan reported that he had consulted the the Yukon chief officials of the hydro-electric Some fit commission at Toronto, and had been advised to proceed with the increase. General Readjustment. At present a general survey of all the hydro consuming municipalities and districts is being undertaken by the provincial hydro department with a view toward a general readjustment of rates. It is expected, however, that it will be May or June before this will be completed, and any change effected. The London branch has been assured, however, that another industrial advance will not be made at that time.

asked to pay this additional cost. The management explains that the poor quality of lamps now being manufactured, increases the cost of street lighting maintenance. Under the new rate the ordinary street light will cost another dollar a year, while the 400 watt lamps in use at corners will be advanced by

The formation of a national finan- the utility building at a cost of $700.

In connection with the annual LONDON REALTORS SEE BIG George Sage. Interme

Resolution in Favor of Springbank

Dam Construction Passed—Many
Applications For Membership. Great optimism with regard to the future of London was evinced at a meeting of the London Real Estate Board, recently held in the city coun- day morning. cil chamber. It was felt that on account of the steady drop in the Trunk Railway section man at Lonprices of building materials, together with the demand for vacant property in the city, prospects for a boom, both in the building trade and the real estate business were extremely bright, and members were enthusiiastic in their discussion of the advancement of a greater London. A resolution was passed favoring the construction of the Springbank dam. It is expected that a delegate will be sent to the assembly of the National Real Estate Association, which is to be held in San Francisco A number of applications for activeassociate and associate membership to the board were received.

BRITISH MAILS

The next mail for Great Britain and Europe will close at the local postoffice at 10 p.m. on Sunday March 19, 1922, to be forwarded via steamship Aquitania, sailing from New York on March 21, 1922. This mail will consist of letters and reg-

HERE'S A FORECAST of four of the features which will make next Saturday's London Advertiser unusually interesting:

The Part Cyprus Has Played in the Week in the World.

The Four-Power Pact
—A "Current Event
Discussion" for London school children.

ORDER THE LONDON ADVERTISER

Garden and Farm.

WESTERN ONTARIO'S COMPLETE NEWSPAPER.

Morley promised and hurried away

REV. BOWLBY TO COME TO LONDON Rev. Dr. Bowlby Green of Mono commencing his pastorate here on

there has not been allowed to fall off

Soles, Rubber Heels and 21/2 inch Silk Pompons, uppers of Silk Velvet. Colors are Lilac, Pale Blue, Pekin Blue, Gray and Violet. All sizes.

Ashplants