Judge Macbeth Hands Down Members of Order Gather To Judgment Awarding Defendant $115 and $75 Costs

PLAINTIFF ALLOWED $35

Judgment for the defendant for suggment for the defendant for $115 and $75 costs has been handed down by His Honor Judge Talbot Macbeth in connection with the county court action last December brought by Amelia Horwood against A. J. Mihm of this city. The latter was allowed $50 on his counter-claim of $150, while the plaintiff and in Canada.

for the work he had done.

"I allow $35 upon the plaintiff's of St. Thomas. claim to be deducted from the defendant's counter-claim for $150, being the contract price of work done by him for the plaintiff, as in the pleadings set forth, giving him judgment accordingly for $115, with costs fixed at $75.

"I also give judgment in the defendant's favor upon his counterclaim for $50 to be paid in three months from this date, but if in that time the plaintiff removes the defendant's timbers and blocks from underneath the house in question and put them at the defendant's disposal put them at the defendant's disposal put them at the defendant's sum of $50 to be paid in three society." he said, "depends wholly on friendship—on the friendship of citizens, one to another."

Charity is a quality as essentially necessary as its sister virtue, friendship, according to E. A. Lemon St. Thomas, who spoke for a short time substituting for the grand chancellor near the house, then this sum of $50 substituting for the grand chancellor is reduced to $5.
