European Stock Markets. London, February 5.—Discount during past week was quoted at 1 1/4 to 1 3/4 per cent. On the Stock Exchange business was inactive in every department throughout the week, and prices dull. Operations are in a state of suspense over the political outlook, and doing nothing. There is a general tendency to realize. Investors continue to sport business in securities. Yesterday prices were especially heavy, owing to the publication of the Austro-German treaty, and at the close were the worst of a week. American railroad securities were stagnant and jobbers complain that the amount of business during the past week is the smallest recorded for many months. During the week business on the Paris Bourse was limited and prices were weak. Yesterday there was a semi panic, owing to the publication of the treaty of alliance between Austria and Germany. There was another reaction against Paris Canal shares, which during the week declined 2 1/2. Business on the Berlin Bourse the past week was dull. Yesterday there was no general fall in prices, owing to speculators realizing on their investments, the prices of home funds only being maintained.

Colored Farmer Brains His Family and then Kills Himself. Macon, Ga., Feb. 4.—In Baker County a young man went to the house of Amos Grant, a colored farmer. Finding all quiet and the house closed he looked around for a chance, and found the body of Grant hanging from a rope thrown over a projecting part in the rear of the house. Inside he found Mrs. Grant's body in bed, her head crushed into a jelly as if by a club. On the floor was the body of the wife's sister. Further over was the body of Grant's 15-year-old son. The theory is that as Grant was a hard taskmaster, his wife was about to leave him, and that Grant, frenzied by the thought of her departure, took a club and brained them all while they slept, and then committed suicide.

Do not delay in getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Worm Expeller is a pleasant and sure cure. If you love your child why do you let it suffer when a remedy is so near at hand?

MORE PEACEFUL OUTLOOK.

Today's Despatches from the East do not indicate Trouble.

Bismarck's Speech Foreshadowed—Why Austria Objected to the Publication of the Treaty—The London Standard on the Situation, etc.

The London Standard's correspondent at St. Petersburg says Russia for a long time has had no objection to the publication of the Austro-German treaty, but Austria objected, because she desired to induce a belief at home and abroad that the alliance went further than it actually does.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says:—At a Polish ball last evening Crown Prince Rudolph said that there was no cause for alarm. The Emperor expressed the same opinion in an audience with the Governor of Galicia.

It is reported that Count Kalnoky and Count Andrassy have both stated that the Austro-German treaty was published with the view of strengthening the hands of President Carnot and the Car, both of whom are in favor of peace, and in order to show that the alliance is not directed against France. The first feeling of alarm among the newspapers is subsiding.

Advices from Pesh say that the Magyars are greatly pleased by the treaty, regarding it as evidence of the close adhesion of Germany and Austria. They loudly praise Count Andrassy and speak in admiration of Prince Bismarck and Emperor William.

The London Standard's correspondent at Rome says he is convinced that the Italian Abyssinian expedition will be recalled next month, in view of the threatening aspect of European affairs.

The New York Herald's Paris despatch says Bismarck's speech to-day, it is generally expected, will be of the most peaceful character. The probabilities are that Germany will today enter on a period of optimism likely to last some months.

LATEST LONDON GOSSIP.

GLEANED FROM THE CABLE LETTERS.

The reports of the impending recovery of the Crown Prince, with which we have been flooded during the week, must be taken with a large grain of salt. Cautious symptoms have not developed, as was expected by the doctors, but I hear from a Berlin source that another form of "sugar" malady equally menacing has been detected instead. Dr. Mackenzie returns an item on Tuesday and will probably say something more.

The term Scotland Yard will soon pass into the limbo of innocuous desuetude. The new and handsome building on the Thames Embankment is rising rapidly to ward completion and the police expect to move thither in the Autumn. The new headquarters of the metropolitan police cover an acre of ground and cost $1,200,000. The site was originally chosen for the Italian Opera House Col. Mapleson was going to build. He abandoned the project because Big Ben in the Parliament House tower made such a prodigious noise every quarter of an hour.

The barristers named Beckett, lined up in the family of the famous Thomas à Beckett, write a funny letter to the papers to-day relating their visit to Canterbury yesterday to view the reputed seat of evidence of the close adhesion of Germany and Austria, and resting discovered under the crypt of the cathedral. They were directed to the house of a local antiquary, where they found a skeleton covered with a red and resinous substance in a parlor, where it was freely shown to everybody who chose to call. They are deeply indignant at this, and hint at a prosecution of the Dean and Chapter for misbehavior in permitting the removal of the body from consecrated soil.

We are to have three well-known and, in the eyes of the public, highly distinguished pianists this season. Mme. Schumann has been engaged by Chappell, Sophie Menter comes to the Philharmonic, and Mr. Schouvaloff, a series commencing at Princess Hall on March 6.

Ivan Caryl is composing the music to a libretto of opera written by B. C. Stephenson. Bernhard has closed with Mr. Mayer for a season at the Lyceum Theatre with "La Tosca."

M. Ouellet is announced to play in London a round of characters before starting on his American tour.

At the Bankruptcy Court yesterday an application was made for receiving an order against Col. Mapleson. The order was granted to the petitioning creditor, Donald McGregor, a hotel proprietor of Edinburgh.

Edwin Clark announces for Thursday a matinee of the play called "Mirage," a romance of the Mediterranean. I understand that it is still another version of Phillips' "As in Looking Glass."

Mr. Simpson, the widow of Mercer Simpson, late manager of the Theatre Royal of Birmingham, and the mother of the present successful manager, died during the week. For over 125 years this theatre has been in the hands of the Simpson family, and with Mrs. Simpson, who lived to the age of retaining her faculties to the last, one of the links with the past is destroyed. Fred. Simpson, one of her sons, is supposed to be living in Florida, but has not been heard from in several years.

Mr. Poole has greatly improved and is now at Brighton convalescing. The sharp attack of gout from which the comedian has been suffering has delayed the production of Mervale's new play.

"Dowry" reaches the hundredth night at the Prince of Wales Theatre on Thursday. The event will be celebrated by a ball at the Marlborough Rooms at the close of the entertainment.

Poverty-stricken Miners. Reading, Pa., Feb. 5.—The shutting down of so many furnaces for want of coal has caused misery in an unexpected quarter. There being no demand for coal, many of the iron ore mines along the East Pennsylvania Railroad have closed down. The miners, who have large families, received but 25 to 30 cents per day and, consequently, even while working in all the most abject poverty. About thirty of them with their families have been compelled to seek admittance to the Borks and Lehigh poor houses until work is resumed.

In Brief, and to the Point. Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It really runs out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cooking, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be heeded, the American people a nation of dyspepsia.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

But Green's August Flower, without health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Mr. Sue Dyer, of Dexter, Me., for several years was troubled with serious conditions in her stomach and sometimes in her throat. She became convinced that she had some sort of a living creature in her stomach, and induced a physician to give her medicine to destroy it. A local newspaper says that after she took the medicine the movements of the creature became so violent that they threw her into convulsions that lasted several hours. A few days afterward she was relieved of a snake 2 1/2 inches long. It is feared that Mrs. Dyer will not recover.

There has been a decrease in stealing among the bad negroes of the "Cotton Belt," since a recent occurrence of a planter killed a hog and left them hanging outdoors all night. The temptation was more than a neighbor, a colored man, could resist; he discovered a big hog, and stepping to retrieve the stick which it ran through its hind legs, and by which it hung. As he was climbing a fence the hog slipped and the stick caught in its mouth, which was broken by the weight, and the dead hog and the dead negro were found together next morning.

Have You a Humor of Skin or Blood?

IF SO, THE CUTICURA REMEDIES WILL CURE YOU.

I was indeed, after all other remedies had failed, cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES on my two four years of age, who had running sores from the head down to the feet. The CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP were all that I used. Two days after their use we could see a change for the better, and in six weeks the child was perfectly well.

I was then induced to try them further, as my wife had what we termed dry scale letter, or eczema, on the forehead, and I tried everything that I could get hold of, and asked the advice of the most eminent of the profession, but all in vain. It was all over her body and all over her head and face, as used but one bottle of CUTICURA SOAP, two boxes of the CUTICURA, and two boxes of CUTICURA SOAP, and in one week from the time she began their use, I could see a change for the better. It is now nearly one year since she stopped using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and there is no return. I pronounce her entirely cured. No one, only those who have tried them, and those who are constantly about diseased patients, can realize the torture in which they are placed.

I have recommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES to all whom I have met that were in any way afflicted with the skin. One man to whom I recommended them, I saw after over twelve years, and in that time he spent nearly five hundred dollars to be cured, but nothing helped, and now he uses the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and several boxes of CUTICURA SOAP, and several boxes of CUTICURA SOAP, and in one week from the time she began their use, I could see a change for the better. It is now nearly one year since she stopped using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and there is no return. I pronounce her entirely cured. No one, only those who have tried them, and those who are constantly about diseased patients, can realize the torture in which they are placed.

I take pleasure in sending this to you, trusting that it may prove a blessing to you and to the suffering. DR. J. C. MELLOR, Kimball, Brule Co., Dakota.
