Assisted Immigration. From a remark dropped by His Excellency the Governor in reply to the address presented by the Committee of Agriculturists from Cowichan District, we are given to understand that a proposition for the establishment of a system of assisted immigration from the old country will be laid by the Government at an early day before the Legislative Council for action. The proposition will be worthy the earnest attention of the people of both sections, inasmuch as all are agreed that what we now want to make us great and prosperous is population. The continual cry has been for many months that, with vast mineral res sources, inexhaustible forests, rich tracts of farming land, and illimitable fisheries-with an unequalled climate, and every blessing that Nature can bestow with a lavish hand upon a country, we have not only failed to keep pace with other colonies in the march of progress, but have fallen far behind the most insignificant dependency of the British Crown in everything that makes a country. Twice within a decade have we had within our grasp thousands of immigrants who needed but slight encouragement to induce them to cast their lots in this favored land; and twice have we seen them flit away with hardly an effort made to retain them in our midst by either Government or people. Instead of the newly arrived immigrants being met at the threshhold with kind words of encouragement, and advice, and proffers of assistance, they have too often been treated with a coldness and indifference that both discouraged and stunned them. To have left comfortable but humble homes in the old country, and traveled many weary miles to reach the land of promise, to be met on the very wharf with coldness from those whose interest and duty it was to see that a kind welcome was extended to the immigrants instead, was most disheartening. No other Colony is more dependent for success upon the settlement of its lands and the development of its resources than this, and in no other Colony, we will venture to say, has an equal amount of apathy and indifference been shown,

WEEKLY COLONIST AND dropped their "sea-legs," travel to the other side of the line. We bear lieve in assisting immigration to a moderate and reasonable extent; but we do not want to see the scenes of the past nine years reenacted, nor do we wish to see the Colony afflicted with the same evils that have befallen the Australian Colony of Queensland, into which thousands of English men, women and children were carried but to starve and die. We hope that Government will lay an immigration scheme before the Council at an early day; but we also hope that it will not propose to expend all the monies in paying for passages to the Colony, and retain no funds wherewith to assist the immigrants upon their ar-

Dr. Helmcken.

In response to the request of many electors, Dr Helmcken has consented to stand in District No. 1 as a candidate for the Legislative Council. The request and reply appear this morning. Of all the gentlemen thus far proposed for the Council, we know of none so worthy of the highs est honor the electors can confer upon a fellow citizen, and none more compotent to fulfil the duties of the position, than Dr Helmcken. For nine years the Doctor was a member of the Legislative Assembly of Vancouver Island, and during the whole of that period discharged the duties of Speaker with ability, honesty, and impartiality. Dr Helmcken requires no eulogy-his past services speak for themselves; and his honesty, amiability, integrity, and unwearying devotion to the popular cause, have won for him the respect and attach, ment of a grateful constituency, and of the Islanders at large. We predict the return of the Doctor without

RE STEAMSHIP OR VESSEL "FLY."

Monday, December 10th, Cause of Possession-John Dougal jr., and James Dougal, plaintiffs claim possession of the steamer Fly, formerly known as the Cariboo, by reason of being the registered wners of a majority of the shares.

John Mackenzie appears to defend as mortgagee of 60-64th shares alleged to be mortgaged to him by Thomas Dougal. The Attorney General and Mr Alston, instructed by Pearkes & Green for plaintiffs. Mr McCreight, instructed by Mr Bishop for

The plaintiffs by their affidavits allege that they are the owners of 42 shares, and Thomas Dougal of the remaining 22 shares, and the defendant claims to be mortgagee of the whole ship under a mortgage of the Cariboo given by Thomas Dougal; the plain tiffs, allege that Thomas had no right whatever to mortgage the vessel, and that he was not the sole owner of the vessel. The Cariboo was purchased in 1864 by Thomas and George Dougal, and out of her remains a new steamer was built which has been registered under the name of the Fly the registered owners being John Dougal jr., 30.64th, James Dougal 12.64th, and Thomas Dougal 22-64th.

The Act on Petition was read by Mr Alston, and the answer by Mr McCreight. Mr Alston then read the rejoinder and the affidavits in support of the plaintiffs case and Mr McCreight read the affidavits in support of the defendant's case.

This occupied the Court all day and at 4:30 p. m., the Court rose and adjourned till noon

TUESDAY, Dec., 11th. Cause of Possession-The Attorney General yesterday at noon resumed his address on behalf of the proponents.

Mr McCreight was heard in reply, and the cause was adjourned till Saturday.

FROM THE MAINLAND-The steamer Enters prise arrived yesterday afternoon from New Westminster with 92 passengers, including His Honor Judge Begbie, Messrs. Ball, Crease, Franks, Brew, Saunders, Dr. Jones, Dewdney, Bushby, Ker, Capt. Holmes, Ensign Wolfenden, Ensign Ladner, Connell, Wolsey, Westgarth, Capt. Cooper, Claudet; Hitchcock, Spence, Armstrong, Capt. Irving, McCrea, Holbrook, Robson, Webster, Orr, Oppenhaimer, Capt Butler, Pitfield, Holmes, Pooley, Nagie, Fisher, Clute, Clarkson, Bruckman, and a number of ladies and gentlemen for the Governor's ball, whom the Hudson Bay Company with characteristic liberality, convey free of charge. The party had a merry time on board, and came alongside the wharf sing ing the national anthem in fine style. Our exchanges contain no upecountry news, From Mr Green, a miner just arrived from Cariboo, we learn that the weather was still very mild and open when he left, enabling claims to work, and the results of mining operations generally were very satisfactory for this season of the year. Grouse Creek was proving itself richer and richer. The roads down were in fair order. The New Westminster Dramatic Club, assisted by the Orpheus Glee Club, gave a performance on Saturday evening for the benefit of the Hyack Band, which passed off successfully.

The RE-CALCITRANT MEMBERS .- The City Council last night, owing to the vagaries of two of its members wasted a great deal of valuable time on matters of little or no value at all. Councillors should bear in mind that they are a representative body elected to discharge public business with all due despatch instead of frittering away time, consuming fuel and rent, putting the city to additional expense to satisfy private pique or to gratify unworthy and ill-founded spleen. Councillor Gibbs very properly called the councillors in question to account for their conduct, and we hope we have seen the last of such unbecoming exhibitions.

Political. -Dr Helmcken yesterday accepted a numerously and respectably signed address requesting him to stand for the city of Victoria. The Doctor's return is sure. Mr Holbrook of the sister capital we understand has also received a requisition to stand for this city. Mr Holbrook is well known on both sides of the water, and his popularity is indisputable. He will make a formidable opponent to the other candidate for the his pluck in coming forward. Electors! vote for good men and true.

ELECTORS, BEWARE of ARTFUL DODGERS! A scheme is on foot to send improper men to the Council. To effect this disgraceful end, men are to be sent through the city and districts to advise electors not to pay any attention to the proclamation on account of its manifest unfairness. By this course, it is hoped, but few people will come to the hustings, and the plotters have it arranged to run in one of this charming friends without a contest. Look to it that you are no tgulled by this pack of "artful dodgers."

Henry Grimshaw, the jockey who rode the celebrated French horsh Gladiateur in his nor have the people any objection, to this great races, was killed a few days ago by the overturning of his dog-cart, while taking a rapid drive in the might to connect with a railway train, and was buried, the London States, but to be taken ingloriously at a News says, on the Cesarewich day, at Covermouthful in time of war, is too humiliaiing ham churchyard, just under Middleham Moor. Bob Johnson, Ben Smith, "old John Osborne" George Abdale, and other northern trainers and jockeys, rest there; and the spot is more save in the disordered brain of the writer, especially marked by the fact that, owing to the peculiar nature of the ground, you may be in the churchyard and not see the church or even hear the bell. The News gives this interesting account:

As a boy he was, we believe, engaged in a cotton manufactory at Manchester, where quest of numerous commercial friends, Mr many good jockeys have been "raised;" but Southgate will offer himself as a candidate he preferred horses to "self-acting mules," lad, and then light-weight to his future father-in-law, John Osborne, he made his name (to adopt poor John Sayer's expression) rattle through all London and the Continent as well, when he became the steersman of propriety of not selecting representatives. ness had been a considerable drawback to A collection will be taken up to defray him; and in the Derby he would never have seen Christmas Carol stealing away on the low side, if a friendly jockey, who "stood the Frenchman," had not roared to him to send his horse out, which he did instantly took place last evening after the Council with an emphasis of stride such as the Grand

He took more heed in the Leger (which he remarks and all causes of difference were rode to the dismay of some of his backers, with a large rag on one finger,) and "smoothed" them all, when he was fairly in the straight running. He was a clever, honest jockey, and able to ride 7 st. 7 lb. to the At one time he used to back his brother against Fordham for the largest number of winning mounts; and it was as much as his friends could do to persuade him not to invade the Jockey Club synod when Jemmy was carpeted for the Prodigal business, as "poor Jemmy won't be able to say a word for himself to those swells." His practice was not a very large one, as many owners felt dubious respecting his sight; and his third, on Buckstone for the Derby, was a singularly unpleasant mount, as the saddle slipped right back, and he "finished on his tail." NEWSPAPERS-It is unreasonable to expect more temperate climate. The enclosed bill that the public press will always publish of fare will enable your readers to form some only such things as we, individually, shall like. A person of strictly religious habits and tastes will be offended if he sees in a newspaper the account of a prize fight, or of omething obscene and sinful. He forgets that the newspaper is but the reflection of the world at large; and if he is so fastidious, he should retire altogether from life, for in a single street he will find, at any given hour of the day, what will offend almost all his senses. He need not read what he considers to be objectionable; in like manner, he need not eat at a table d'hote any highly-seasoned dish. He may not like venison and game, high. Let him order something to his taste -a veal cutlet without sauce. But my Lady Godiva may like a few of the in-delicacies of the season, and Lord Coventry may have stomach for anything. A newspaper would have few readers were its dishes of news to consist solely of pious pastry and flimsy puffs. While the tone of a newspaper is moral, the public cannot complain. The music of an organ may be of the purest character, though the organ itself, and the organgrinder likewise, may sometimes show sympa toms of the mud and filth that are picked up by or scattered upon them throughout the ramblings of the day. THE DOG DOCTOR'S SECRET .- Good food dainties and want of exercise are the destruction of parlor dogs. They become fat with increasing age, and contract various diseases. At last the day comes when a dose of prussic acid must finish the business, or that medical practitioners must be called in who will by a severe regimen restore the dog's health and appetite. An ex kennel man in our neighborhood made a very comfortable income by this peculiar line of practice. He divulged the secret of his system a few days since to Times, under date of November 8th, says: the estimable clergyman of the parish. "I 'We all remember those days of anxiety in the always tied 'em," said this canine Abernethy, " to a crab-tree at the end of my garden for a week, and gave 'em nothing but water. feated Kaiser, hesitated as to the course he When I fetched 'em from their mistresses they refused to eat what I should have been when, determining for neutrality, he promoted the speedy restoration of peace, instead would eat what I couldn't have touched. I've had some dogs twice or even three times a year, but I always cured 'em at last. One of them was as good as three pounds a year to me. I was terribly fond of him, but he pever took to me; and when he saw me coming for him to bring down his fat, he would wad die away, and howl enough to wake the dead. DOUBTFUL GREATNESS .- Kneller had a ephew, a Guinea trader, who one day called to pay him a visit when the poet Pope was there. "Nephew," said the painter, vou have the honor of seeing the two greatest men in the world." The honest dealer in human flesh, looking at them in the light of so much marketable commodity, and seeing that neither was of imposing dimensions, said, "I don't know what you mean by great; but I think very little of your looks. I have often bought a man much better than both of you put together, all muscles and bones, for 10 guineas," Hollowar's Pills -Nervous Debility .- Persons con-Holloway's Pills—Nervous Debility.—Persons constitutionally weak are much depressed by changeable weather, that the ordinary offices of life become a labor, the necessity of thinking a toil. The nervous system is unhinged, and each day brings to such pitiable objects nothing but a succession of real or fancied miseries. To escape from such torments it is only necessary to take Holloway's Pills, which purify and strengthen a debilitated, shaken constitution more than any other medicine in the world. They cleanse the bedy from all impurities, gives tone to the stomach, regularity to the brain, activity to the kidneys, bladder and bowels. They remove dejection of spirits and bodily lassitude, and restore to the mind decision and cheerfulness.
