

v-Making Tools,

ER THAN EVER

LD., AMLOOPS.

they had previouely the troops, but the sition and put the ne loss of 280 killed en killed and wound ported that the insurby General Maceo. d that they were un abi alone, and that the engagement. In rom Veguita, the in et five killed and had n the side of the four soldiers were prevails in the martogether inadequate has been a big de ats during the past weather, the same limited character Fruite are probably in the market, and new variety in the apple, which, howan almost fabulous er has, it is claimed op, but the effect materially, as great erican side make pr quence of the warm civity in the grain les steady. quotations :

MARKETS. arian) per bbl...$ 6.00 angarian) 6.00 30.00@35.00 (10@32.50 28.00@30.00 25 00@30 00 10@15 15@18 .15@16 .15@18 16@20 50@75 6@06 a, per box rave her Castoria. cried for Castoria chung to Castoria. gave them Castoria

-General Superinin his private car for ne will meet Vicef the C. P. R. and Pacific coast on ar

THE SITUATION.

Official Statements to be Made in Parliament To day-The Tension Relaxing.

Developments-Business of Parliament Almost Completed.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

and Lady Aberdeen arrived here this morn- both houses should be taken into the confiing. During the day the Premier had a dence of the government,' long conference with him and in the afterman is quite correct as to the parliamentary noon the three French ministers talked over and constitutional practise in questions of the situation with his Excellency. With this kind. I am not, I am sorry to say, in out doubt the desire of his Excellency is to a position to relieve the tension of the hon. bring about an amicable settlement of the but I promise him that I shall be enabled to situation, but so far without success.

Mr. Joneas to-day gave Mr. Foster notice to morrow. of a motion of want of confidence on going into supply if the breach is not healed in

At the opening of the house this afternoon Hon. Mr. Laurier said: "I now renew the question which I put last evening with tration. regard to the resignation of certain members of the administration."

Hon. Mr. Foster—"All I can say is this:

That I have not any authority from His Excellency the Governor-General to make any statement other than this, that no resignations have yet been received by him.'

of the administration had placed their resignations in the hands of His Excellency or not. There is, he continued, no doubt whatever that we are in the midst of a ministerial crisis. The Governor-General is here. His Excellency has cancelled his trip which aince yesterday, the most noteworthy of had been announced some weeks in advance, which was one this morning between the This in itself will show the house that there is a crisis and, moreover, there are two seats | Hon. Mr. Ouimet, Sir Adolphe Caron and vacant, and there were two seats vacant yes. Hon. Mr. Angers have so far receded from terday. Though the honorable gentlemen the position which they took yesterday who occupied these seats may not have officially handed their resignations to His Excellency, it is quite evident that they are no longer in harmony with their colleagues, the mere introduction of remedial leg-otherwise they would be in their places to discharge their share of the government business. There is another fact. Another was the offer which they made to Sir Macgentleman who occupied a place in the ad ministration and who sat in the other house, has not been in his seat yesterday or to-day. Under such circumstances it would be simply trifling with the house for Mr. Foster to say that parliament is not in the presence

Under the federal system of government it has been the unwritten law of all administrations that all the provinces, as far as practicable, should be represented in the the meeting, decided not to do anything cabinet. No administration would dare to until to-morrow, thereby showing that he consent to discharge business unless at any was acting in concert with the three French rate all the great provinces, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia were tion of want of confidence this after con, properly represented in the cabinet, and there would have been a solid Conservative hen it is known that at the present time three ministers who represent one province are out of the cabinet-practically out of dare to risk another adverse vote. the cabinet he repeated—not only were they in the midst of a great political crisis, but they were confronted with a position unprecedented in the history of Cansition unprecedent and the second control of the house at three o'clock had the house at the second control of the house at three o'clock had the house at three o'clock had the house at the ho the Dominion, not being represented in the cabinet. (Opposition cheers.) The government has no right to ask par-liament for a single penny for the adminis-tration of government, and he conceived there was nothing else to do but to adjourn this house and to give the government an opportunity of either filling the vacancies that exist or being prepared to advise His Excellency as to the condition that exists. He therefore moved that the house do now adjourn. (Opposition cheers.)

Hon. Mr. Foster was received with loud cheers by the supporters of the government. He said: "Mr. Laurier has closely followed his opening remark with the statement that to-day witnessed a proceeding unprecedented or a state of things unprecedented in the history of this country. I am quite willing to admit with him that this phrase is well chosen, although I would apply it in a different way from the application in which he evidently meant it should be made. It was a thing unprecedented in the parliamentary history Majesty's opposition should on the strength of mere rumor (derisive laughter from the opposition), newspaper rumor or common rumor, come to the conclusion that in the first place any part of this country, any one of its provinces, was unrepresented in the government, and that even if it were unrepresented, so long as there was a government that held the confidence of the house and had its majority, it therefore could not carry on the affairs of govern-

"My hon. friend has nothing better than rumor on which to go on. He asked me fo authentic information, and he received the whole modicum of authentic information that I could give and he should have rested satisfied. He should have restrained his ardent impetuosity to force the position. He should have waited in a statesmanlike calm manner-(opposition laughter)-until he learned the truth from authoritative sources in a full and explicit statement to the house, and then have taken whatever action seemed to him best in the premises.

"But, sir, he chose another position, an in doing that made a grave charge and followed it up by a serious motion, and on a mere rumor he has put himself in the position of taking a stand which is entirely precedented in the parliamentary history of Canada. Sir, he leaped to the conclusion from rumor-from newspaper rumorthat because there were vacant seats in the ministerial benches that therefore the members who formerly were in the seats and whom he would like to see there now, that those members are no longer members of the government-no longer union or harmony with the government, and he leaped from that conclusion to the still broader conclusion that one of the provinces of the Dominion was totally unrepresented, and that, therefore, the house could not proceed with business. "He was wrong in both. He had not the slightest foundation or authority for taking the position he did, and could only have taken that position upon an authoritative statement made on the consent of the Gov ernor. General to the house. In due time I shall be able to make an authoritative statement to the house, and when I make that it will be open for my hon. friend-possessing his soul in patience for the meantime—it will be open for him to accept the situation as he so often had to do on previous occa-

(Cheers and laughter.) Hon. Mr. Mills supported Mr. Laurier after which Sir Hector Langevin and Mr. Dupont spoke. The two latter said pending the official announcement of the govern-ment they could not vote with Mr. Laurier. was the only Conservative who voted with the tension of opinion on an important A French Caucus Adjourns Awaiting question, outside rumors regarding which are somewhat confirmed by an empty chair. I think parliament is entitled to some explanation under the circumstances. It is relieve him of all anxiety as to the matter

In the House of Commons Hon. Mr. Laurier said: I would ask the Minister of Finance whether he can give any information to day with regard to the resignations of three prominent members of the adminis-

Hon. Mr. Foster-I think I will have to ask my hon. friend to cultivate the virtue of patience for a little while longer. Tomorrow when the House assembles I shall make a positive statement with reference to the matter.

Hon. Mr. Laurier-My hon. friend has Hon. Mr. Laurier hardly believed that asked me so often to cultivate that virtue the statement just made would be satisfactory to the house—whether certain members (laughter) As evidence of it I will wait

Premier and the three dissident ministers. swer to morrow, whereupon, it is reported, the ministers consented to wait.

The nature of the conference was carried to the French Canadian caucus which met in Mr. Joness' room in the parliament buildphalanx against him. The opposition leader, after his fiasco of yesterday, did not

A report current during the morning that sition unprecedented in the history of Can-ada, where a government would undertake to go on and earry on the business of the country—one great province, the second in isters were again vacant, but it seems oo be certain they will be in their places to-morrow, whether reconciled to their colleagues or not. Hon. Mr. Ouimet was within the precincts of the house during the afternoon, transacting business with his deputy, but on leaving he never looked the way of the

The business on the order paper of the House is practically completed, about all that is left being the passage of twenty-five or thirty items in supply.

Several members had left for good, have returned within the last day or two.

The house was engaged all day discussing the customs bill. Mr. McLean's proposi tion for a two-cent passenger rate on railways was rejected by 113 to 30

The French treaty passed the Senate by 42 to 5. The Lake Manitoba railway bill was thrown out again by the railway committee this morning by 34 to 33.

FRANCE AND MADAGASCAR.

WASHINGTON, July 9 .- Documents re ceived here by public men, including many members of congress, indicate that strong ressure will probably be brought to bear to induce the United States to interfere to dispute between France and the native government of Madagascar. These papers originate in Madagascar and the most re-cent of them bears the date of May 12 postmark, showing that they have been forwarded from the country under cover to sethe risk of much time. They are printed arguments intended to show that the United participate, then this country should act inependently in the matter. proceeds on the ground that the question involved is the right of France to exercise a otectorate over Madagascar.

GLADSTONE'S MESSAGE.

London, July 9 -The Westminster Ga zette this afternoon publishes the following message from Mr. Gladstone addressed to the Liberals of London: "HAWARDEN, July 15 -Above every other purpose vindicate the rights of the House of Commons as the organ of the nation and establish the honor of England as well as consolidate the strength of the empire by conceding the just constitutional aims of Ireland. (Signed) W. E GLADSTONE."

DROUGHT IN ONTARIO.

TORONTO, July 9 .- Alarming reports of the severity of the drought and the loss occasioned thereby have come in from all parts of Ontario. The creeks, wells and water holes have dried up and in many cases farmers have to go miles for water. There is no feed for the stock and the farmers are cutting down trees for their beasts to browse on. A Chesley farmer went Insane through his losses, and ruin stares thousands in the face. Merchants in various towns refuse to buy goods from commercial travellers comes. To add to the farmers until rain misery, the grasshoppers have appeared and threaten the remains of those crops which irought has spared.

ment they could not vote with Mr. Laurier.

The House divided, Mr. Laurier's motion being lost by 111 to 72. Mr. Lepine

Hall's Hair Renewer is pronounced the best preparation made for thickening the growth of the hair and restoring that which is grey to its original color.

HENLEY REGATTA.

The American Crew Went All to minimum required for the coxswain. Pieces Through Supposed Over Training.

OTTAWA, July 9.—The Governor General and our parliament when a crisis arises that both houses should be taken into the configuration of Great Britain was a disappointment to all concerned for the one race in which the good the three French ministers talked over their places; then when the umpire asked if the two crews were ready, Cornell answered promptly "yes," and, the umpire claims, the Leanders did the same. This the Leanders did the same. This the Leanders deny. In any case the umpire gave the word "go," and the Cornell crew shot away, but only half the Leander crew started, and their stroke protested that they started, and their stroke protested that they are not ready." The umpire made no reply and the launch steamed ahead after the Cornell crew with Coxswain F. G. Begg in a terrible rage, pulled their boat towards the umpire's launch, and Begg said, "I told you we were not ready." The umpire made no reply and the launch steamed ahead after the Cornell crew with Coxswain F. G. Begg in recover it. By this time Trinity Hall was seven or eight lengths ahead, rowing a long even stroke.

Passing the mile past in 5 minutes 32 seconds, Fennel fell forward and seemed about to faint. He also droward his foor started, and their stroke protested that they were not ready. In a umpire made no reply and the launch steamed ahead after the Cornell crew, who were now far down the course the course. The Leanders, until the umand awarded the Americans the race. pire's launch passed away out of shouting for the Challenge cup:

First heat—Trinity Hall, Cambridge, beat the London rowing club easily by four lengths in 7 minutes 56 seconds. Second heat - Eton College beat the

They came to England to meet the strongest crew here and should therefore try conclusions with the Leanders." The Board of Stewards this evening issued the following statement : "The committee, while deeply regretting the unfortunate un-derstanding at the start of the Cornell and Leander heat, feel that they must abide by the law of boat racing." "They are not sportsmen," said a member of the Leander crew, "and that is why Yale and Harvard won't row them. They are not wanted in England again; the only satisfaction is that they will get a good licksame tenor. The Cornell men get all the and won.

mained at the post thinking that Cornell would come back or be sent back. The latter course was not adopted by the umpire owing, it is said, to the international character of the racing.

Mr. Francis, the Cornell manager, said in regard to the matter: "Our boys have done ust right. It must be remembered that the Leanders is not the only crew we have to meet. Ever since we have been here we have been unfairly treated by the British press."

"Umpire Frank William, after the meeting of the stewards this evening, said to a representative of the Associated Press: "I could not do differently than send Cornell along. I myself and Mr. Goldie, my assistant, both saw that the crews were ready. I gave the word 'go,' and both seemed h start. Then came calls from the Leanders, to induce the United States to interfere to No, we are not ready. Had I ordered the Cornell crew back they might say that because they were ahead at the start the English umpire recalled them to favor their opponente. This version of the occurrence can be con-They come to Washington under an English firmed by the correspondent of the Associated Press, who witnessed the race from the umpire's boat. The umpire observed and won by about two feet in 8 minutes cure their delivery in America, though at the following form in starting in all the crews. Standing in the bow of the lannch he said : "Gentlemen, this is a race for ates and Great Britain should interfere (here stating the event). I shall ask 'Are jointly, but that if Great Britain declines to you ready?' and then count '1, 2, To-day when the Cornells and The argument Leanders were in position the umpire said to the Leanders and Cornell, "Are you ready?" the Cornell coxswain replied, "Ready," the Leanders said "Ready." Then the umpire said "Go." Calls came from the Leander boat, "No, we are not Part of the Leander crew started ready. to pull and the others held back. Both boats were pointed directly up the course and both were apparently alert for the signal. The feeling runs very high over the matter and the Britishers are eagerly following the Leanders trail.

HENLEY, July 9 .- The weather this morning was warm and cloudy. The wind blew from the Bucks shore, giving the crews there a great advantage. The Cornells rowing club in the race for the Steward's Thames Challenge Cup—Third heat, the base the Bucks shore in their race with the rose early this morning and, after a light breakfast, which was preceded by a good rub down, arrived at the boat house at 9:20 stroke of the Argonaut crew, said : "The Cornell boys are coming out all right. Their quick, short stroke is to be their favorite at the start, which is everything over this course.

The scene was one of unusual animation, ven for Henley-on-Thames. In the first heat for the grand challenge oup at noon Trinity Hall rowing club, Cam bridge, beat the London rowing club eight easily by four lengths in 7 minutes 36 second. A head wind was blowing and prevented making fast time. Trinity Hall had the Bucks, or the most favorable shore of OTTAWA, July 10—In the Senate this afternoon Hon. Mr. Scott said: "Before the orders of the day are called I would like to ask the Premier if he is able now to relieve Cup.

Trinity Hall Defeats Cornell in Fourth Heat for the Grand Challenge Cup.

Trinity Hall Defeats Cornell in Fourth Heat for the Grand Challenge Cup.

Trinity Hall Defeats Cornell in Fourth F. W. Freeborn, '97, No. 4, 171 lbs; T. Fennell, jr., No. 5, 173 lbs.; George P. Dyer, '95, No. 6, 161 lbs; C. A. Louisa, '97, No. 7, 160 lbs.; Tom Hall, stroke, 174 lbs; F. D. Colson. To these weights were added the Cornell runners began to encourage the American great and under this stimples.

tered their boat as follows: C. W. N. Graham, bow, 140 lbs.; J. A. Ford, No. 2, 166 lbs.; S. Graham, No. 3, 169 lbs.; F. J.

row over for the former. While the crews were getting into position there hands and streamers on their umbrellas and was considerable confusion owing to sticks prepared to encourage the Cornell latter instantly recovered, but as Hager the presence near the starting line of crew. The Leanders at the word started, promptly when the word was given, shot The following is a summary of the racing distance, continued to shout wildly, "We were not ready. Why did you so serve us?" But the umpire did not look at them and increased the speed of his launch. In passing the end of Regatta Island, F. D. Colson, Cornell coxswain, half turned and held up Thames rowing club easily in 7 minutes 34½ his hand towards the umpire's launch. their boat house some time later, F. H.
Thompson said to a reporter of the Associated Press: "It was the struggle of our lives, and a regular see-saw all the way over the course. If anything was the matter it was our boat, which is hardly strong enough for the hard work given it. One does not want many such races in order to physically injure himself. I thought sure we had won and you can imagine my disappointment when I opinion that Cornell should again meet the Leanders. C. H. Munz, for instance, said: stand amid great excitement and loud exclamations from all sides, but he was not in any way dismayed as he said, "The race is Cornell's, Leander did not start." The Corcornell's, Leander did not start." The Cornell crew got a very good reception as they passed the winning post in great style, but there was seme "booing" mingled with English cheers and Cornell yells. The Cornell crew approached their boat house looking as if they had been defeated, and their it friends who were waiting for them were almost afraid of the result of the race. Finally a venturesome reporter put the questions. Finally a venturesome reporter put the question to the crew asking them if Cornell was victorious, and three or four of the Cornell ing to morrow."

The general talk of the crew is of the ed over the course in 8 minutes 11 seconds, same tenor. The Cornell men get all the blame for the umpire's decision.

The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says that the Leanders' stroke and coxswain both cision of the umpire in allowing the Cornell crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the former crew to row over the course when the crew to row over the crew had announced that they were not ready to start.

The Grand Challenge cup was first competed for in 1839. The Leander rowing club, composed mainly of ex-Oxford and Cambridge men, are holders of this trophy, and the Leander boat club hold the record for this race, which is 6 minutes 51 seconds, made in 1891 over the Henley course.

THE STEWARDS' CUP. The crew of the London rowing club and the Argonaut rowing club, of Toronto, started in the first heat for the Stewards' challenge cup for fours at 4 p.m. The Canadians were the first away, R. G. Munz setting the pace at 43 to the minute, which placed them a length ahead. But at the half-mile post the London crew had gained on the crew from Toronto and they raced almost nose and nose down to the mile post, which was passed at 4:13:58, rowing 46 strokes to the minute. The Argonauts gained a slight advantage, but the pace told and F. H. Thompson splashed badly. The two boats from that time continued to race on about even terms, amid great excitement. until within a few feet of the finish, when the London crew put on a splendid spurt

In the first heat for the silver goblet the Thames crew beat the Lady Margaret, Cambridge, and in the second heat the London rowing club beat the New College, Oxford. In the first heat for the Thames challenge cup, St. John's College, Oxford, boat club beat the eight of the Thames rowing club by a length and a half in 7 minutes 57 seconds. In the first heat for the visitors' challenge oup the Trinity Hall Cambridge crew bea the four of Caius College, Cambridge. In the second heat for the Thames challenge cup the crew of the Nereus boat club of Amsterdam beat the crew of the Lady Margaret (St. John's College, Cambridge), In the first heat for the diamond sculls Guy Nickells rowed over the course, his brother Vivian having scratched. whom the heat was taken.

Henley-on-Thames, July 10.—The day in good spirits. C. H. Munz, captain and opened hot and clear with the wind higher eight. than yesterday. The Cornell crew seemed well and in the best of spirits. They did not go to the boat house before the race. Courtney was again ill last night and is under the care of a doctor, who says he is suffering from a chill.

As the crew of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, paddled into position to meet Cornell in the fourth heat of the trial race for the Grand Challenge cup, the Englishmen met with a reusing reception. Their average weight was 165 pounds and their names were: T.B. the course.

In the second heat for the grand challenge cup, the Eton Cellege crew beat the eight of the Thames rowing club.

The Cornell crew entered their boat at the following weights: M. W. Roe, '96, bow, 169 lbs.; H. O. Spellman, '97, No. 2. in taking up position on the Berkshire side. 162 lbs.; E. C. Hager, '95, No. 3, 166 lbs.; The word "go" was given at 12:32 p.m. Cornell first caught the water and started The "Times" Scathingly Criticizes three pounds dead weight to make up the minimum required for the coxswain.

Cornell, which had dropped to 38, spurted Armed Peace in San Salvador—France, and increased their lead to a length. Trinity was then splashing slightly.

Cornell made a half mile in 2 minutes 26 concerned for the one race in which the greatest interest centred, that between Cornell and the Leander boat club, composed of ex-Oxford and Cambridge carsmen, in the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. The members of the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. The members of the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. The members of the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. The members of the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. The members of the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. The members of the coxeminated that there were fully 500 Americans present. orew were so rattled that they rowed like a lot of school boys, and Hager, No. 3, in the American boat, dropped his oar and fell back into the arms of No. 2, Spellman. The did not try to recover himself Colson, the a number of boats which seriously interfered with Leanders consequently the latters were somewhat slow in reaching their places: then when the umpire asked his oar and seemed to try to row, but no sooner had the crew commenced pulling, seconds, Fennel fell forward and seemed bitration. about to faint. He also dropped his car and rubbed his forehead. The shouts of Cornell men were running along the bank, claims against the government of Nicafrantically endeavoring to encourage the ragua.

orew. Fennell recovered and tried to A sor seconds.

Third heat—Cornell rowed over the course in 8 minutes 11 seconds.

The Leanders did not start.

The Leanders lodged a protest against the umpire, but the board of stewards at a meeting to-night decided that the umpire.

Thames rowing club easily in / minutes 542 his hand towards the umpire's launch. But the umpire waved them on and Colson, with a satisfied look, quickly resumed his position, gave a sharp order to the crew, who had relaxed the Upon reaching the half-mile post the decided that the umpire waved them on and Colson, with a satisfied look, quickly resumed his position, gave a sharp order to the crew, who had relaxed the Upon reaching the half-mile post the and almost alone seemed unable to poposite side of the boat seemed unable to steady the boat. Hall, the Canadian from Washington, Brant Co., Ont., who was tremendous pace at which they started.

Upon reaching the half-mile post the crowds began to thicken and the Cornell. from Washington, Brant Co., Ont., who was from the country. There is a strict press the umpire, but the board of stewards at a meeting to-night decided that the umpire was within his rights and that his ruling could not be reversed.

In the Steward's challenge cup so closed was the finish that the reports had it that the Canadians had won. When seen at their boat house some time later, F. H.

Thompson said to a reporter of the Associ-self. I thought sure we had won and you can imagine my disappointment when I heard the announcement that our rivals were the victors. Our opponents were the on the way to the finish line the excitement on the way to the finish line the excitement on the way to the finish line the excitement of the universal of est companions splashed water in his face. He soon recovered, and the Cornell crew slowly paddled to their boat-house, which was situated about a quarter of a mile beyond the finish. Tears stood in their eyes as they stepped ashore, and they were so exhausted they could scarcely lift their boat from the water. The general opinion is that the Cornell crew were hopelessly over-trained, and there was no climate or malaria about it.

Colson, who acted as spokesman for the Cornell crew, said : "We had a hard race, and were fairly and squarely beaten." "Has your crew been over-trained?"

Colson was asked.
"Mr. Francis' orders are that there The St. James Gazette says the Leander should be no talk on that subject," was the office) has intimated that a portion, prob-In addition to their American symps expressed themselves as sorry that the other half may come from Germany. Americans were defeated. The following are the expressions which come of the Cornell crew made after dress-F. W. Freeborn—The Englishmen are the etter men.

George H. Dyer-1 think we have nothing o be ashamed of. Tom Hall-I am not sorry we came. C. A. Louis-It's a waste of time to talk bout defeat. Fennell, it is said, was ill when he tered the race to-day, suffering from valvu-lar affection of the heart, which caused a big lump in his left side. According to his version, he caught a crab when the Cornell boat was passing the half-mile post and his oar struck him a tremendous blow on the left side, the shock seeming to paralyse his legs. He was able to use his arms but could not recover with the rest. The great could not recover with the rest. The great parliament were occupied by subsidized exertion he was making caused him to faint patriots." It also asks whether Mr. Ellis n Freeborn's arms and the terrible struggle he rest of the crew were obliged to make did them all up one after another. Fennell ried again and again to do his part, but constitutional privileges by the aid of votes were all looking like death. About the stand was a crowd of Leander men, one of whom said, "I suppose you lost on account of the hard race you had yesterday." Another remarked " Of course you are coming again in '96." The Cornell men made no reply. In the third heat for the Stewards' chal lenge cup the Thames Rowing Club four easily beat the Leanders' four by eight

The following is a summary of the heats rowed to-day:
Grand Challenge Cup—Fourth heat Trinity Hall, Cambridge, beat Cornell by eight lengths; time, 7 minutes 15 seconds. Fifth heat, New College, Oxford, beat

Stewards Challenge Cup-Second heat, In the second heat F. H. Thompson, of Toronto, who was much exhausted after the Oxford. Third heat, Thames Rowing Club

Societe d' Encouragement au Sport Nautique. Fourth heat, the Molesly crew beat the London Rowing Club. Fifth John's College, Oxford, beat the Auglican

The Diamond Sculls-Fourth heat, Guy Nickalls, London Rowing Club, beat E. A. Thompson, Toronto Argonauts. Neither Nickalis nor Thompson exerted themselves. Thompson broke training yesterday evening, and simply rowed to-day out of sports-manlike instinct.

The Pall Mall Gazette this evening, com menting on the defeat of Cornell, says There never was such a popular victory in the history of the regatta. Trinity rowed beautifully together, in true 'varsity' style, and gradually wore the Yankeer Few medicines have held their ground so successfully as Ayer's Cherry Peotoral. During the past fifty years, it has been the most popular of all cough cures and the demand for it to day is greater than ever before. Prompt to act and sure to cure.

CABLE NEWS.

the Nationalists' Meeting in County Tyrone.

> the United States and Arbitration.

LONDON, July 9.—The Times this morning contains a scathing editorial on the Nawhip, as already cabled.

Sir Charles Pearson has been appointed lord advocate for Scotland, and A. G. Murray, solicitor general for Scotland, under the new ministry. Both these gentlemen held the same positions in the last Salisbury ministry.

The election address of Hon. A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, does not mention bi-metallism. Francis Clark, Queen Victoria's personal attendant, is dead The chamber of deputies to-day adopted seven or eight lengths ahead, rowing a long even stroke.

Passing the mile past in 5 minutes 32

It is stated that ex-Chief Clarence, formerly of the Mosquito territy and now a little Colson, the Cornell coxswain, could be distinctly heard from the shore, while

A sort of armed peace prevails in San Salrow, but his oar struck the water flat. Then again the men on the opposite side of the boat seemed unable to vador. Troops patrol the streets and sur-round all the public buildings. There have which the police were whipped. The foreigners are said to have been expelled censorship. A severe shock of earthquake occurred at Laibach, Austria, to-day, which damaged many houses. Laibach was the victim of a series of very severe earthquakes in April of this year.

U. S. Minister Eustis being questioned in regard to the alleged interview with him published in the Figaro said: "I have not been interviewed and I have not consented to nor authorized the publication of an opinion from myself on any of the questions discussed in the alleged interview. The Daily News correspondent at Berlin telegraphs that a surprise visit by an official committee made to the private lunatic asylum of Hans Kemmen, near Amelieduren, belonging, like the notorious Mariabirg asy-lum, to the Alexian brotherhood, revealed such gross scandals that the provincial ad ministration talk of closing it and rebuilding.

A cloud burst on Saturday night destroyed the Queen," and the crowd cheered itself half of the village of Olanesoi, in the district of Valcea, Hungary. Many persons bottom of the Cornell boat, while his near-A dispatch to the Times from Kobe says attempt has been made at Seoul to arrest Prince Pak, the prime minister. It is surmised that the affair is connected with an attempt of the Queen's party to overthrow Japanese ascendency in Korea. Fire has destroyed 230 houses in the town of Sambrew, government of Lomsha, Poland. Two thousand persons are rendered homeless by the conflagration.

London, July 10.-The U.S. Ambassador, Hon. Thomas Bayard, had an interview with Lord Salisbury, the new Premier this afternoon. The Tsung Li Yamen, (Chinese foreign ably half of the second Chinese indemnity ers, a number of Englishmen belonging to Henley called at the Cornell boat house and will be received from Great Britain and the > Senor Sagaste, ex-premier, during the course of an interview, declared that the Liberals would agree to pay the Mora indemnities for damages sustained by Spaniards during the war of secession provided the cortes agree to vote the credit n El'Liberal commenting on the situation in Cuba to-day says that the United States has loyally performed its international obligations so far as the island of Cuba is con> cerned. German warships have arrived at Tangler with orders to insist upon the payment by the government of Morocco of the indemnity of 8,000 marks for the murder of a German citizen named Rockstrop, near Saffi.

Referring to the proceedings of the National convention at Omagh, County Tyrone, the Times asks " how many seats in the last made contracts for any other seats or services with the Irish vendors and whether the House of Lords is to be robbed of its fainted three times. As Cornell pulled to the judges' stand in order to go through the formality of leaving their weights, they redounds to the honor and greatness of England and the purity and good fame of our parliament.

The Duke of Portland has been appointed Master of the Horse. The Earls of Dartmouth, Waldegrave, Ranfurly and Lords Churchill, Harris, Henniker and Lawrence have been made lords-in-waiting; the Marquis of Carmarthen treasurer of the household; Lord Arthur Hill comptroller of the household, and Ailwyn Fellowes vice chamberlain. Sir Henry James has been raised to the peerage.

Severe earthquake shocks have been experienced in the Caspian and Ural districts and many houses have been destroyed at Usanda, Astrachan and Krasnovosk.

The friends of Mrs. Florence Maybrick are once more renewing their efforts to obtain her release from prison. Mrs. Maybrick, it will be remembered, was convict of poisoning her husband, James Maybrick. by arsenic and sentenced to death on August 7, 1889, which sentence was afterwards commuted to penal servitude for life.

The penitentiary congress has adjourned to meet in Brussels in 1900. Bolivia has sent an ultimatum to Peru demanding an answer within twenty-four hours as to whether Peru will give satisfaction for the alleged offence committed against Bolivia during the civil war. A dispatch to Le Journal of Paris from St. Petersburg says that an extensive plot has been discovered in Moscow against the life of the Czar. Eight persons have been arrested charged with complicity in the plot. Among the prisoners are six well known Nihilista.

Rear-Admiral Curtis died suddenly while returning from a visit to the Italian men-of-returning from a visit to the Italian men-of-war at Spithead.

The Daily News Paris correspondent says: "The Eastis interview seems to have been a splendid hoax. It seemed highly im-probable that any diplomatists should have made remarks in such bad tasts."

A Times despatch from Lima says that Peru refuses to comply with the Bolivian