EIGHT MILLION FOR WELLAND CANAL

House carried Vote of $8,000,000 for Welland Canal Project On Saturday.

Ottawa, June 12.—In the Commons, today, Government bills and resolutions on the order paper will be taken up. Afterwards, the House will go into supply in estimates of the Department of Militia to be followed by those of the Secretary of State, Department of Trade and Commerce, and remaining items of the Post Office.

The House, on Saturday, carried a vote of eight million dollars for construction of the Welland Canal after we turn Progressive members had made an unsuccessful fight to have the appropriation reduced by one-half. The motion for reduction of the estimate came from John Millar, Progressive member for Qu'Appelle.

Among other appropriations for canals, a vote of $50,000 for surveys and investigations on the St. Lawrence ship canal, was carried.

RECEIVED BIG ORDER.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Kerr have just returned from Virginia, U. S., where Mrs. Kerr received an order for 10,000 curls of pigwood.

Go to Andrew's Clothing Store for a pair of white flannel trousers with black stripes.

A BOOK OF VERSE.

We have received from Mr. R. E. Leithall of Gaspé County, a small volume of verse for immediate publication. The volume will bear the title "Pastime Poems."

REPAIRING ROAD.

A gang of men are at work on the highway between Adam's hill and Miller's mill. It is hoped that good gravel will be applied to the new road bed.
