HE SAYS THE CENTRAL HAS WON THE STRIKE. But the Despatches Make It Appear that He is Showing a Little Too Soon. Pinkerton Men Making Up Freight Trains and Guarding the Switches.

ALBANY, Aug. 11.—Everything has quieted here today. The passenger service is somewhat better than yesterday, but everything is still comparatively in a state of uncertainty. The freight trains, however, are running on time, while those from the west were over to two hours late. No attempt will be made to move freight trains out of the West Albany yard until additional Pinkerton men arrive in such numbers as will allow them to picket the yard around the miles of boundary. Carpenters employed by the Central were striking yesterday, but the West Albany paint shop for the accommodation of these men when they arrive. The dress of the men was similar to that of the strikers, but was not so clean and neat as that of the strikers. The men were dressed in blue and black, and were wearing hats of various styles. The men were not so well dressed as some of the strikers. The men were not so well dressed as some of the strikers.

Lee said this morning that he had been clearing of his work over 8000 men on strike. He received by him showed everything to be in good condition.

The Pinkerton agency here has also received an order for a large number of men to act as guards along the road. Grand Master Skelton here has also received an order to act as a picket on the line. He says it is purely a Knights of Labor strike.

THE FINAL TARIFF.

ARRIVES AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE AND IS BEING STRIPPED UP. When The World Dropped in upon Acting Collector Douglas at the Custom House at the close of business yesterday, that gentleman was found buried in the pages of an official looking pamphlet. "That's my book," said Mr. Douglas, "is the final and official tariff. I just got it from Ottawa to-day. I am studying its contents, and I can assure you it is a bulky affair. We will from this time forward work under the provisions of this book. Since May 20 we have been working under this one," Mr. Douglas exhibited a small-looking volume.
