WEDNESDAY, JAN. 31ST, 1906.
PRESERVING OUR GAME.

The necessity of a general and united effort to preserve the valuable game which is to be found in our woodlands and along our shores must be very obvious to all reasonable persons. Statutes and regulations look well enough on the pages of our law books, but unless they are rigidly enforced and observed they are of little value in accomplishing the purpose for which they were designed. We have reason to fear that these laws are frequently, if not systematically violated by persons who claim to be respectable and law-abiding citizens. Yet these parties must surely possess intelligence enough to conceive them that in violating our game laws they are doing serious injury to their own best interests as well as to those of the general public. This consideration alone, selfish as it may seem to be, should be sufficiently powerful to deter them from a course that is not only unlawful but practically suicidal.

It is stated on the highest authority that the destruction of a spawning lobster during the close season, means the destruction of millions of eggs, which in the course of a few years would add immensely to the number of these valuable crustaceans in our coast waters. A person who would be guilty of such criminal destruction must be either lacking in ordinary common sense, or he is a most dangerous enemy to the welfare of his country. The preservation of game during the close season is clearly designed to secure the perpetuation and increase of that game; otherwise we shall soon have nothing to protect, and dishonest poachers will be among the first to suffer from this entirely unnecessary condition of affairs. For this reason we earnestly appeal to the self-interest of would-be violators of our laws to cease from a shameful practice which is not only illegal and unmanly, but is greatly detrimental to the welfare of the criminals themselves, as well as a heinous infringement upon the rights of the public.

Farmers' Met at Tyro.

Tyro, Jan. 29.—The Nova Scotia Farmers' association opened its tenth annual convention here tonight. The president's address on "Economics—Maintenance of Soil Fertility," by Professor Frank Shutt, of Ottawa, formed the evening's program. President H. Fraser, of Elmville, presided on some pertinent subjects. He expressed satisfaction of the farmers with the last year's crops and urged farmers to go more largely into the raising of fat cattle. He told them they had no room to grumble over hard times now, as there is a good market for all and everything the farmer can produce. He wanted farmers to encourage boys to stay on the farm, pointing out that farmers are independent. While they sleep their crops grow; while others sleep their sheep starve. He sat down in heavy style on the provincial exhibitions and grand stand shows and urged farmers to step out and demand clean exhibits. He spoke in the highest terms of the maritime winter fair and agricultural college, and especially of the efficient staff of the college. The attendance is small, but a large crowd is expected on tomorrow's train.

Tribune Printing Office Wrecked.

Springhill, Jan. 29.—A dastardly outrage was committed in Springhill last night, when the office of the Tribune was broken into, and the type taken. Some was destroyed, and the balance was strewn through Main street. It will take three or four days to get in shape to issue another paper. The Tribune has taken a leading part in civil matters, advocating civil reform in the coming town election. Its course has been commended by right-thinking people of the town, but it has incurred enemies by the stand. The store belonging to the estate of A. E. Fraser, was also broken into and a quantity of goods stolen. It is not known who the parties are who committed the crime.

Lord Roberts Warns Great Britain.

He Says that a Million Men are Required for Defence of the Nation.

London, Jan. 29.—With the opening of the new Parliamentary regime, Field Marshal Lord Roberts renews his campaign of warning to the country regarding the inadequacy of its defence. Addressing the members of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce to-night, he again affirmed that the nation was absolutely unprepared for war as it was in 1899. He urged the adoption of a million men as the military standard, half of which would be needed for the defence of India, and the other half to fit the Nation to maintain a European struggle. Lord Roberts said he had heard of the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance with enthusiasm, but he reminded his audience that national conditions and national necessities were subject to change, and that the alliance only applied to Asia and not to Europe where the danger was greater.

Rev. Chas. McKinnon Opposes Church Unity.

Says That Christ and not the Bible Should be Taken as the Infallible Rule of Faith and Life.

Winnipeg, Jan. 26.—Rev. Clarence McKinnon, of Westminster Presbyterian church is the first Winnipeg divine to publicly take exception to the basis of organic union as arranged by the joint committee from the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational denominations of Canada. He challenges article II of Revelation—which has to do with the infallibility of the bible, and contends that Christ and not the bible should be taken as the infallible rule of faith and life. With the other articles he did not disagree in his sermon on church union delivered at Westminster yesterday morning.

The article on revelation as drawn up by the committee reads as follows: "We believe that God is revealed in part in nature, in history and in the heart of man; that He has made gracious and clearer revelations of Himself to make of God who spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit, and that Jesus Christ, the word made flesh, is the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person. We gratefully receive the Holy scriptures of the old testament and new testament given by inspiration to be the faithful record of God's gracious revelation and a sure witness to Christ, as the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and life."

Lumber Prices Likely Advance.

Lack of Snow Will Materially Reduce the Output in Nova Scotia.

N. N. Bentley, of Wolfville, was in Halifax recently. Mr. Bentley is a prominent lumber manufacturer and carries on extensive operations along the line of the Midland railway. In conversation with a representative of the Herald, he said that the mild weather and absence of snow was seriously interfering with the season's work, and that as a result the output would probably be fifty per cent. less than last year's. Asked what possible effect the shortage would have on the market, he replied that it might, and it might not, cause an upward tendency in the foreign market, but he felt quite sure that this would be a sharp advance in prices in the home market.

King Christian IX. Dead.

Copenhagen, Jan. 29.—Christian IX, the aged king of Denmark, dean of the crowned heads of Europe, father of the King of Greece, of Queen Alexandra of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Dowager Empress Marie Feodorovna of Russia, grandfather of King Haakon VII. of Norway, and related by blood or by marriage to most of the European rulers, died with startling suddenness in the Amalienburg palace this afternoon. The accession of his successor, Prince Frederik, his eldest son, who will be known as Frederik VIII., will be proclaimed tomorrow. The following official bulletin was issued this evening: "His majesty died at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon. After his majesty had brought this morning's audience to a conclusion he appeared to be quite well and proceeded to luncheon as usual. Towards the end of the meal he gave evidence of indisposition and was compelled to retire to bed at 2.30 p. m. His majesty passed away peacefully, the symptoms indicating heart failure."

Russia's Awakening.

Editor Gahan of the Jewish Daily Forward contributes an original explanation of the cause of Russia's awakening. In a recent address at Cooper Union, New York city, he said: "At the bottom of the situation in Russia today is the factory. Forty years ago a revolution could not go far because the peasantry were unskilled and living individual lives. As industrialism increased the peasantry drifted into factories to become wage slaves. Without the factory there could have been no revolution." This explanation certainly seems reasonable.

Forty years ago there was a revolutionary party in Russia, but it was composed principally of professors and students. It was a head without a body. Twenty years ago manufacturing towns began to grow. The people from the country districts sought employment in the cities. The body began to grow. Ten years ago, industries continuing to thrive, the head had secured enough body to make demonstrations in the streets of the manufacturing cities. Today there is a head and there is a body, the head wise enough to plan, the body almost able enough to carry out any revolutionary movement that may be necessary to remedy the conscious of the people. If this revolutionary combination had not to contend with other and more radical elements it would soon gain all that it seeks.

Industrial Russia must continue to grow. Its mills and factories today produce only a fraction of the products consumed by its people. Thousands upon thousands of peasants are unable to secure in the fields the necessities of life, and must seek them in the cities. So the factory not only underlies the situation in Russia today but is going to determine the condition of Russia in the future.
