

Attractive Premiums for 'Messenger' Subscribers.

Open to all readers of the 'Messenger,' young or old. Remit for the various offers as given under, naming your premium clearly, and we despatch it to you promptly, postpaid.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS

When new subscribers are stipulated, we mean absolutely bonafide new subscribers, that is, people in whose homes the paper in question has not been taken for at least two years.

All these premium propositions are based on the full regular rates, both for renewals and new subscriptions, since those who take advantage of premium offers are not entitled to club prices on the same orders.

In any of these premium offers, a bonafide new subscription to the 'Weekly Witness,' at $1.00 will, if desired, be taken as equal to two new 'Messenger' subscriptions.

A FEW PREMIUM BOOKS

RENEWALS

The main support of the 'Messenger' is its vast number of renewal subscriptions, and, while the following premium offers are made to secure new subscribers chiefly, we are willing to allow friends to include renewals in any list, but only on the basis of two renewals for each single new subscription required.

The Older Readers

Your choice from these four for two new subscriptions:

1. 'Sea, Forest and Prairie'—A collection of Canadian Stories, that some of the 'Messenger' readers helped to make. Cloth bound; good type.
2. 'Barnaby Rudge,' by Charles Dickens. Cloth bound; gilt top.
3. 'Kenilworth,' by Sir Walter Scott. Cloth bound; gilt top.
4. 'Ivanhoe,' by Sir Walter Scott. Cloth bound; gilt top.

Any one of the above sent postpaid for one renewal to the 'Northern Messenger' at 40 cents and twenty cents in cash, or separately for twenty-five cents.

Free and postpaid for two new subscriptions to the 'Messenger' at forty cents each. Or, one renewal and one new subscription to the 'Messenger' at forty cents each and a book to each subscriber, all for only one dollar.

Sterling Silver Spoons

FULL SIZE

1. Sterling silver teaspoon, full size, beautiful chaste pattern; something to give lifelong satisfaction. A stock design, so that you can add spoons large or small, or forks large or small, as may be desired. (Same size as cut.)

One of these spoons sent postpaid with one renewal to the 'Messenger' at 40 cents and $1.10 in cash, or separately to 'Messenger' subscribers for $1.25.

Free and postpaid to an old subscriber sending only five new subscriptions to the 'Messenger' at 40 cents each.

2. Souvenir spoon, large size, sterling silver, handle showing handsome figure of Indian, with raised paddle, the whole surmounted by Canadian Coat-of-Arms in fine hard enamel. (See cut.)

Bowl may be left plain, or engraved to order with any desired name—a very beautiful spoon—retails at $2.25.

Free and postpaid for only eight new subscriptions to the 'Messenger' at 40 cents each. If you cannot get eight, send 25 cents in cash for each subscription you lack.

No.

2.

Silver Plated Spoons

One-half dozen silver-plated Teaspoons, 1847 Rogers-plate, that any housekeeper might be justly proud of. The set neatly packed in plush-lined box. These premiums are well worth all the trouble it may cost to secure the somewhat large list of subscribers.

This set sent postpaid for one renewal to the 'Messenger' at 40 cents and $2.00 in cash, or separately to 'Messenger' subscribers for $2.25.

Free and postpaid for nine new subscribers to the 'Messenger' at 40 cents each.

N.B.—If the required number of subscribers cannot be obtained, add 25 cents in cash for each one lacking.
