

Cowe Bros., of Goodland, Lapeer County, recently sold a ton and a half of honey in the Lapeer market. Their little busy bees evidently "improve each shining hour." — Michigan Farmer.

JAMES MILLS.—I wish to thank Mr. Howard through your valuable paper for the splendid queen he sent me, although a little late in the season. She made up her lee-way, and the Association contracted with the right man. I was more than pleased. If Mr. Howard should be dealing in queens again I would suggest that he send their pedigree on a postal. Some of my brother bee-keepers were admiring her beauty, but I could not tell her descent.
