

A standard developed through a life-time of unceasing endeavor has given the Mason & Risch Piano the unchallenged prestige that commends it to those who recognize and demand the BEST.

Careful and exhaustive attention to the most minute details of construction and the use throughout of the finest materials obtainable,—no matter what the cost,—these are the most important features that impart to the Mason & Risch Piano the value that gives it precedence, and make plain your right to speak with authority when recommending this famous instrument as

“THE BEST PIANO BUILT.”
