FASTEST YET.

HOW TEN BROECK ECLIPSED THE RECORD. TWO SECONDS FASTER THAN EVER BEFORE ACHIEVED IN TURF HISTORY.

Last week scored another splendid achievement for the Louisville Jockey Club. The attraction of Ten Broeck's race against time proved potent, and the largest attendance ever beheld at the course was the result. There were perhaps eight thousand people on the grounds. In the grand stand were elegantly dressed ladies without number. The track had been carefully prepared, the sun shone brightly, the weather was delightful, and everything conspired to make the day joyous and memorable.

The grand event of the track yesterday was Ten Broeck's mile dash against the fast in 1:39—two seconds earlier than the time he had started out to beat. It was an accumulation of time and space in earnest. The first quarter was finished in 24, the half in 49, the three-quarters in 1:13, and the mile in 1:39, and Mr. J. R. Butler, Captain Central and Col. R. H. Johnson were the time-keepers, while Major Ben Bruce, of Lexington, handled the flag.

After the race, Ten Broeck was taken over to the Club-house and turned loose to the admiration of a large party which had gathered there, while Mr. Harper, his happy owner, was toasted and congratulated by a number of the most prominent gentlemen of the State, who had gathered there to witness the triumph of Kentucky's greatest horse.—Courier-Journal.

Amusements.

Burlesque is the reigning power in the city this week. At the Grand Opera House the Wallace-Villa Combination have been playing to fair houses. During the week they will produce some of the most popular pieces in their repertoire. The company is very strong in burlesque and dramatic talent, and Joking aside, this is by far the most stupendous amusement enterprise ever projected. Something like half a million dollars worth of foreign features have been added to the present year, including Barnum's Scriptural Behemoth, the only living hippopotamus this side the Atlantic; a stud of six most magnificently beautiful "Trakens" trick stallions, which cost Mr. Barnum $30,000 in gold, in Paris, and for whose equals in either appearance or intelligence $50,000 is freely offered; Costentenus, the remarkable and sole survivor of Tartar Chinese barbarity, whose person is covered, literally, from head to foot, with tattooing, and for half as skillfully illustrate a being as him $50,000 will be paid; Miss Hengler's original and dauntless $50,000 challenge double manege act, with her two superb tandem stallions, and Charles W. Fish, the chief among the bareback equestrian champions. And all this but an inkling of what is to be seen, not to speak of the more than monarchical free street parade in the morning, with its huge elephants in harness, drawing stupendous golden chariots, lions and anacondas performed in procession, and other princely and novel sensations, for too numerous to mention. How can Barnum afford to show so much for so small a price?
