

SANMETTO A STANDARD REMEDY IN GENITO-URINARY DISEASES.

I have prescribed Sanmetto in a large number of cases of genito-urinary troubles during the last four years, and with uniformly good success. In prostatic troubles of old men, with difficult micturition, it acts like a charm. In cases of irritable bladder with incontinence of urine, I have never met with any remedy that acts so well. I prescribe it frequently, and shall continue to do so, as I look upon it as a standard remedy.

THE LIVING AGE.

The Living Age needs but to be read to be appreciated. Elevating, entertaining and instructive, it embraces every department of literature, including some of the best fiction of the day and poetry, and contains something for every variety of taste.

The following partial contents of its February issue is suggestive of its wide scope and great value. It is indeed invaluable to one who has neither time nor opportunity for scanning all the magazines, but who is desirous of keeping abreast of the literary current.

"The Degradation of Dreyfus," from the French of Adolph Brisson, in Les Annales; "A Session of The Reichstag," from the German of Richard Nordhausen, in Ueber Land und Meer; "The Coming of the Slav," by Geo. Washburn, D.D., in Contemporary Review; "Lewis Carroll" from the Spectator; "The Higher Education of Women in Russia," by Princess Kropotkin; "A Walk thro' Deserted London," by Sir Algernon West; "A Simple Story," from the Polish of M^{me} Marguerite Poradowzka; "A Lady's Life on a Ranch," by Moira O'Neill; "Pilgrims and Emigrants," from the French of Emile Bertaux; "A Woman Learned and Wise," by Alexander H. Japp; "Burns," by Charles Whibley—and many others, with fiction, including an instalment in each number of "With all Her Heart," a delightful serial, translated for The Living Age from the French of Rene Bazin, and several short stories, and poetry.

The Living Age is published weekly at $6.00 a year by the The Living Age Co., Boston. Send 15 cents for a sample copy and special offer to new subscribers.

HERE IS SUCCESS FOR YOU.

"Inside figures" are always interesting, and the following are certainly some striking ones about The Ladies' Home Journal. During 1897, 8,183,113 copies of this magazine were printed and so thoroughly sold that the latter-year issues are entirely out of print. It consumes 3,434,362 pounds of paper in a year, and absorbs 30,902 pounds of ink. It runs 28 presses. The advertising columns contained $498,325 worth of advertising during the last year. The editors received 9290 manuscripts and less than one per cent. were accepted. The magazine employs 22 staff editors. 24,648 letters have been received and answered in the year by the editors of the correspondence columns. The Journal has over 15,000 active working agents on the road getting subscriptions. It has educated 442 girls free of charge under its free educational plan. In a single day it has received as high as 18,000 subscriptions. 300,000 copies of the Journal are sold each month on the news stands alone—425,000 people subscribe for it by the year.

SPEECHES AND SPEECH MAKING.

BY JUDGE J. W. DONOVAN.

This book upon its appearance obtained an immediate and wide-spread popularity. And that is natural, for it is of practical interest and value to every man who has or hopes for any prominence in his community. It contains nearly 300 pages, giving practical hints and helps both as to preparing and delivering speeches; examples of speeches for the many different occasions on which we are
