

kettle, a pot of jam from every household where jam is known, and—a servant. This last is the worst need. It is very hard, and very unreasonable that the Sisters should be doing the work of a servant at any time, but especially so during this hot weather. Friends of the Home are earnestly requested to help in the search for a servant to do plain cooking and washing. We have forgotten to mention the need of a mangle. If two or three kind friends would unite to present a mangle, it would be a real kindness.

The following donations are thankfully acknowledged: Groceries, from Mrs. J. Boulton (weekly), Mrs. Barwick, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Haliwell, Mrs. Howland, Mrs. J. C. Kemp, Messrs. Mara, and Hutchison, and also from the entertainment at S. James's, meat, from Messrs. Mumford, Outhet, Woolling, Dever, two friends, Rev. R. J. Moore. Fruit and vegetables from Mrs. J. Boulton, Mrs. Spence, Mrs. Macnab, Mrs. H. Gates, Misses Moffatt, Gamble, Darling, and Esten, Mr. Wm. Ryan. Plants from Mrs. Jas. Henderson, Mrs. Rolph, Mrs. Heath. Salmon from Mrs. Barwick. Clothes baskets from Mrs. Langton, and Mrs. Cameron. Milk from Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Frost, Younge and Gibson. Clothes, books, &c., from Mrs. Lough and other kind friends.