

FOR MARCH

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE for March will be composed in part as follows :

¶ A descriptive and historical article by Mr. Cy. Warman, the well-known author and journalist, on Prince Rupert and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

¶ Some hitherto unpublished letters of Gov. Simcoe, with notes and comments by Mr. W. R. Givens.

¶ A review of the New York theatrical season by Mr. John E. Webber.

¶ A fascinating short story by Mrs. Leeming Carr, a Hamilton lady, author of "Cupid and the Candidate." It will be illustrated by Maud McLaren.

¶ Mr. Augustus Bridle will contribute a clever impression of a modern economic tendency under the title "The Disillusionment of Dodge."

¶ Champlain's tercentenary will be observed with a comprehensive review of the great explorer's journal by Miss Ida Burwash.

¶ The foregoing are merely some of the attractions the March number will contain.
