

GREAT SPECIAL OFFER.

In making an inventory, at the close of our recent Introductory Distribution, we find in stock a few sets of The Encyclopaedic Dictionary (in cloth and half-Russia bindings only) of which the bindings are slightly marred—not enough to impair their real value, but sufficient to prevent their shipment as perfect stock at our regular prices of $42.00 to $70.00 a set. There being only a limited number of these sets, we shall not go to the trouble of re-binding them, but have decided to let them go on easy payments of $1 down and $1 per month until paid for—a little more than half our very low introductory price. By prompt action now, therefore, a number of ambitious and deserving readers of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE who desire an up-to-date reference library may secure these special sets at about cost of making.

While They Last

They are yours for a lifetime this easy way:

$1 Down and $1 a Month.

We Guarantee

That these volumes, except for slight rubs or abrasions on the binding, are precisely the same as those sold at full prices; yet we cannot offer them as perfect stock, and our loss shall be your gain. This is Positively the Greatest Bargain ever offered in a strictly high-class standard publication. It can never be duplicated under any circumstances whatsoever. For those persons who are trying to "get along" with older and inferior reference works, this is a really wonderful opportunity.

Four massive volumes. Weight about 40 pounds. 50,000 Encyclopaedic Topics, 250,000 words defined. About 5,000 Royal Quarto Pages. Cost $750.00 to produce.
