MANITOBA SCHOOLS.

A batch of papers, comprising 392 folios, in connection with the abolition of separate schools in Manitoba by the Legislature of that province, was laid on the table of the Commons on Monday. The documents comprise a petition from the Catholic Episcopate of Canada re the school acts of Manitoba, an order-incouncil dated 4th April, 1890, regarding the same; petitions from the Catholic section of the Board of Education regarding the same; copies of representa-tions made by Mr. Prendergast, M.L.A.. to the Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba and forwarded by him to His Excellency the Governor-General; a memorial of certain members of the Legislative Assembly, a memorial from the Bishop of Three Rivers, a memorial from the Archbishop of St. Boniface, a petition from certain members of the Legislative Assembly, and petitions from the Roman Catholics of Manitoba. The petition of the Cardinal Archibisher of Quebec and of the archbishops and Bishops of the Roman Cath-olic Church in the Dominion of Canada Quebec sets forth that the acts in question de-prived the Roman Catholics of Manitola of the rights which they enjoyed in regard to education. These two acts and the one abolishing the use of the French ianguage in the Legislature and the courts were said to be measures which .400k away the dearest interests of a large portition of the loval subjects of Her Majesty. These laws, the petitioners set forth, were contrary to the assurance given to the people of Manitoba on entering Confederation and were a flagrant violation of the British North America act, 1867; of the Manitoba act, 1870, and of the British North America act, 1871. They viewed with alarm the disadvantages and even dangers which would accrue from the enforcement of these acts and, therefore, they asked "a remedy to the pernicious legislation above mentioned and that in the most efficacious and just way."

Some Irish Notes.

A correspondent writing from Dublin, gives the following interesting notes:-For the last few days Dublin has been invaded by regular armies of Connaught men bound for the harvest in England. On Friday, June 26, the steamship companies carried over 4000 across to Liverpool. In former years these harvestmen were mostly elderly men, but a great change is to be noticed now in the "imigrants." Nearly all are fine, stalwart young men, fit for any sort of work. To their credit be it said that these men have been most quiet and orderly in their demeanor, and there was not the very slightest disturbance of any kind. Most of the men bailed from the County Mayo. What a splendid lot of fellows to secure for the North-West!

Carlow has been distinguished for always having some remarkable representative. The late member, The O'Gorman Malion, was a wonderful character. but the late Lieutenant of the county, and former M. P., the Right Hon. Arthur M. Kavanagh, was a most extraordinary man. He represented Carlow in the the shade in the boat. Much of the House of Commons from 1868 to 1880. He was a finely formed man so far as his body went, with a noble face, and grand intellectual powers. He married his ccusin and left several sons and daughters. He only died two years ago, at the age of fifty-eight, deeply regretted by all who knew him.

Here in Dublin we have another The," who wields his tongue in the law courts with as much effect as his forefathers did the sword on the battle fields. "The MacDermot, Q.C.." is one of the most prominent barristers of the Dublin courts. He has relinquished the ancient title of "Prince of Coolavin," which he inherits as the chief of the MucDermot sept, as he probably thinks it would not look quite the thing on his briefs. The title was recognized by the Government, and the late "Prince" always signed as such. "The Mac Dermot" holds the head rent of the King-Harman property, and in the disastrous years of the famine, although very hard pressed, the head of the family refused a thousand years' purchase of his ancient rights. When adjudicating in any diputes of his "subjects," the late "Prince" tised always to sit on a dais, in one of the rooms of his house, and hear the cases with all the dignity of a king.

Over-Production.

Losbox, July 17 .-- The President of the Board of Trade, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach. in the House of Commons to-day, said the Government was aware of the temporary stoppage of the tin-plate works in Wates, involving the throwing of 200000 men out of work. He thought overproduction was the cause of this state of affairs, and quoted figures in support of this theory.
