Mr. R. S. Fletcher, of Winnipeg, Superintendent of the Monarch Life Assurance Company, was recently in Calgary and reported that his company, although a new one in Western Canada, is doing a business exceeding his anticipations.

The Phoenix Assurance Company has been authorized to carry on in Canada, in addition to its business of fire insurance, the existing business of the Pelican and British Empire Life Office. Messrs. Paterson & Son, Montreal, are the chief agents of the company.

The Standard Life Assurance Company is rapidly approaching its centenary, for the other day it held its eighty-third annual meeting. The revenue for the year ended November 14, 1908, was $7,357,665. The amount of assurances accepted, for which 3,986 policies were issued, was $9,475,600 and of this amount $511,500 was reassured with other offices.

At the last monthly meeting of the Belleville Life Underwriters' Association, President Geo. E. Jarrell, district manager of the Imperial Life, occupied the chair. John E. Parks, past president; Jas. Rabbitts, secretary; W. McMullen, and S. Stocker, of the North American Life; H. H. Gray, B. F. Butler, and F. S. Ray, of Metropolitan Life; C. W. Gibbons, of the Mutual Life of Canada, were also present.
