

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 55
No. 26

TORONTO, DECEMBER 24, 1915

ESTABLISHED
1867

Mines and Mining

After investigating 1,500 mining propositions, the Canadian Mining and Exploration Company, now in voluntary liquidation, could not obtain a prospect at a price justifying its promotion. Views expressed by the directors. Page 10

Capital After War

When the reaction from the exhaustion of the belligerent countries begins, a great commercial and industrial expansion may be expected, but there will be a shortage of necessary industrial capital, says an English authority. Page 20

Mortgage Investments

An appeal for different sort of legislative action in the Western provinces in regard to mortgage investments. Some typical cases. What does outside capital think? Page 9

Municipal Bond Market

The Monetary Times' weekly register of municipal activities and financing. Saskatchewan rural telephone bonds. Serial plan of bond issue is favored by Burnaby, B.C. Page 28

Life Insurance Lapses

That "twisting" of life insurance policies from one company to another is the curse of the business, was the opinion of speakers at the Insurance Institute of Toronto. Discussion of the lapse evil in life insurance. Page 22

Sun Life and Manufacturers'

Statements explaining the proposed transactions are issued by Mr. T. B. Macaulay, Pages 7 and 18. Terms of and reasons for the amalgamation; position of the policyholders; general principles of the proposal. Page 10

History of Wheat

Story of the Red Fife and Marquis varieties. Agriculture as it was conducted on the present battlefields. Mesopotamia may yet see the puffing caterpillar tractor. Page 5

About S. Claus

Seasonable thoughts respecting a popular gentleman, his character, his beliefs, his relation to the Great War and the peace ship, and his faith in the rising generation. Page 12

WEEKLY STATISTICAL RECORD—Pages 36, 38, 40, 42, 44.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 35.

ANNUAL REPORTS—Pages 25, 33, 43.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10, 12.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents.