

nal, and there is no improvement to note regarding the demand for oats. Values are on the easy side, 39 and 40c. being about the idea. A few lots of peas are offering, but holders cannot get bids. Local buyers are showing a little more disposition to do business in flour, but the market is still quiet. A few holders are trying to establish an advance of 5c. per bbl., but have not been very successful, the position of the wheat market being against them. No cable orders are being received.

GROCERIES.—The grocery business has been quiet during the week, buyers only taking what they need to meet actual requirements. A fair movement is noted in sugars at unchanged prices, granulated being 5½c. and the lowest yellows 4½c. Stocks in grocers' hands are generally small and refiners anticipate a good brisk movement in the course of a week or two. Syrups are neglected, and there is very little doing in molasses. Teas are very dull for this season of the year, the apparent lack of interest being ascribed to the unsettled state of the silver market. The demand for rice has been very slow during the week. Canned goods are dull and featureless, salmon alone coming in for attention. Agents are now delivering stock ordered in the spring, several carloads being received from the coast. There is a difference of opinion as to whether the orders will be filled, the reports from the coast concerning the pack being most contradictory. One thing is almost certain, and that is that the salmon contracted for early in the spring at $1.07½ is going to make the purchaser lots of money. There are no Valencia, off stalk, raisins in first hands, prices being purely nominal at 2½ to 3½c. as to quality. No transactions are noted for first direct steamers, although prices are quoted nominal at 16s. 6d. to 18s. east and freight Montreal.

LEATHER.—No new business is noted in leather, dealers generally being engaged filling contracts made months ago. We quote:—Spanish sole, B. A., No. 1, 20 to 22c.; do. No. 2 to B. A., 17 to 19c.; No. 1, ordinary Spanish, 18 to 20c.; No. 2, 16 to 17c.; No. 1, China, none to be
