and Manly Vigor, Nervous Debility, Paralysis, or Palsy, Organic Weakness and wasting Drains upon the system, resulting in dullness of mental Faculties, Impaired Memory, Low Spirits, Morose or Irritable Temper, fear of impending calamity, and a thousand and one derangements of both body and mind result from pernicious secret practices, often indulged in by the young, through ignorance of their ruinous consequences. To reach, re-claim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of an association of medical gentlemen who have prepared a book, written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., will, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents (in stamps for postage) mail, sealed in plain envelope, a copy of this useful book. It should be read by every young man, parent and guardian in the land.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Ottawa Free Press: Rev. Principal Grant, of Queen's University, Kingston, strongly supports Sir Oliver Mowat and his Government in the present campaign. He says Ontario cannot afford to dispense with the services of Sir Oliver Mowat, the man who has done so much for the Province. If the Rev. Principal keeps on doing good work the Canadian people may yet be induced to condone the terrible break he made in urging the elevation of Sir Charles Tupper to the Conservative leadership and the premiership of the Dominion after Sir John Macdonald's death.

St. John Telegraph: It has been the great happiness of our good Queen to live in an age when the people are constantly pressing forward to higher achievements, an age of boundless benevolence and charity, as well as of material improvement in every direction. Her Majesty, from her position, has not been able to take an active part in much of the great work of the world, but she has set an admirable example to her subjects, and has shown herself to be a wise constitutional ruler, constant in the discharge of every public duty and ready to lend her assistance to every good work.

Halifax Chronicle: It can be safely said that Queen Victoria has no enemies among the rulers of civilized nations. Her womanly virtues, as much as the prestige and beneficence of her reign, have endeared her to the British people and to Britons in every colony of the empire and have won for her the unfeigned respect of the people of other nations. To-day as the British drum-beat and the boom of royal salutes encircle the world, not the British people alone but Anglo-Saxons of every nation and every clime will heartily join in the glad acclaim, "Long live Queen Victoria"—"God save the Queen."

Victoria World: The London Times of the 14th May contains a letter from its Canadian correspondent which is five columns in length and treats of live Canadian matters in a lucid and intelligent manner. Speaking of the French-Canadian question, the correspondent, who seems to be perfectly at home on the subject, says it is quite possible for Mr. Laurier with the loyal support of the Liberal party throughout the Dominion, and in view of the state of the public feeling in Quebec and other eastern Provinces, to become Prime Minister at the next general elections. The French-Canadian question, he says, has become the crux of politics in the Dominion.

Montreal Witness: All will rejoice over the success of the operation for the removal of the obstruction to Mr. Gladstone's eyesight. The cataract in Mr. Gladstone's case was the increase or hardening of certain tissues at the expense of other tissues, rendering the lens of the eye more or less opaque; it was caused probably by the changes which old age bring about. It would not surprise us if Mr. Gladstone took his place once more at the head of the Liberal party. He is said to be in good health and in high spirits. When the bugle sounds for the next campaign it will be extraordinary if the old war-horse hears its call without rushing into the fray. If he takes part in the fray it will be discovered, as before, that with him active in the party there is no other possible leader.
