

A proposal was also made to examine the possibility of adding Environment and Transportation to the three existing prospective sectors: Cold Region Technologies, Information technologies and New Materials. The French side accepted this proposal.