

on any ground on which the extradition of that person might be refused under this Treaty. The Contracting Party requesting transit shall provide any documents required by the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE XVII

Any documents submitted in accordance with this Treaty shall be accompanied by a translation certified in accordance with the law of the requesting State. Any such translation shall be admissible as evidence in extradition proceedings in the requested State.

ARTICLE XVIII

Expenses incurred in the territory of the requested State in connection with extradition shall be borne by that State, but the requesting State shall bear the expenses incurred in respect of conveying the person extradited to the requesting State from the place where he is in custody in the requested State and any expenses incurred in respect of transit.

ARTICLE XIX

Proceedings with regard to provisional arrest, extradition and transit shall be governed solely by the law of the requested State.

ARTICLE XX

(1) For the purposes of this Treaty, a reference to the territory of a Contracting Party means all territory, waters and airspace under its jurisdiction.

(2) If an offence has been committed

- (a) on the high seas on board a vessel registered in the territory of the requesting State; or
- (b) against or on board an aircraft or in respect of an air navigation facility and the requesting State asserts jurisdiction over the offence, extradition shall be granted to the same extent as if the offence had been committed within the territory of the requesting State.

(3) An offence committed partly within the territory of a Contracting Party shall be deemed to have been committed entirely within its territory.

ARTICLE XXI

(1) This Treaty shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as possible.

(2) This Treaty shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of instruments of ratification.
