

ARTICLE 10

Communication

1. Each Party, through its competent authority, shall promptly notify the other of any amendment or judicial interpretation of domestic law that may affect benefits available under this Treaty.
2. Each Party, through its administrative authority, shall collect and share statistical information on the performance, distribution or exhibition, on its territory, of the work receiving benefits under this Treaty.

ARTICLE 11

Annex

1. The Annex to this Treaty is for administrative purposes and is not legally binding.
2. The Annex may be modified by the Parties, through the mutual written consent of their competent authorities, provided that these modifications do not conflict with this Treaty.

ARTICLE 12

Meetings and Amendments

1. Meetings will be held as needed between representatives of the competent authority of each Party to discuss and review the terms of this Treaty.
2. The Parties may amend this Treaty by mutual written consent. Each Party shall notify the other Party in writing of the completion of the domestic procedures required for the entry into force of the amendments. The amendments shall enter into force on the first day of the first month following the date of the second of these notifications.

ARTICLE 13

Transitional Provisions

1. A Party shall not discontinue benefits granted for a work for a period of two years following termination of this Treaty, solely due to that termination.
