

communiqué

N^o:
No.: 07

January 13, 1986.

DIPLOMATIC APPOINTMENTS

The Right Honourable Joe Clark, Secretary of State for External Affairs, announces the following diplomatic appointments:

Mr. James K. Bartleman (46), originally from Port Carling, Ontario, as Ambassador to Israel.

Mr. Bartleman [B.A., University of Western Ontario] joined the Department of External Affairs in 1966. He has served abroad in Bogota, Bangkok, Dacca, and in Brussels with the North Atlantic Council. From 1979 to 1981, he was Director, Caribbean and Central American Division; from 1981 to 1983, Ambassador to Cuba. In 1983, he was appointed Director General of Intelligence Analysis and Security. Mr. Bartleman replaces Mr. V.G. Turner.

* * * *

.../2